The way we are

8:26 AM—
the beginning of each new school day for 1300
Madison Consolidated High School students.
From the first 8:26 bell that we dread as frightened freshmen to the last one we anticipate, a little sadly,
as graduating seniors,
our enthusiasm for life,
our determination to get things done,
our 'winning' spirit
and our involvement in school
events and problems, reflect

THE WAY WE ARE

Spirited . . .

Spirit, that force which binds 1300 individuals into a student body, abounds at MCHS.

Whether displayed through screaming support of a team at an athletic event, through enthusiastic student support of the all-school musical, or just through the lasting quality of the friendships we share, our spirit is ever present and ever growing. Spirited is

Involved . . .

Involvement, the key to success in any community is also essential at MCHS. Endless educational and extra curricular activities provide each of us with opportunities to participate, to become involved with our school, its students and faculty. It is our responsibility to accept these opportunities and to establish ourselves as active members of our society. Success for Student Government Day, Spirit Week, Hobo Day, Dress-up Day, "South Pacific", and other all-school activities depends on us and our participation. They do succeed because involved is

Determination

Determination, to "do our own thing," to reach goals we set for ourselves, or to overcome seemingly unconquerable odds to emerge victorious, is reflected in countless individual and group activities in which we participate. A political party striving for election on Student Government Day, a student sneaking a smoke in the restroom, or a hurdler, doing his best to capture first place honors, all display their own determination. This is

Student Life

Throughout our high school years, we find ourselves surrounded by student theatrical performances, queen coronations, sports events, assemblies, dances, and endless special events, all of which add variety and interest to our school activities. In these activities we find a chance to express ourselves, to become an integral part of the student body, and to establish ourselves as individuals, each with his own unique personality. STUDENT LIFE best expresses

Homecoming queen, floats, Heighten day's competition

Sunshine and a nip of briskness enhanced the gridiron's Homecoming game for 1970.

Providing half time entertainment for the fans were class floats. The seniors won with their "Time for a Victory" Cub clock pulled by Tony Thompson's three-wheeled chopper. Next on the agenda was the climax of the afternoon. Suspense rose as the lovely queen candidates circled the field. The names announced were Beverly Kroll, Connie Felix, Jane Mustain, Judy Champion, and Janet Colegrove. Linda Riley was crowned Homecoming queen to reign the remainder of the afternoon.

Although the Cubs fought hard, they were overpowered by the Salem Lions and lost 40-21.

COURT MEMBERS ARE Marc Modisett, Jane Mustain, George Hand, Connie Felix, Robbie Houston, Bev Kroll, Damon Welch, Judy Champion, Bruce Brock, Janet Colegrove, Paul Gourley, and Linda Riley.

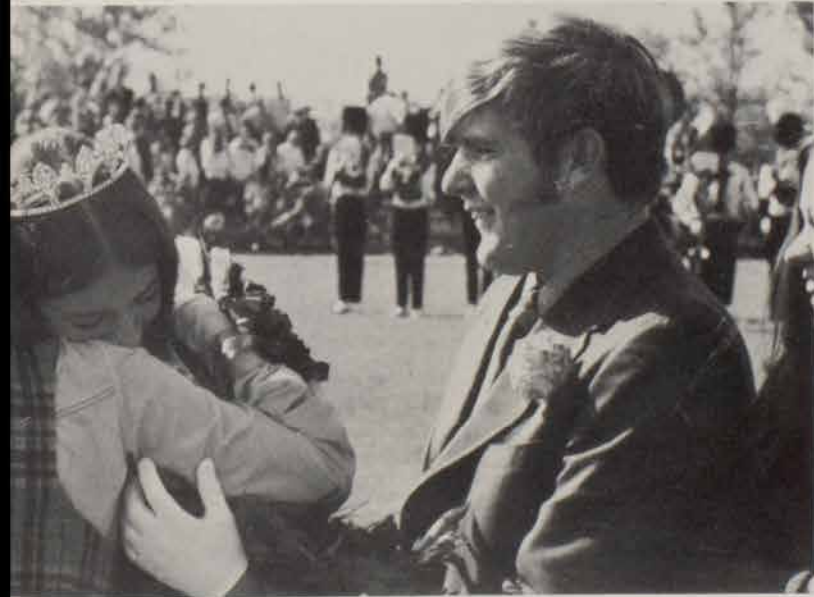

IN A FOURTH DOWN situation junior Perry Cosby gains precious yardage to give the Cubs a first down. Perry, a valuable fullback, rushed for a total of 224 yards and 22 points.

QUEEN CANDIDATE BEV Kroll and her escort Robbie Houston flash smiles at the crowd while the band plays Romeo and Juliet.

BEVERLY KROLL AND Linda Riley prove that friends remain close even through times of competition. Straightening the crown Bev helps Linda look her best after showing support for the team.

WITH JOYFUL TEARS in her eyes, Linda Riley receives a congratulatory hug from the 1969 Homecoming queen, Rhonda Cook.

HOMECOMING QUEEN LINDA Riley smiles happily after her coronation. Linda reigned in her seat of honor the second half of the game.

SOCIAL WORKER Ben Wagner, played by Bruce Crum, discusses Frank's job problem with his daughter Helen, played by Jane Mustain.

AFTER BEING rejected in his job interview, Frank Paul expresses anger and frustration to his mother, Debbie Heath.

Seniors demonstrate talent; Produce outstanding drama

Youth in a big city surrounding of social pressure set the scene for the senior class play "No Crime in the Streets." Directed by Mrs. Erma Wingham, the sixteen member cast presented their performances on November 6 and 7.

Although the audience delighted at the parts of Glasses and Blockbuster they soon realized that the play was not a comedy. Drama was prevalent at the highlight of the play when Frankie Dane was forced to make a decision on whether to kill McAllister or not. Suddenly he pushed him aside as he realized that there must be a better way to overcome his problems.

"The Sentimental Scarecrow" was presented by Children's Theater to be shown at ten area public and parochial elementary schools.

Accepting people as they are was the moral of the play as revealed through Polly's adoption of the unpretentious scarecrow. As a reward for her unselfishness and for his simplicity, the scarecrow became a human being and lived happily ever after. The cast hoped to get the moral across to the pupils.

DURING THE excitement of "Tarentella" Jon Hunington as the Gypsy boy stands by and joyously applauds the dance.

IN ORDER TO shatter the spell of inferiority on the scarecrow, Debbie Heath as Polly exhibits her acceptance by giving him a kiss.

STANDING ALONE in a cornfield proves to be very lonely as Rich Lodge demonstrates in his portrayal of "The Sentimental Scarecrow".

STOPPING IN FRONT of the cornfield, Yvonne Rogers as Brunette tries to help Jacque Crawford as Blonde get a rock out of her shoe.

Striving to maintain the tradition of an annual musical, students and faculty chose the Broadway production "South Pacific."

Although hampered by illnesses, snow, and the basketball sectional the old saying that "the show must go on" was carried out by the cast and crew. Under production of Miss Laughlin, stage direction of Mrs. Wingham, and musical direction of Mr. Neeld, the public performances were given March 25, 26, and 27. A five scene matinee was presented to the student body on March 25.

The plot of the musical centered about the romances of Ensign Nellie Forbush and Emile De Becque, which opened the play, and Lt. Joseph Cable and Liat, which began while Cable was on Bali Ha'i. De Becque decided to accept an assignment for the Army with Lt. Cable to spy on the Japanese. Cable was killed but Emile returned safely to the island where Nellie was waiting.

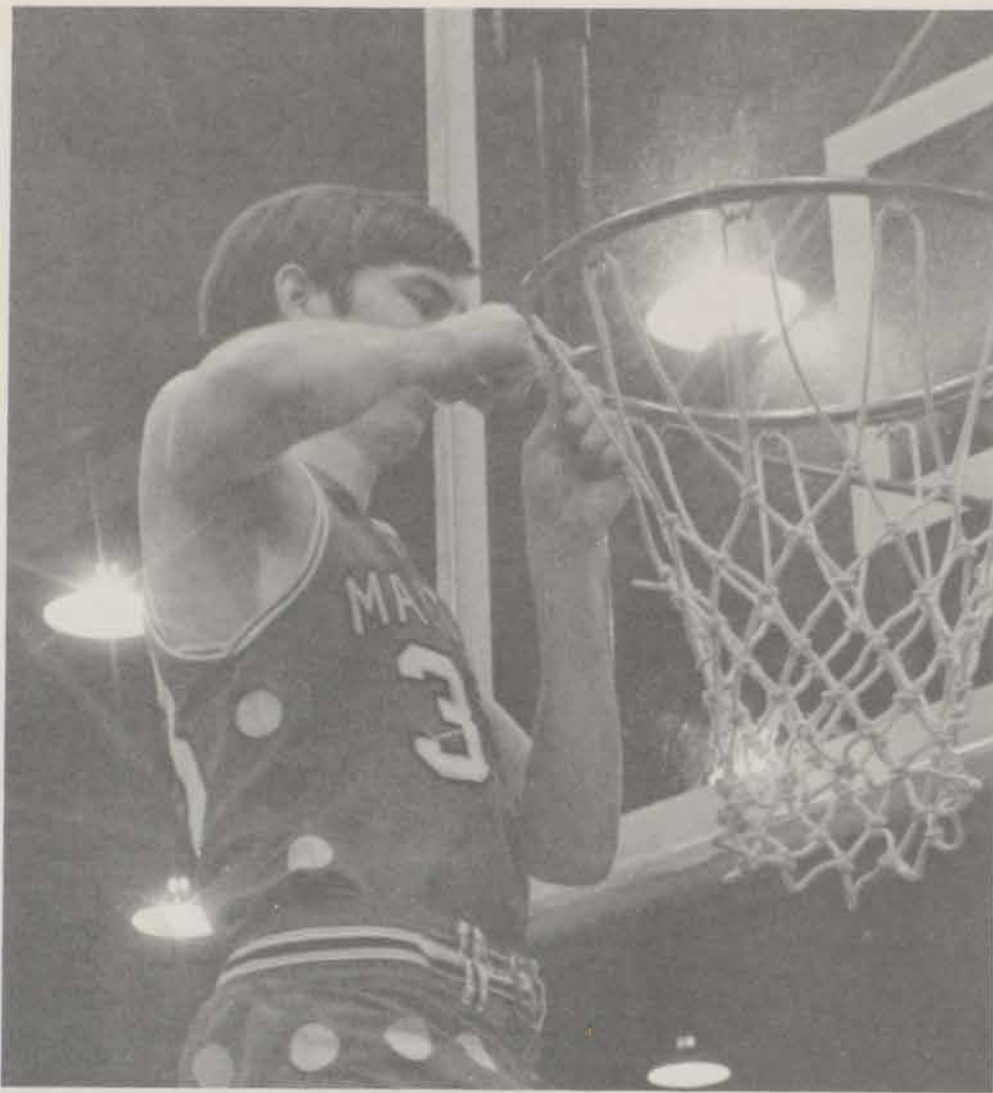

BLOODY MARY, a native woman of Bali Ha'i, is portrayed by Becky Rogers as she attempts to sell grass skirts to the GIs.

DANNY RUDOLECH as Lt. Cable sings "Younger than Springtime" to Liat (Becky Moy) during a romantic moment in "South Pacific."

HUMOROUSLY, GEORGE Hand as Luther Billis does a dance to the song "Honey Bun" while wearing a coconut shell bra and a grass skirt.

AS THE GYM resounds with the happiness of a sectional victory, co-captain Junior Keeton cuts a souvenir from the nets.

Beverly Kroll Coronated in Cubs' finale

Devastating gowns and soft music led way to the annual crowning of Miss Cub. First to walk onto the court was last year's queen Lana Bell. Following her were the queen candidates Linda Burg, Judy Champion, Janet Colegrove, Bev Kroll, and Lisa Pickett. After fumbling with the envelope, co-captain Bob Wilson revealed the name of Beverly Kroll as Cub's new basketball queen.

Making the evening complete was the Cub victory over the Lawrenceburg Tigers 77-75.

MISS CUB COURT—T. Pruitt, J. Mustain, B. Brock, J. Colegrove, R. Houston, L. Burg, B. Wilson, B. Kroll, J. Keeton, J. Champion, G. Hand, L. Bell, D. Hunton, L. Pickett, J. Lichlyter.

Festive decorations initiate Sectional tournament spirit

IN A SKIT portraying sophomore support for the Cubs, Trip Brosene and Robert Fredrick impersonate the Henryville Hornets.

IN THE MIDDLE of the excitement Bev keeps her cool and gives the photographer a wink while reminiscing the moment of crowning.

The theme of victory prevailed as each class contributed time and effort to decorate their sections during Spirit Week. At the pep session at the end of the week, Damon Welch awarded the spirit key to the Seniors and announced the class of '72 as runner-up in the spirit contest. A victory bonfire after the Sectional games introduced Regional Spirit Week. Concluding that week, senior boys dribbled a basketball to Seymour and a caravan of fans was organized to follow the team.

EVEN THE TEAM co-captains enjoy the crowning of Miss Cub. Bev flashes a look of surprise as she receives the traditional kiss.

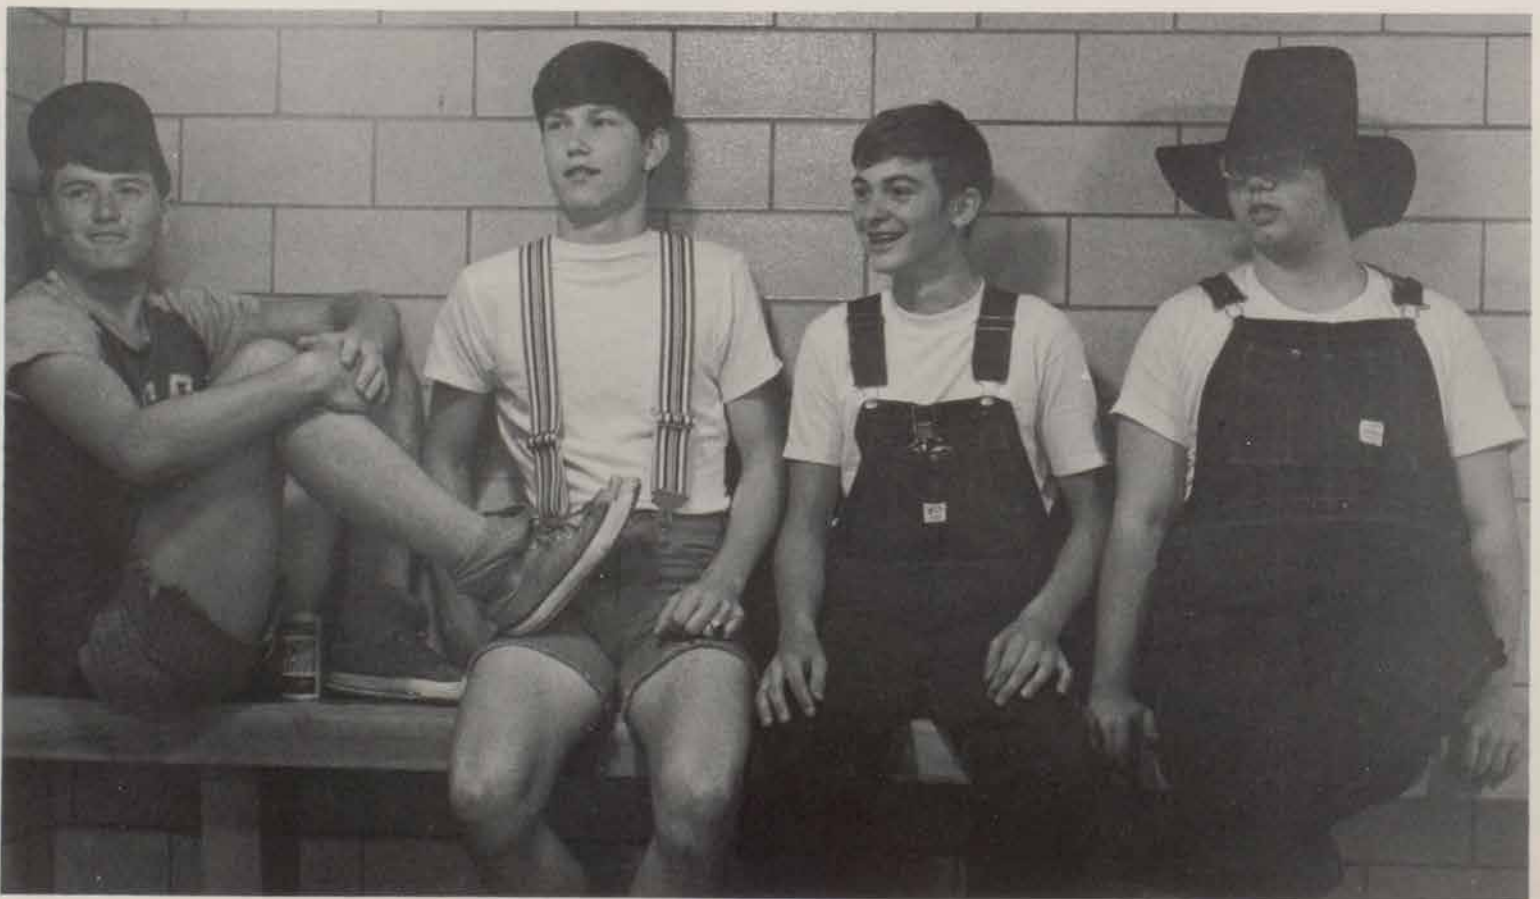

BEING SUPPORTED BY a "Big Bud," Bruce Konkle completes the finishing touches on a poster in the "Junior Jungle".

LINDA RILEY exhibits her catch, Herman Keeton, on Sadie Hawkins Day. Both attended the dance that evening.

Hillbilly duds Create spirit For fun day

Tradition was broken this year when Sadie Hawkins Day replaced the annual Hobo Day. On April 23, the day designated by student council, the halls were filled with corn cob pipes, overalls, freckles, and pigtails. Such duties as opening doors and carrying books were transferred to the girls. The boys were kept on the run as the hopeful girls chased dates for the turnabout dance. The dance, held in the cafeteria, featured Heavy Water and was sponsored by the school band.

HILLBILLIES Edwin Combs, Greg Demaree, Joel Breeding, and Danny Weinburg wait anxiously (?) for an invitation to the Sadie Hawkins Dance from an approaching female pursuer.

Tories and Whigs battle for official jobs

ON RALLY DAY, Tom Pruitt and Paul Gourley demonstrate their opinions of the Tory party by impersonating its members while fellow Whig party candidates and the student body observe.

Showing an interest in community life was the action of senior students as they ran a mock election to fill city offices for one day.

The winners were, for mayor—John Shipley, city judge—Herman Keeton, and clerk-treasurer—Linda Riley. District councilmen were: first—Jane Mustain, second—Jon Canida, third—Anne Gudkese, fourth—Mike Modisett, and fifth—Don Hunton with Steve Cayton and Randall Gray as councilmen-at-large. As one of his duties John Shipley chose party workers to fill appointed offices.

All student government day activities were planned by the steering committee composed of two members of each senior social studies class. As part of their effort to improve the campaign, "Meet your candidate" day was changed to "Meet your voter" day to instill enthusiasm among the individual voter. Rally day was a success as the student body enjoyed the exploits of their peers.

DISPLAYING LEADERSHIP qualities, members of the Whig party organize their campaign and strive to surpass the exploits of the opposing Tory party.

JOHN SHIPLEY smiles proudly as he presides over the city council meeting while his student officials fill their positions.

ON APRIL 2, dancers from the Cincinnati Ballet Company performed for the student body during an assembly arranged by Student Council.

STARTING THE NEW basketball season, Dan Waterfill announces the forthcoming of an annual award, in memory of George Gray, to be presented to a senior athlete possessing his qualities.

AFTER DISEMBARKING from the helicopter, Pellon dignitaries are escorted to the groundbreaking site by Mayor Vaughn and Governor Whitcomb.

Pupils gain valuable insight With cultural presentations

Many special events varied the otherwise routine curriculum this year. One of the first was a visit by Lee Hamilton and Richard Wathen, both campaigning for ninth district representative. Seniors and freshmen were seated in the auditorium; juniors and sophomores in the gym. The candidates presented speeches and after answering questions from the students, exchanged positions.

A more cultural touch was added with programs set up by a community board of directors. These programs were afternoon assemblies and night performances and presented the Cincinnati Woodwind Quintet on March 8, the Symphony on March 15, and the Cincinnati Ballet Company on April 2. Several music clinics were also presented for band members.

The high school was involved in public relations as the band, the Choral Club, and school hostesses, the Cubetts, welcomed Pellon Associates, Inc. to Madison. Governor Whitcomb, Mayor Vaughn, and other dignitaries participated in groundbreaking ceremonies.

During Senior Honor Day one of the many presentations was the newly established George Gray Award. The award was to be presented to an outstanding senior athlete who exemplified the qualities similar to George's. Mike Modisett received a standing ovation after accepting the award.

RECEIVING A HANDSHAKE from ninth district Congressman hopeful Richard B. Wathen, Perry Cosby smiles proudly to confirm his acceptance.

STUDENTS RELAX after dancing, and smile happily as they listen to the soft contemporary music of "Three's a Crowd".

AFTER HER CORONATION as the 1971 Prom Queen, Jane Mustain happily accepts a kiss from Don Phillips, 1970 Prom King.

"THE SOUL MESSENGER" a rock band from Chicago entertains the large crowd at the Prom. Another band, "Three's a Crowd," entertained also, playing more contemporary music.

DANCING TO THE rock beat of the "Soul Messenger," Debbie Demaree and her escort Tom Barber enjoy the Prom atmosphere.

Romance blooms in French surroundings

A romantic atmosphere, including French cafes and a Paris background, set the mood for the Junior-Senior Prom which adopted the theme "Days of Wine and Roses".

Highlighting the evening was the crowning of the prom king and queen. Candidates for the event were Linda Burg, Jon Canida, Judy Champion, George Hand, Bev Kroll, Don Hunton, Jane Mustain, Junior Keeton, Lisa Pickett, Damon Welch, Linda Riley, and Bob Wilson. Junior class president, Dennis O'Neal announced Jane Mustain and Damon Welch as the new sovereignty and they danced to the theme from "Love Story" as others joined in.

The junior class presented two types of musical entertainment that alternated throughout the evening. A rock band called the "Soul Messengers" played for forty minutes while "Three's a Crowd", a society band performed during the remaining twenty minute intervals. The menu consisted of French pastries, mints, nuts, hors d'oeuvres, and raspberry punch.

NEWLY CROWNED Prom King and Queen, Damon Welch and Jane Mustain lead members of the prom court in a dance after being crowned.

JANE MUSTAIN shows her reluctance as Frank Paul says "Let's practice the kissing scene," during a Thesplan skit on Senior Honor Day.

Class of '71 Gains honors At assembly

The annual Senior Honor Day was held during an assembly on May 19. Senior Choral Club members sang a medley of tunes commemorating their high school experiences, band members performed the song "California Dreamin'", and Thespians presented a humorous skit portraying acting difficulties. Speeches were given by class president Larry Westberg, valedictorian Elizabeth Brewer, and salutatorian Linda Conley, followed by scholastic presentations. Larry then offered advice to the underclassmen and presented the "Class Key" to Barry Auxier, President of the Class of '72.

MIKE MODISETT solemnly receives the first George Gray award from Mr. Waterfill. The trophy is awarded for each boy to keep and his name is put on the plaque which is placed in the school.

THE CLASS OF 1971 applaud their fellow classmate, Terry Fisher after the announcement of his appointment to the Air Force Academy.

DURING SENIOR HONOR day, salutatorian of the '71 class, Linda Conley, accepts Mr. Waterfill's warm congratulations on her honor.

'71 graduates envision futures Of success and challenge

Departing seniors received their diplomas on May 30 during a ceremony in the Connor K. Salm gymnasium.

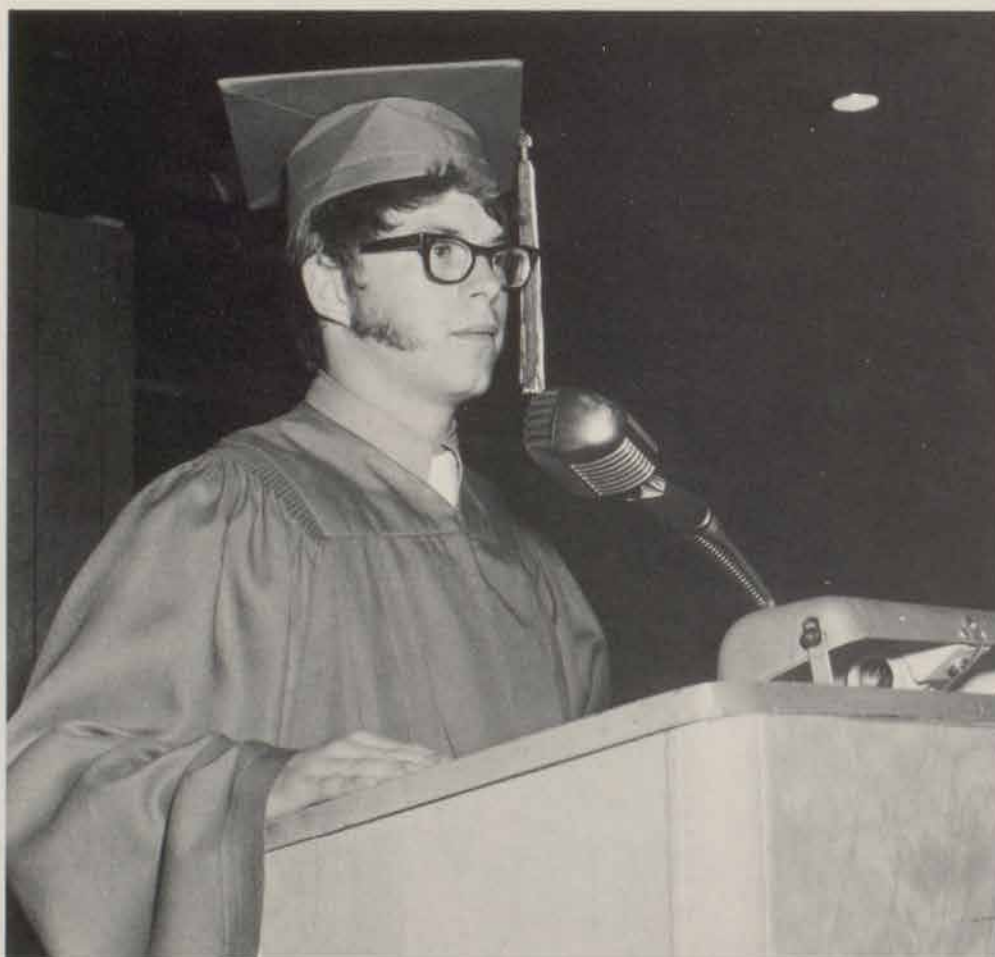

Baccalaureate services were held at one-thirty in the afternoon and Pastor Harold Chattin of the North United Methodist Church delivered the sermon. The benediction and invocation were given by Rev. Larry Stiles of the North Madison Christian Church with the scripture read by Pastor Frank Stevenson from the Resurrection Lutheran Church.

To begin the commencement activities held at six-thirty in the evening, Mr. Ralph Hirsbrunner played the organ for processional and recessional while the school band did the Impassario by Mozart and the Procession of Nobles by Rimsky-Korsakov.

Three numbers were presented by the choir which was directed by Miss Myra Laughlin.

Linda Riley opened the program with the invocation which was followed by the welcome from the salutarian, Linda Conley. The intention was given by the valedictorian Elizabeth Brewer, and Larry Westberg, senior class president offered the farewell address which Nancy Kelly followed with her benediction. Mr. Dan Waterfill announced the names of seniors and they approached the platform to receive their diplomas from Dr. Boyd Carter, superintendent of Madison Schools. Larry Westberg then announced the turning of the tassels and the graduates filed out, ending the ceremony.

NATIONAL HONOR Society member and valedictorian, Elizabeth Brewer ponders the challenging days ahead after receiving her diploma.

AFTER THE CLASS of 1971 has received their diplomas, Larry Westberg, class president, presents the Farewell Address as part of the commencement exercises.

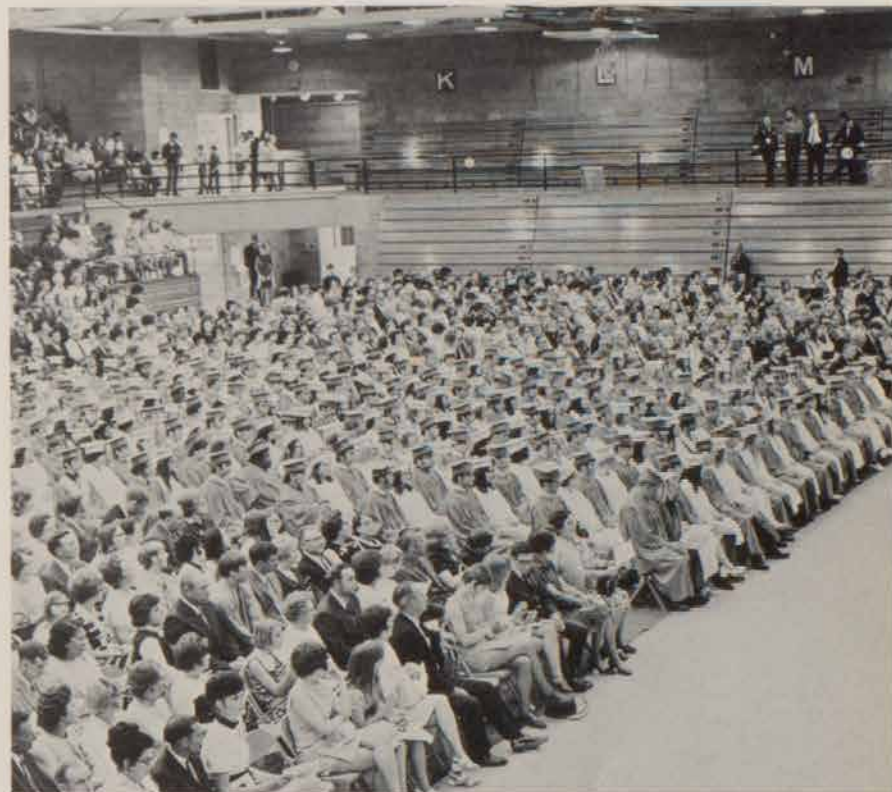

A MEMBER OF the senior class leaves behind her high school memories and walks forward to meet the future as an individual.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS Dr. Boyd Carter hands the departing seniors their final goal, their diplomas, as Mr. Waterfill reads their names.

THE GRADUATING seniors, sitting together as a class for the last time, listen intently as Lind Conley gives the welcome.

"No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a tower or my friend or of thine own were. Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind; and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee."

Organizations

Activities at MCHS provide us with unlimited opportunities to meet, get to know, and come to understand one another.

Friendships made within a club, during meetings or club activities are lasting ones, for those are the friends with whom we share both work and fun.

Screaming cheerblocks backing the Cubs, clubs joining to sponsor dances, students giving their time to aid the student council Christmas party . . .

All these exemplify the famous MCHS spirit of friendship and unity.

FHA attends Workshops to Better ideas

Members of Future Homemakers of America were kept busy preparing for various club events. The girls attended a southeastern district assembly at Mitchell High School, Mitchell, Indiana. Each officer was assigned a different workshop where they learned the duties of their offices. The possibility of wearing dresses of school colors was discussed for the upcoming year.

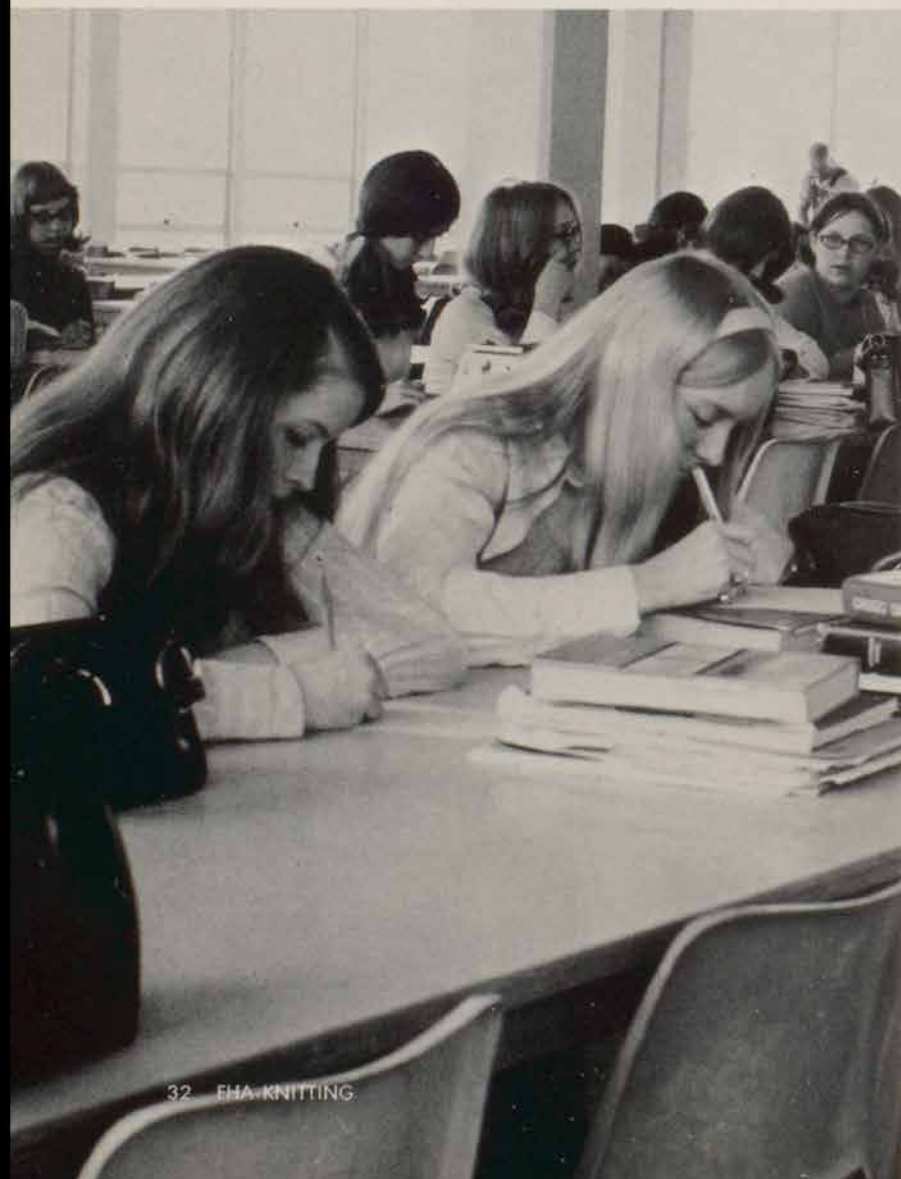

Knitting Club opened its first meeting of the year which was concerned with the writing of the constitution. Members did not have to pay dues but they had to furnish all materials they used.

VOTING FOR next year's FHA officers is one of the last minute procedures of the club during their last meeting.

Scholastic students strive in NHS and Quill and Scroll

Scholastic Juniors and Seniors with a 3.50 grade average were awarded the privilege of being a member of National Honor Society. Meeting every third Tuesday, Terry Fisher (Pres.), Dave Waterfill (V-pres), Sherry Anderson (Sec.), Doug Stealey (Treas.), and Mrs. Willis (Spon.) conducted the meetings while showing leadership and outstanding ability. In addition to the dances, bake sales were held in order to award a one hundred dollar scholarship to a senior on Senior Honor Day.

Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, is sponsored by Mrs. Betsy Adler. Officers for the year were Sharon Kring (Pres.), Patti Dwyer (V-pres.), Tammy Thaden (Sec.), Esmin Weinberg (Treas.), and Larry Westberg (Sgt-at-Arms).

Conservation Club studies environment

The newest addition to activities this year was the Conservation Club. The club, with a membership of about 15 students, was organized to bring students closer to nature and to give them a chance to work with their environment rather than just talk about it.

Officers for the year consisted of all Woodfills. They were, Mike Woodfill (Pres.), Robert Woodfill (V-Pres.), Lee Woodfill (Cor. Sec.), Carl Woodfill (Sec.-Treas.), and the sponsor of the club was Mr. Adler.

MR. ADLER, sponsor of Conservation Club, looks on as members work to clean up school grounds in an effort to better the environment.

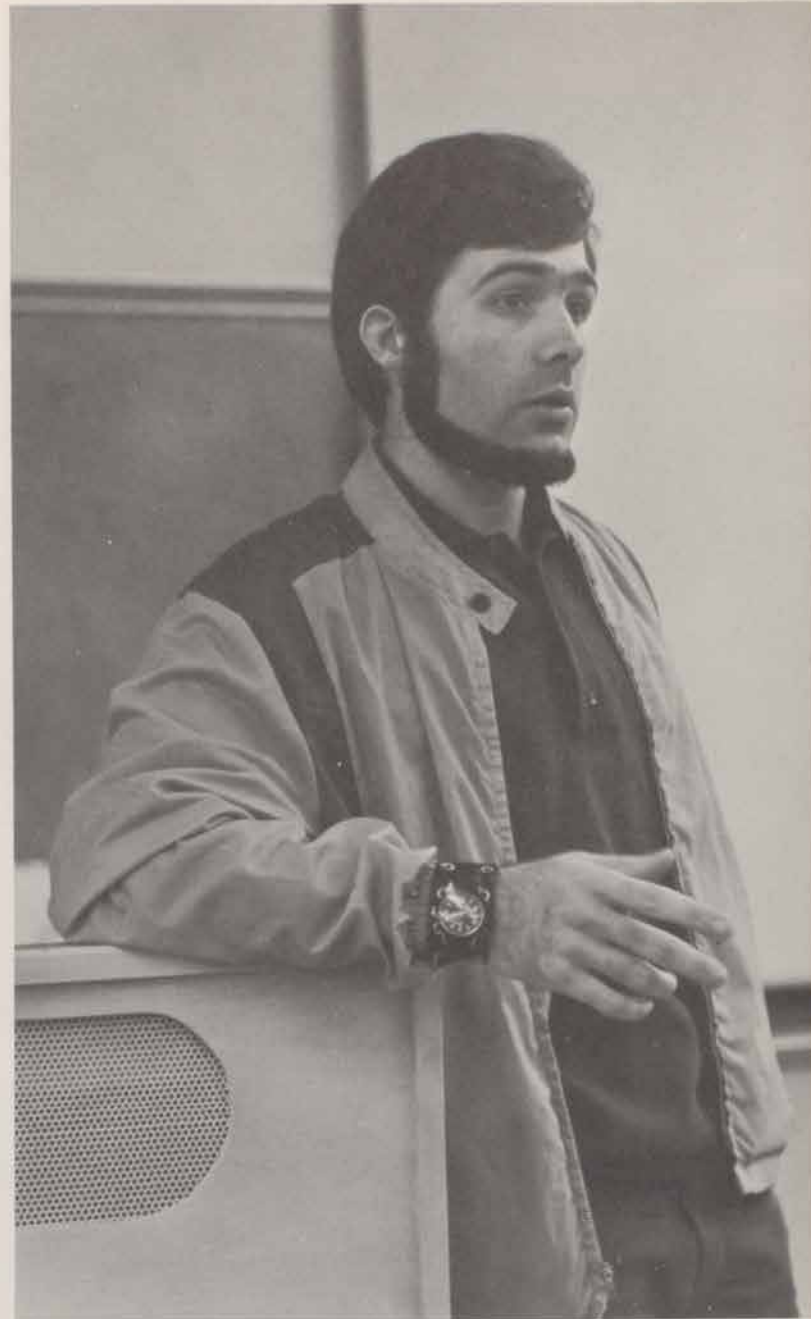

CONSERVATION CLUB, one of the newest school organizations, keeps its members active by cleaning up the debris in the school area. The club hopes that its efforts will make people more conscious of ecology problems, as well as help to improve the condition of the school grounds.

FRENCH CLUB OFFICERS—FRONT ROW: P. Witty (Sec.), M. Cosby (Treas.), L. Brosene (V-Pres.), K. Jeffrey (Pres.), R. Lodge (Hist.).

Mlle Monteil Assists with Club activities

Foreign language clubs had their first meetings on Tuesday, September 15. French, German, Spanish, and Latin clubs accepted new members and elected officers.

French club was honored with a visit from Jean-Claude Breton who spoke about differences between the U.S. and France. French club sponsored Miss Florence Monteil, a teacher from France. She assisted the students with French translations.

Second, third, and fourth year students attended the play, Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme, in Louisville.

Paul Mettler, an exchange student and teacher from St. Gallen, Switzerland visited German club. He expressed his interest in forming a conversational German class. A bake sale was planned in order to raise funds for scholarships.

Senior members of Spanish club made a pinata filled with candies. After breaking it with a ball bat, the fiesta ended with refreshments.

After a year of inactivity, Latin club planned a picnic in the spring for all the members.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS for the year are Tom Eckert (Pres.), Susie Eckert (V-Pres.), Mike Hensley (Treas.), and Peggy Eckerty (Sec.).

Student Council strives for A more liberal dress code

Student Council initiated many new projects during the year. I.D. cards were distributed among students for the purpose of alleviating the overcrowded conditions at the soc-hops. The policy committee of the Student Council was also vital in working with the administration for a more liberal dress code.

The Council helped to arouse student interest in government by arranging speeches by Congressman Lee Hamilton and his opponent Richard Wathen. Homecoming elections were altered with each senior nominating any two girls from the entire class.

A video taped Council meeting was shown in the classrooms in an effort to better acquaint students with the function of the Council.

The Council's annual Christmas party for needy children was given in the cafeteria. Students and members helped with various activities.

BATTLING FOR a win, Mrs. Smith's fifth and second period senior classes compete in one of the final volleyball tournament games.

A CONCESSION stand set up at all home football games provided Student Council with money for several projects.

LISA KUGLER, an active member of the Student Council, checks I.D. cards of students attending a soc-hop sponsored by the Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBER Marlene Cosby fills the position of Paula Kerr, the elected secretary who moved during the year.

OFFICERS OF STUDENT COUNCIL are Debbie Grimsley, (Treas.); Damon Welch, (Pres.); Paula Kerr (Sec.); and Richard Lodge (V-pres.).

Creativity is The answer To success

The opening of a flashy white polka-dot spirit can started the season of the pep club with a roar. Besides adding the spirit can, the boys sported loud polka-dot shirts and yelled many hearty cheers. The varsity cheerleaders also added to the 'dot' situation when they put colored polka-dots on their shoes.

The audience was solemnly inspired by the girls' pep club harmoniously singing 'America', directly after the National Anthem.

The hoop was decorated and presented before the game as the team confidently broke onto the court.

Officers working for the improvement of the girls' pep club were Becki Moy (Pres.), Benna Klein (V-pres.), Vicki Auxier (Sec.), and Chris Camenisch (Treas.).

"STRAIGHT TO the top" is the cry of JV Cheerleaders Robin Felix, Kim Roberts, Tarry Thaden, Sara Hare (not seen) and Sally Harrell.

FTA promotes interests in The new school curriculum

FTA, Future Teachers of America, was sponsored by Mr. Caudill with the help of Sherry Anderson (Pres.), Mary Jo McClland (V-Pres.), Esmin Weinberg (Treas.), and Benna Klein (Sec.). Representatives Becki Bundy (Sr.), Robin Martin (Jr.), and Margot Renee (Soph.), also helped initiate enthusiasm in the club.

The club's first project of the year was selling pencils. On them was inscribed, "Back the Cubs All the Way." On Monday, November 30, the club started its annual candy sale. They also sold stationary and held a soccer-hop to help earn money for the club.

To help promote interest in the teaching profession, the club had Dr. Stuckwisch visit to talk about the new school curriculum and present several films.

SHERRY ANDERSON unpacks candy bars which she and other FTA members will sell in order to raise funds for club activities.

SEVERAL MEMBERS of Future Teachers of America discuss proposals of the new school curriculum which will be in effect next year.

GAA, Lettermen enjoy athletic worlds

LETTERMEN OFFICERS Bruce Konkle, Bruce Brock, Mike Modisett, and Steve Lyons are busy making plans for the sale of the new basketball magazine Hoopla.

The first official meeting of GAA was held at the Steer Restaurant on September 14. Only club officers Mary Jo McClelland (Pres.), Le Tiscia Adler (V-pres.), Vicki Auxier (Sec.), and Debbie Kennett (Treas.), along with Miss Eisenhardt (Spon.), were present at this meeting to organize club affairs.

Several events took place during the year. On November 7 and November 14, two tournaments, one volleyball and one badminton, took place. The team did not place in either event. On December 5 GAA girls went to Oolitic and placed second in a district volleyball tournament.

The annual playday was held on November 21 with the theme being "Peanut Characters."

The major goal of Lettermans club this year was selling Hooplas, a new basketball magazine featuring most Southern Indiana teams. An estimated 300 Hooplas were sold and proceeds were used to buy awards.

Officers included Mike Modisett (Pres.), Bruce Konkle (V-pres.), Steve Lyons (Sec.), Bruce Brock (Treas.), and Mr. Gallatin (Spon.).

STEVE LYONS AND Bruce Konkle assist Mr. Gallatin in preparing the activities for the annual basketball banquet.

LETTERMAN MEMBER, Terry Johnson, sells a February issue of HOOPLA, a southern Indiana basketball magazine, to Mr. Barry Cooper.

New Chess Club members Develop concentration skills

Chess Club, one of the newest additions to school organizations, exemplified the expanding activities. Although in existence last year, an increase in membership and several special events helped to arouse student interest in the club.

Meetings were held on Tuesdays and Thursdays of every week. A general meeting held at the start of the second semester was concerned with the induction of new members.

The officers working with sponsors Mr. Ehlers and Mr. Moore were Bob Cook (pres.), Mike Williams (v-pres.), and Steve Griffith (sec.).

Student aids Prove helpful To teachers

The Cubettes were organized as hostesses to represent the school at many community and school functions. They attended the Pellon Co. groundbreaking to greet the governor on October 1.

Student aids assisted the various departments with the aid of several new facilities. Extra storage room provided space for audio visual and library equipment.

Thespians display abilities Exhibiting recent histrionics

THESPIANS, DENNY Monroe (treas.), Yvonne Rodgers (sec.), and Debbie Heath (v-pres.) preside over an interesting Thespian meeting.

Four Thespian members were present at the first International Art Conference in June. Jane Mustain, Susan Scott, Frank Paul, and Skipper Neal were among 2000 students from the United States and Canada who attended the summer workshop. They participated in various activities such as dialect workshops, a musical, and a children's theatre.

Several events helped to occupy Thespian members during the school year. A style show was presented by several Thespian members featuring costumes worn in various plays.

The annual one-act play was presented on January 28. The play entitled, "Beauty Parade," consisted of five elegant queen contestants all of whom were competing for the title of "Miss Supermarket Queen."

Officers for Thespians included Jane Mustain (Pres.), Debbie Heath (V-pres.), Denny Monroe (Treas.), Karen Jeffrey (Sec.), and Mr. Moore and Mrs. Wingham (Spon.).

RICHARD LODGE, Edward Osbourn, and George Hand show their acting abilities as they participate in the Senior play "No Crime in the Streets."

JANE STAUB shows one of the many duties required of a Thespian as she applies makeup to Billy Wilkerson before the Senior play.

KEVIN ANDERSON, A Thespian member, exhibits a clown costume which is an example of the various costumes used in the years past.

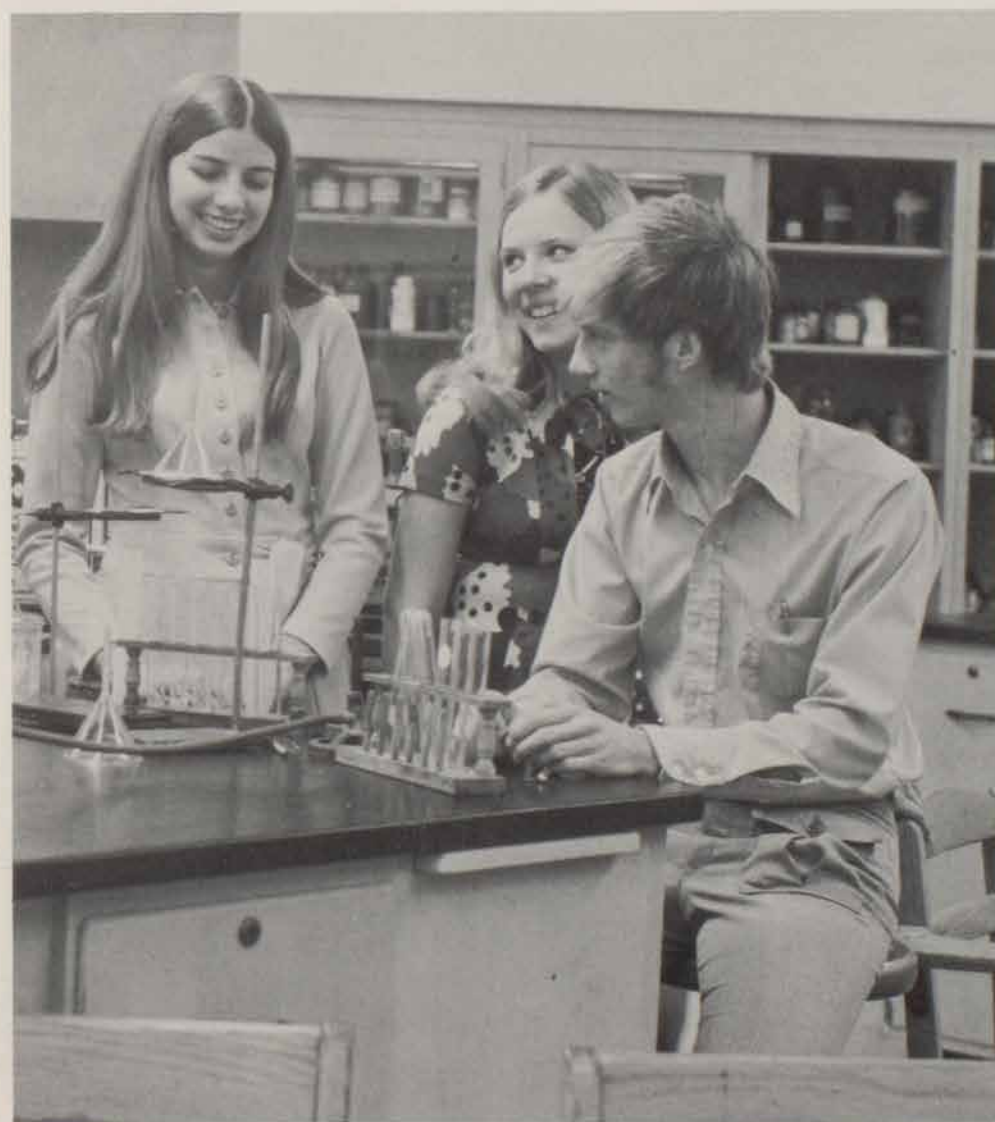

A SOUTHERN BELLE, Cleopatra, a bride, a Victorian lady, and Queen Gwenevere are the women portrayed by these Thespians.

Science students explore varied fields

To explore the unknown was the intention of the science club members. Mr. Virgil Imel, science club sponsor, helped the members work on their experiments. Officers planning projects and keeping the science club members active were Barb Konkle (Pres.), Bruce Konkle (V-pres.), Marlene Cosby and Gwen Heaton.

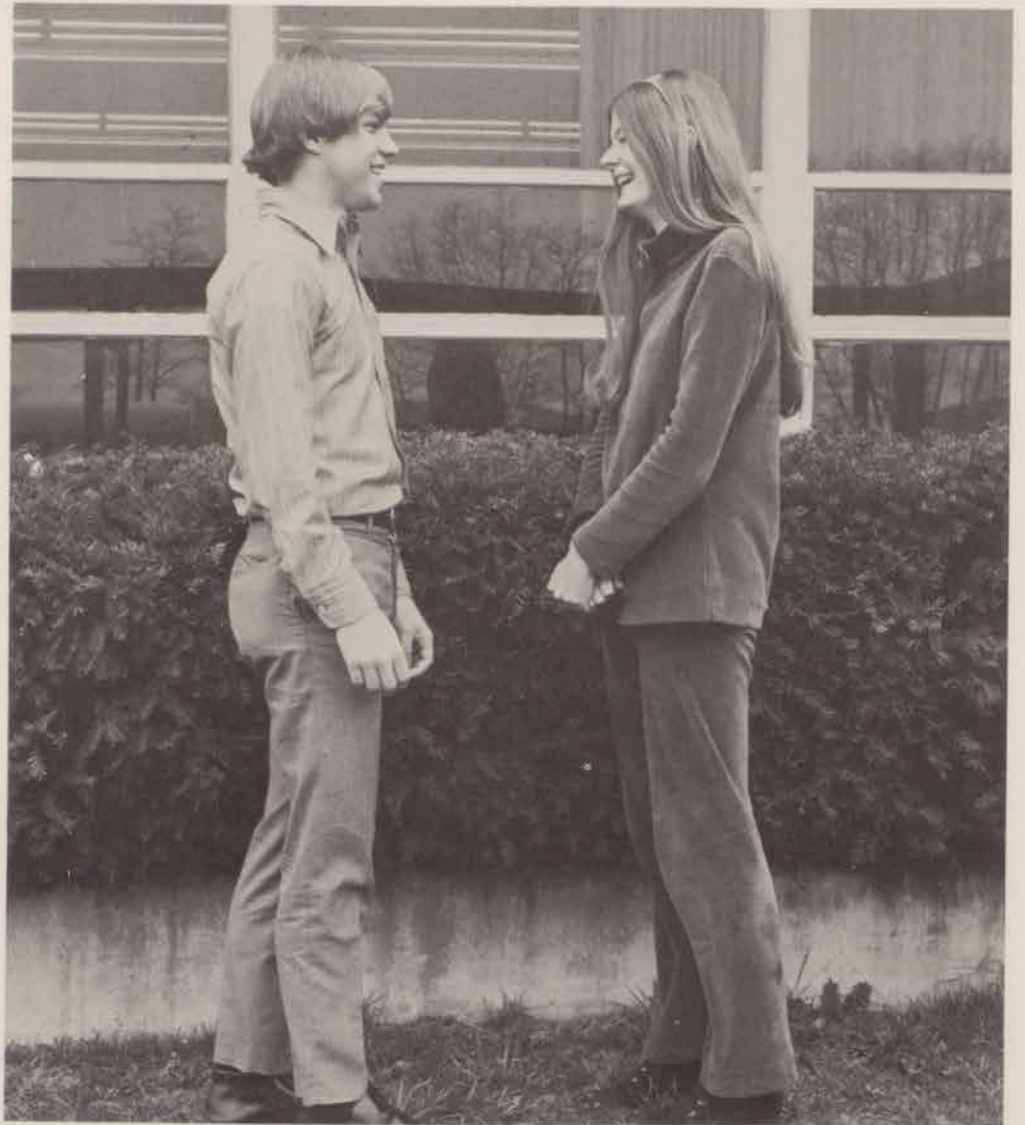

SCIENCE LAB ASSISTANTS—FRONT ROW: S. Komlosi, L. Bedwell, R. Hughes, A. Gudkese, K. Dews, J. Jenkins. SECOND ROW: L. Riley, L. Gray, M. Mosier, E. Weinberg, J. Mustain, M. Adams, C. Burris, T. Don Hunton and Susie Eckert take time to talk about their exciting experience of reigning as King and Queen of the annual Sunshine and Hi-Y dance.

KING AND QUEEN CONTESTANTS—Dick Buchanan, Chris Camenisch, Doug Messmore, Leda Brosene, Don Hunton, Susie Eckert, John Shipley, and Ronde Buchanan.

ALONG WITH her many other duties as Sunshine sponsor, Mrs. Cook is also in charge of the Sunshine concession stands. During the basketball games, with the help of some of the Sunshine members, she patiently waits on many customers who come to the stand.

Students assist charitable organizations

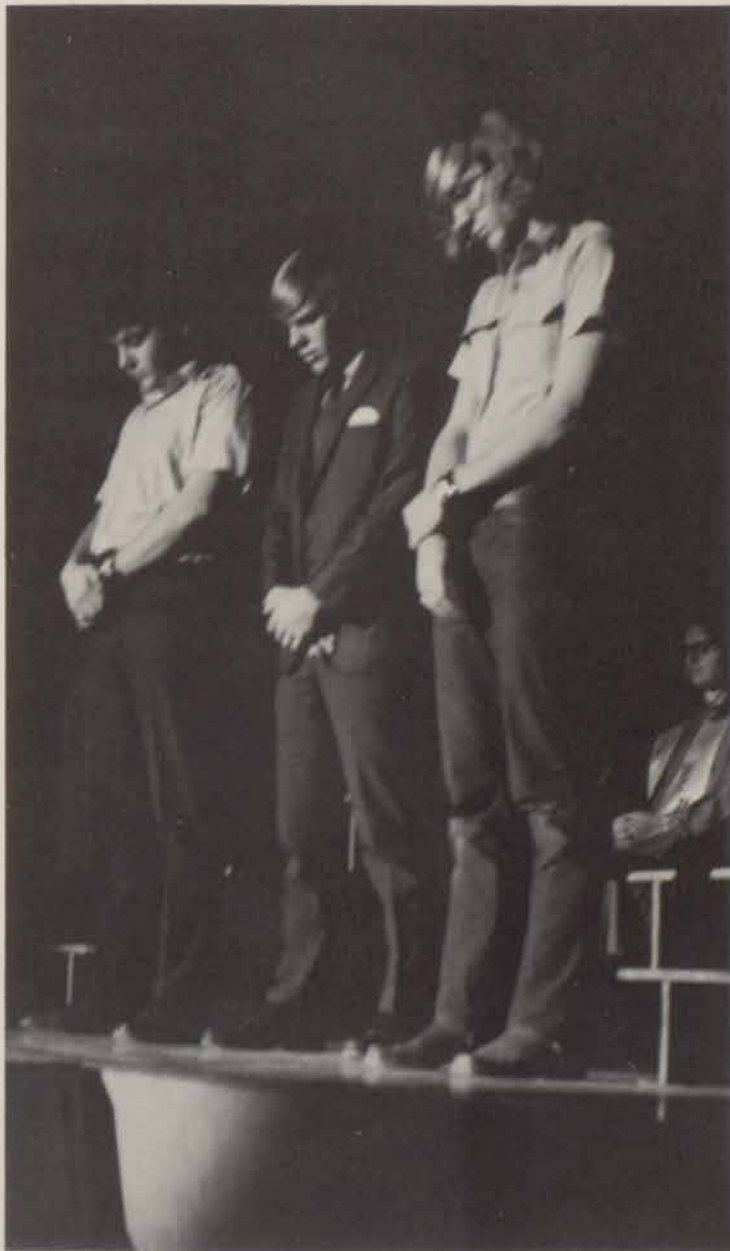

SUNSHINE OFFICERS—D. Demaree (v-pres.), J. Champion (pres.), B. Cosby (rec-sec.), S. Eckert (corr-sec.), K. Adams (treas.).

Striving for a better school life and helping the surrounding communities was the goal of Sunshine and Hi-Y Societies.

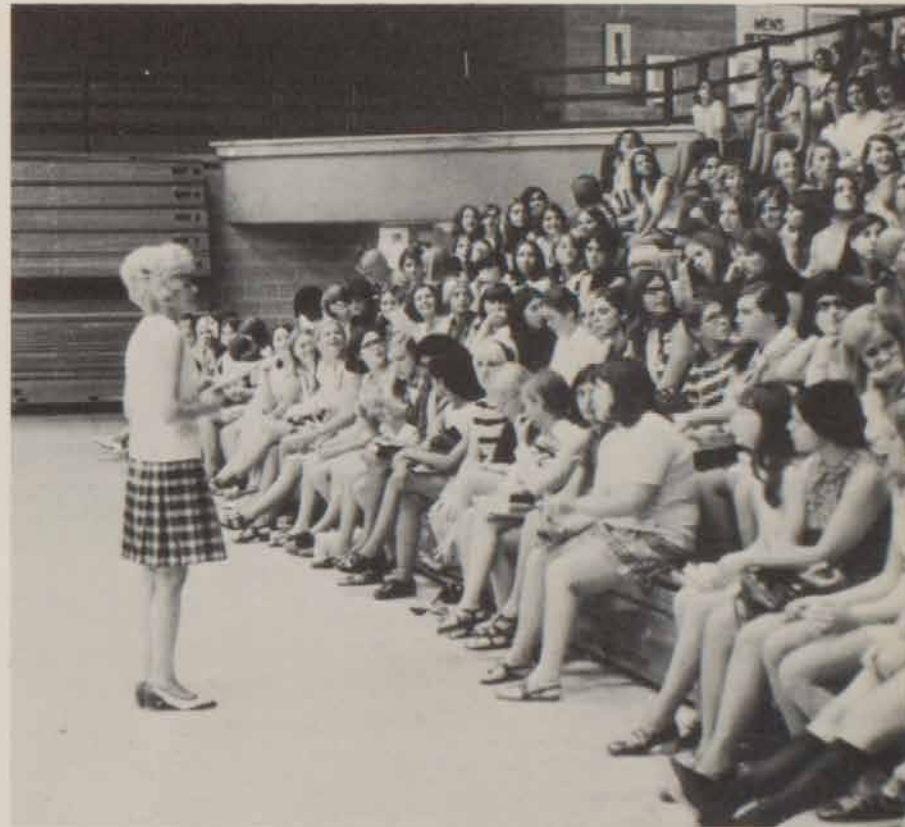

Hi-Y gathered walnuts for the State Hospital to sell in order to get money for the hospital's many needs. They also emceed the Thanksgiving program in which they told the meaning of the celebration of Thanksgiving. Bright plastic Cub license plates were sold by Hi-Y and exhibited by enthusiastic fans. They also participated in a model legislature in Indianapolis in which Hi-Y members ran for offices while following the procedures of the Indiana legislature.

Sunshine added to their annual initiation by having 'big sisters' for the new members. The 'big sisters' were given the honor of pinning the new freshmen members, which added interest to the activities. Sunshine also contributed two hundred and fifty dollars to the Riley Hospital fund, giving money they earned by selling refreshments at the ballgames and ribbon and paper at Christmas.

HI-Y MEMBERS Frank Paul and Rich Lodge join Hi-Y chaplain, Don Hunton in a prayer at the beginning of the Thanksgiving program.

MRS. COOK, sponsor of Sunshine, answers many questions and directs the meeting held in the gym, while the members enjoy the humorous questions.

Academics

Learning
is a lifetime occupation in which we engage from birth to death.

Throughout our school
careers, we are instilled with the importance of knowledge.

We grope for answers
then we question
those found.

Students laboring over term papers,
Ag students surveying the school grounds,
or Art students festively decorating school windows or bulletin boards are common sights at MCHS
as students put knowledge into action. This is

Girls acquire Knowledge in Homemaking

"Jumping jacks to the count of two" was a familiar phrase heard in the gym classes. The advanced students led the daily calisthenics in both boys and girls physical education classes.

Sergeant "Red" White talked to Mr. Adler's health classes about the growing drug problem.

First year home economics classes were concerned mainly with the personal needs of the girls. Second and third year home economics students learned about family finances by studying family budgeting.

JANET NEFF AND Terri Adler display the miniature log cabin they built for Mrs. Buckles' third period History class.

BILL ROBINSON AND Rocky Wells, World History students, complete their collage they made which gives their interpretation of current world problems.

Social Studies involves new activities

A new member joined the Social Studies staff the first semester. Miss Saunders replaced Mrs. Eisan, teaching World History and Civics. Mrs. Eisan returned second semester after studying Civics Dissemination at Indiana University. She received a study grant from the U.S. Office of Education.

Mrs. Yarber's second-semester Psychology classes were lectured by speakers. Mr. Wayne Doughty and Mr. Norman Williams spoke to the students about juvenile crimes, drugs, and the penal system. Dr. Chappel talked about crime, mental illness, and how drugs affect the mentally ill. Rev. Paul Kern discussed the problems of dating and marriage.

Maps showing the different eras of development in America were made by Mrs. Buckles' History classes.

Mathematics forsees time of reformation

The math department, under the direction of Mr. Buckles, received new textbooks in all areas. At departmental meetings the faculty members discussed new methods of teaching for future years. An example is the module system, where students attend classes fewer times a week, but have more time in each class.

Mr. Dohn, a graduate of Western Kentucky University, was employed as a new algebra teacher.

JOE CAUDILL SEEKS assistance from Mr. Wilson in solving a difficult math problem during one of his rigorous tests.

MR. DOHN, AN algebra teacher, new to the faculty, explains the fundamental uses of algebraic equations during his first day of teaching at the school.

CHERRI BRIGHT, AN advanced biology student, attempts to find the results of centrifugal force on the contents of the test tube.

Science explores new teaching methods

The science area added two new, yet familiar faces to their staff. Assistant football coach, Mr. Colegrove, taught two biology classes, while vocational agriculture teacher, Mr. Harmon, taught two earth science classes.

Department head, Mr. Imel, having served as vice-president during the 1969-1970 school year, was appointed president of the Hoosier Association of Science Teachers, Inc. Mr. Yarber also received honors for his article, entitled "How to Make Drivers Ed Stanchions," that appeared in Traffic Safety.

Team teaching experiments began in the earth science classes. Mr. Adler, Mr. Chism, and Mr. Harmon taught these classes.

Fifteen students participated in the summer biology course, directed by teachers, Mr. Waltz and Mr. Kuppler. A three day field trip to Harrison County State Park highlighted the course. Advanced classes plan a similar course for next summer.

PATTI DWYER AND Marc Modisett prepare a paper chromatogram during Advanced Biology class, as Mr. Waltz advises them on the proper procedure.

DURING ONE OF THE outdoor activities of a physics class, Terry Fisher, Pam Roberts, Paul Gourley, and Stan Perry measure the distance to a tree by using the Pythagorean Theorem.

THIRD YEAR GERMAN students listen closely as Mr. Keach translates a Christmas story from the German magazine Bunte Illustrierte.

LUANNE ELDER AND Mary Ellen Hand receive help from Mrs. Willis during their independent study program in first-year French.

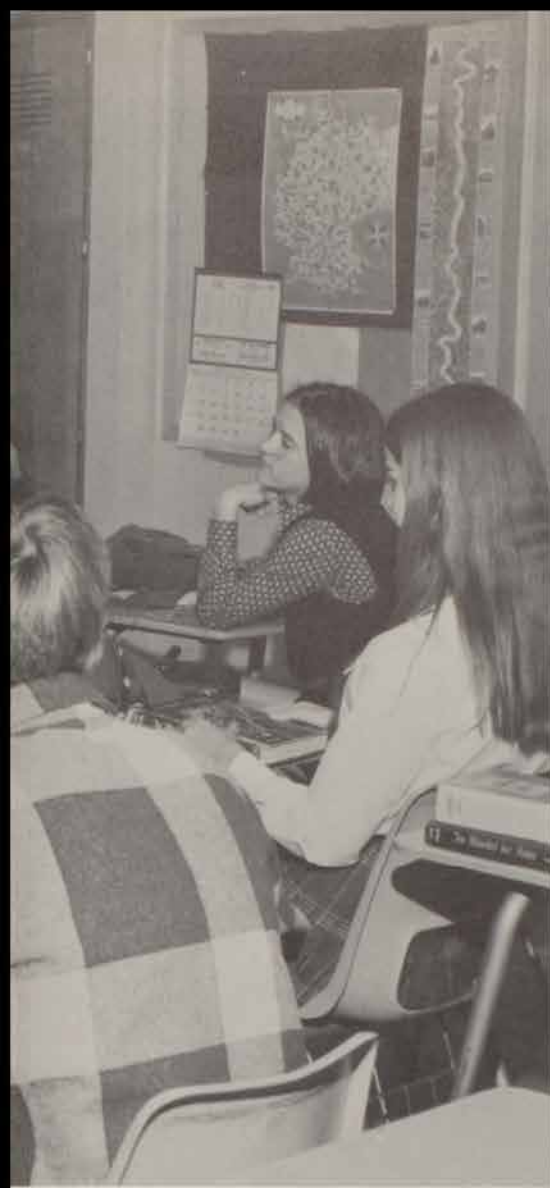

FOURTH-YEAR SPANISH students, Tom Eckert and Dana Bear, help Dr. Walling lead a discussion of important cities in Spain.

Students gain proficiency in Speaking foreign languages

The foreign language department incorporated some new ideas into the teaching of the foreign languages. Dr. Walling taught conversational Spanish using color movies, color filmstrips, picture books, and tape recordings, while Mr. O'Leary instructed Spanish using the approach of traditional composition and grammar. Mr. Moore, Latin instructor, utilized the pro-gramed study technique. Mrs. Willis, head of the department, introduced an individual instruction program where students were allowed the choice of a study area. Third year German students received new workbooks, while the new fourth year class of twelve pupils studied German composition in their new literature books.

FRED JACKSON, A SECOND year German student, copies a sentence from his homework assignment to explain the conjugation of German verbs.

Mlle FLORENCE MONTEIL, a senior student from Sorbonne College in France, explains the way of life in her native country.

English horizons broadened By involvement of students

The English department added a new subject to the speech area. For the first time, Radio-Speech was offered to students. Taught by Mrs. Wingham, the class made broadcasts of "Highlights from Madison High" each week over WORX. They also reported the votes from each precinct during the primary elections held on May fourth.

The senior composition classes compiled the annual Comp Classics. "Discovery" was chosen as the theme and the front cover was designed by Elizabeth Brewer.

The debate class presented a debate entitled "Resolved: A Twelve Month School Year" to the school.

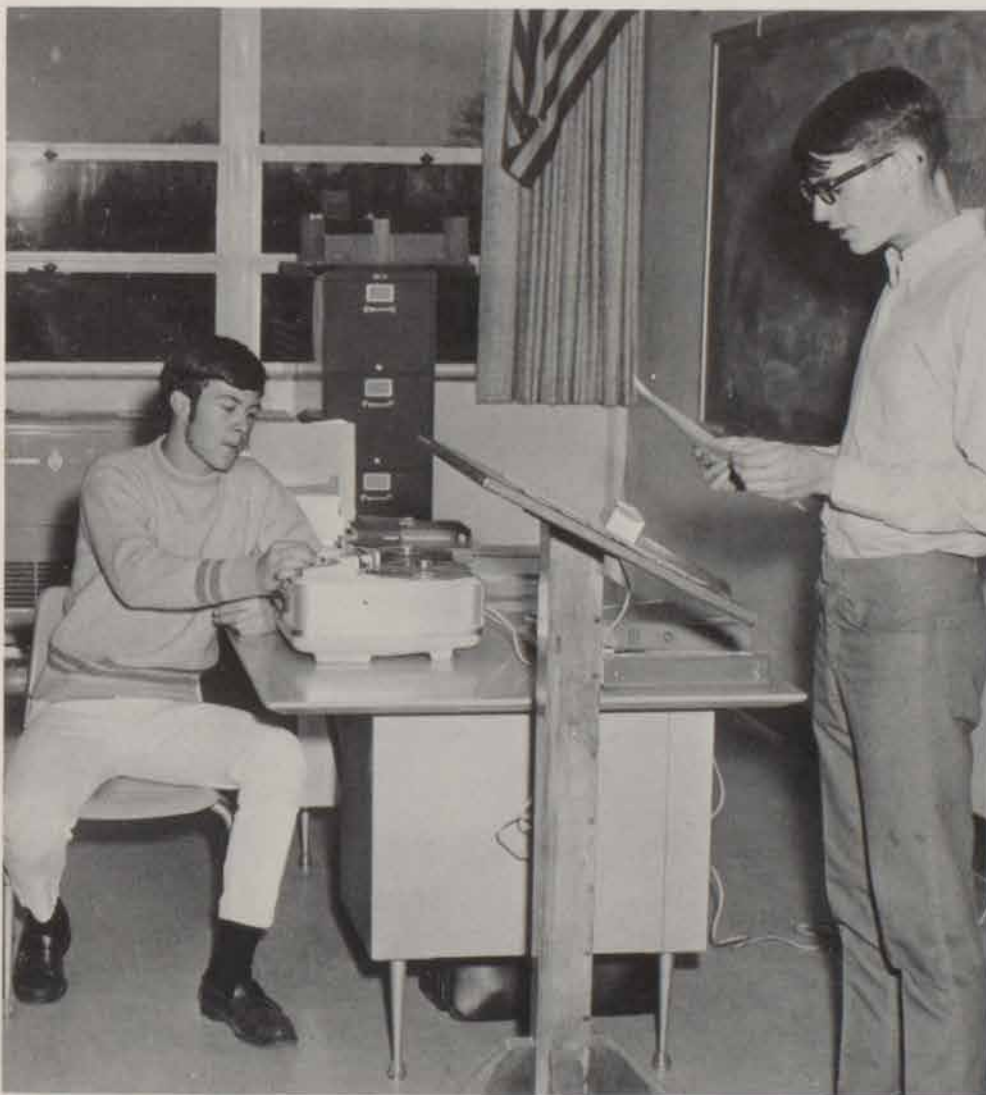

DURING HER JUNIOR English class, Robin Felix diagrams a complex sentence as a part of a grammar lesson.

IN THE QUIET school library, freshman Cindy Gray carefully counts the words in her theme about school activities.

TOM ROBERTS LEADS a practice debate during the new debate class taught by Mrs. Means, an English teacher new to the faculty.

Journalism, Yearbook are Big success

For the first time, MAHISCO was taken as a full-credit course, with grades given to yearbook students. The staff performed a skit during the matinee of the senior play to promote sales. A drawing for a portable television was conducted also. Jeff Bruner was the lucky winner.

The MADISONIAN staff produced a special polka dot edition honoring the Cub's victory over Silver Creek during the sectional.

MAHISCO editors Eppie Weinberg and Sharon Kring attended the yearbook workshop at Ball State University, while Patty Dwyer, editor-in-chief of the MADISONIAN, plus her assistant editors, Larry Westberg, Tammy Thaden, Becky Roberts, Debbie Heath attended newspaper workshop.

IN A MECHANICAL Drawing class, student Fred Jackson works carefully to receive an excellent grade on a blueprint he is making.

LARRY LUTZ RECEIVES helpful advice from Mr. Freeman concerning a problem he encountered with his mechanical drawing.

Shop students develop creative talents

Woodworking, General Metal Work, Auto Mechanics, Mechanical Drawing, and General Shop were among the subjects offered by Industrial Arts. Many of the articles created by the General Metal and General Shop students were exhibited in the glass case in the Shop wing. The department received new equipment, which included a rock polishing machine, foundry, and metal work tools.

Vocational agriculture students won honors in the Grain and Tobacco Show held at the 4-H Fairgrounds. Larry Ferguson won both of the corn categories, while Doug Harrell won the wheat, overall crop and soybean divisions. Carl Raisor and Charles Singer won in the tobacco class.

Industrious students excel in business

Numerous subjects were offered by the Business Department. To aid the future business students in deciding their courses for upcoming years, a display of the textbooks used in each area was sponsored by the department. Among those shown were: business math, typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping.

Two new teachers, both from the Cincinnati area, arrived in the department. Mr. Boles served as head of the department and also as instructor of bookkeeping. Mr. Black taught business math and typing.

Forty-one students participated in the ICT program, while thirty-six were active in the DE program. These students worked at local businesses during half the school day.

SOPHOMORE DEBBIE ROBERTSON hands in her attendance card, initiating the start of her first year in Mr. Black's typing class.

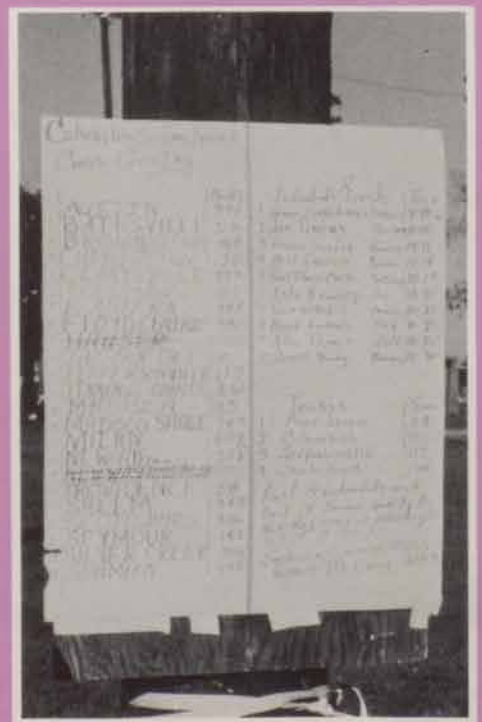

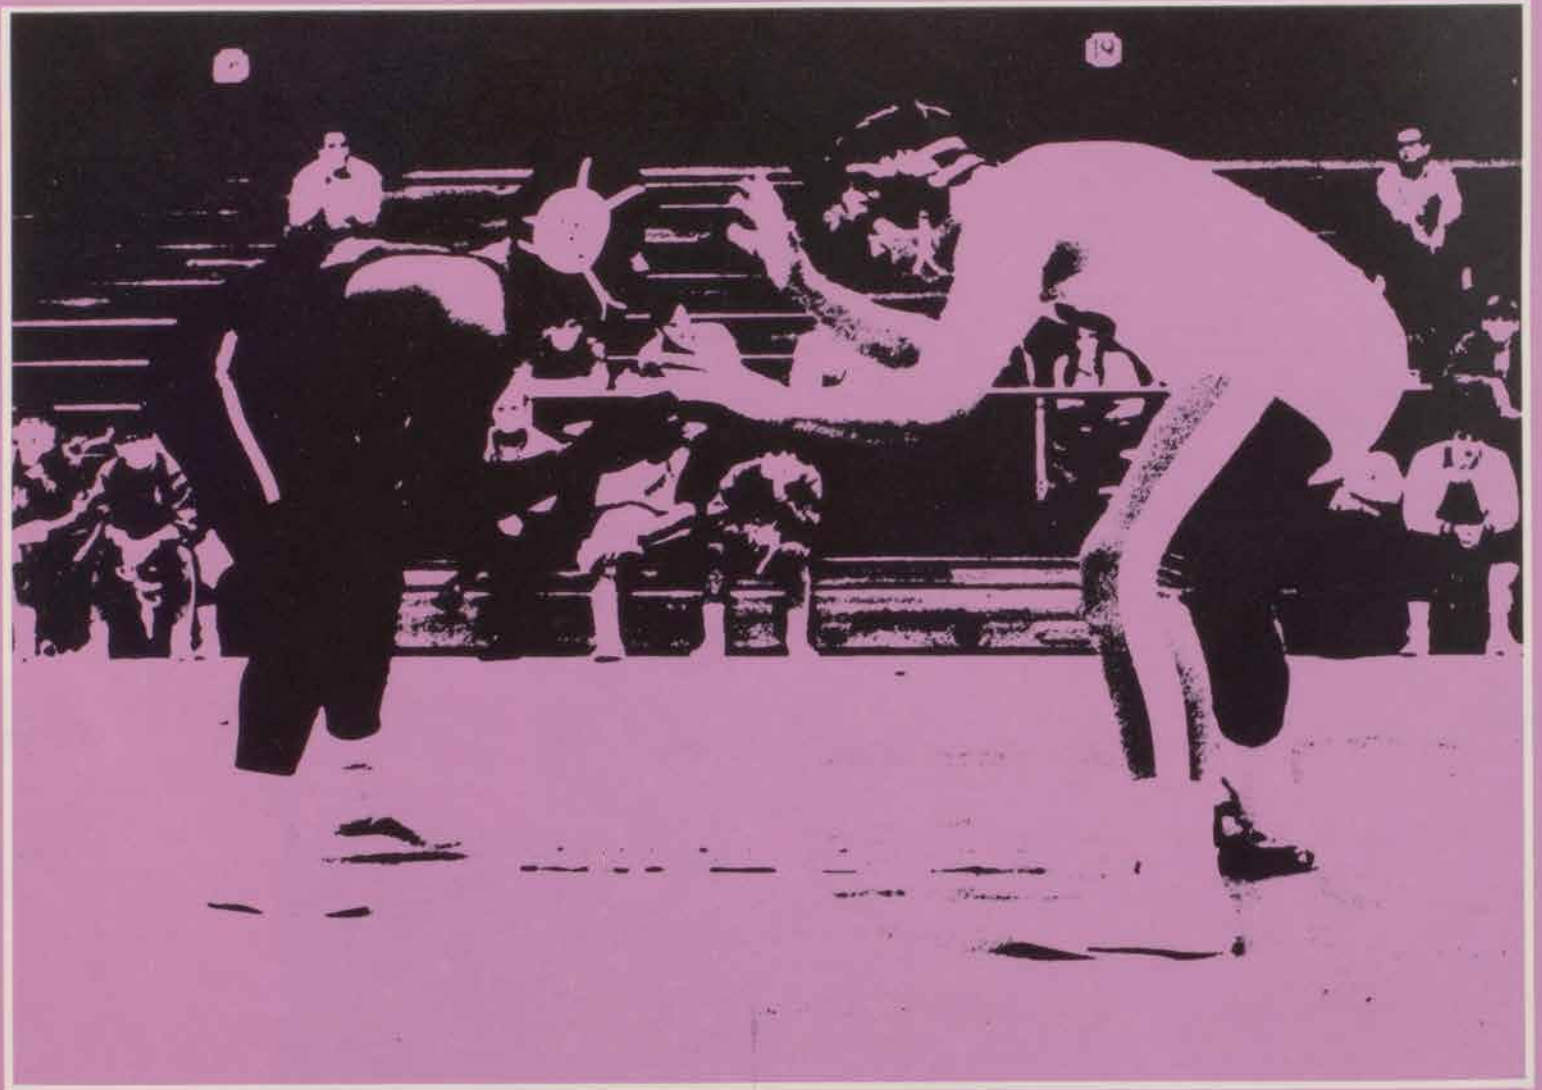

MIKE COFFMAN STACKS shelves as one of his duties at Pages Department Store while working on the DE program at school.

AS PART OF their second year activities, Mrs. Wheeler's sixth period typing class takes a timed writing of a letter.

Sports

In sports, we learn to compete skillfully, and more importantly to win and lose gracefully. We not only rejoice in the ultimate, such as a home run or stripping the net with a 30 foot jumper, but cheer for a safe bunt or the sinking of a wide open layup; for it's all the little things which make the game. Whether in something as individual as a mile run, or a team effort, as a football game, we put forth our best effort for MCHS.

Gallatin's gridsters grind out Season; Achieve 4-5 mark

Madison's Fightin' Cubs started practice in mid-August to prepare for the inter-squad scrimmage game on August 29. Head coach, Mr. Gallatin, guided his gridsters to four wins and five losses.

Even though the Cubs lost their first two games to Greensburg and Batesville, they won the next four which set a new school record. Of these games it was the first time in 11 years the Cubs have defeated Aurora. Another first for the Cubs was a victory over the Panthers at Jennings County. Junior Perry Cosby carried the ball for a total of 96 points setting a new school record. Jimmy Colegrove made five pass interceptions to set another record.

During regular season play the Cubs had 380 carries for a total of 1442 yards and 80 attempted passes with 23 completions for 297 yards while their opponents had 407 carries for 1035 yards and completed 46 of 125 attempted passes for 821 yards.

The football and cross country banquet was held in the MCHS cafeteria for players, coaches, cheerleaders and fans. Winners of statistical trophies were Perry Cosby, Dwight Schnaitter, Hoagie O'Banion, Chester Fowler, Mark Johnson, Mike Modisett, Jimmy Colegrove, Dennis Holt, Bill Bradley, and Steve Irwin. Other award winners were best offensive lineman, Hoagie O'Banion; best offensive back, Perry Cosby; best defensive back, Dennis Holt; and best defensive lineman, Chester Fowler. The most valuable senior award went to Mike Modisett. There were 25 letters awarded.

Harriers claim Knoble slate; 6-0 season

Performing for the second consecutive year on the Sunrise Golf Course, Madison's 1970 cross country Cubs compiled a perfect 6-0 record in dual and triangular meets along with high performances in six invitationals. This was the fourth year for Mr. Knoble as head cross country coach.

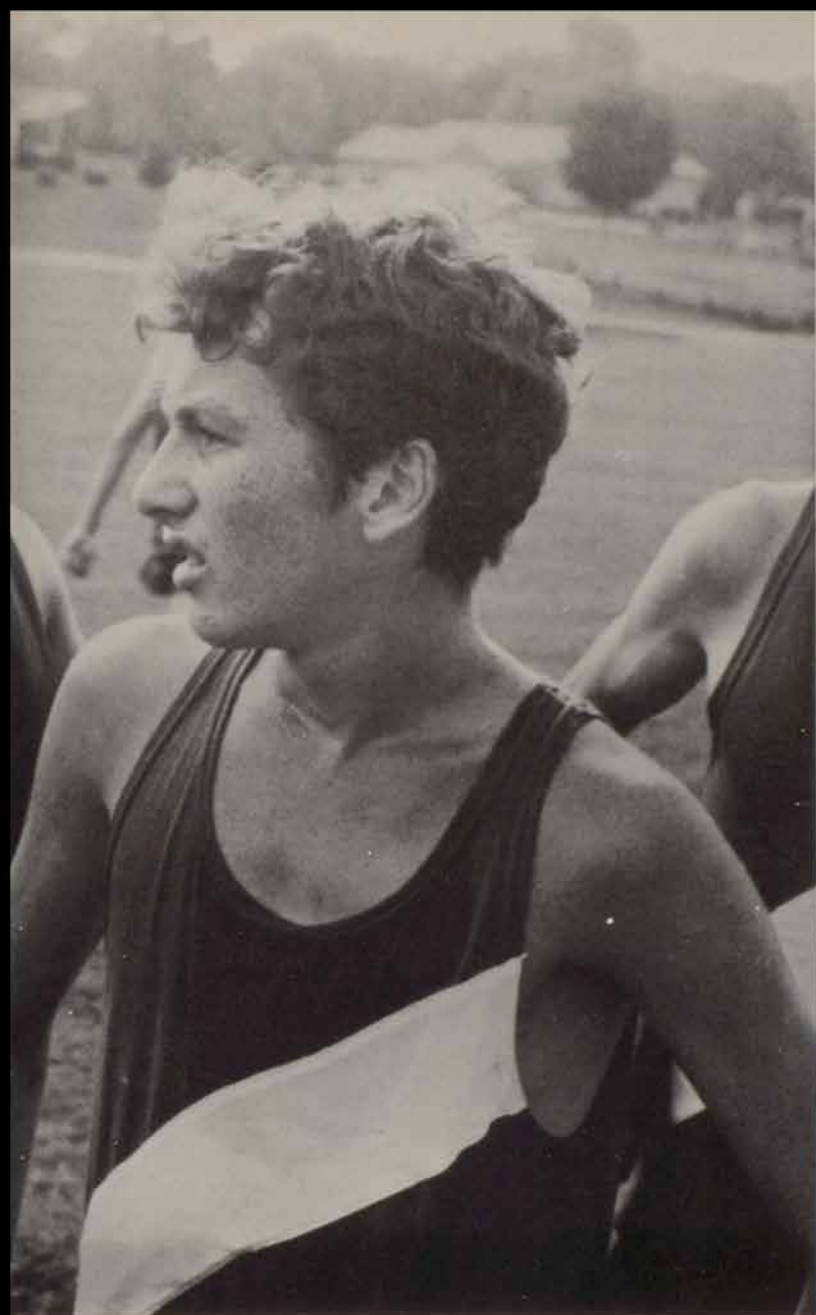

At their first invitational of the season at Jennings County, Mr. Knoble's "troops" captured a first place. After making wrong turns on the course, Ferguson, Collins, and Waterfill were still able to capture 2nd, 3rd and 5th places, respectively.

High hopes for a regional trip were shattered in the sectional. In the sectional the harriers finished in fifth place. They were led by a strong seventh place finish by Dave Waterfill.

Junior standout Brad Ferguson set a new school record with a time of 9:45 in a meet at home against Jeffersonville.

BRADLEY FERGUSON travels to a first place finish in a record-breaking time of 9:45.

Black-Smith Pound foes; Forge ahead

The MCHS Grapplers performed to a regular season of two victories and six defeats. Coach Darryl Smith guided the wrestlers with the help of assistant Coach Bill Black.

The wrestlers traveled to Bloomington again this year to compete in the wrestling sectional and finished ninth place in a field of fifteen teams. Chester Fowler gained individual honors by placing second in the heavyweight class.

Experienced individuals leading the team for the season were Kerry Vestile, 98 pound class; Marc Modisett, 145 pound class; Steve Lyons, 155 pound class; and Chester Fowler, heavyweight.

AT THE START of the 155 pound match, Steve Lyons locks up with his Jeffersonville opponent and wrestles to a decision.

Athletic ambitions, abilities Shown through intramurals

Basketball dominated the intramural scene this year. Spirited competition between the classes was a top priority as each team had to be made up of individuals in the same grade. Even some of the rules were changed to put the underclassmen on even terms with the upperclassman.

The tournament's final four was made up of the 74ers, the junior Eliminators, the Seniors and Roines. Roines eliminated the Eliminators, 72 to 42, to gain a berth in the finals. Seniors, the other finalists, defeated the 74ers 69 to 57 in a semi-final bout.

The championship game was a hard fought affair with Roines defeating the Seniors by a score of 61 to 48. Roines's Louis O'Banion and Damon Welch, a Senior team member, tied for scoring honors with 20 points apiece in the final game.

Mr. Boles, in his first year as intramural sponsor, awarded individual trophies to each member of the championship team. He also felt the new rules made the games more interesting and they also gave the underclassman an even chance for victory.

INTRAMURAL COMPETITORS, Robert Frederick and Don Konkle, anxiously await their upcoming game from a seat along the sidelines.

Cubs outlast sectional foes; Fans follow bouncing dots

The Mighty Cubs, nicknamed by the press "Ritter's Runts", displayed a strong, but inconsistent 9-9 season. They started with a five game winning streak, which was ended by the Columbus Bulldogs. Following a weak mid-season, Ritter's Critters, who were built upon strong Hoosier hysteria, defeated tough and tall Silver Creek, Shawe and Southwestern teams to claim the title of sectional champs. The trip to the regional was the first in four years.

More polka dot fever came with the addition of new "away" uniforms and a polka dotted basketball for use during warm-ups.

Ending the regular season on a happy note, a victory over Lawrenceburg gave the team needed momentum advancing into sectional play. Deep bench strength, along with the continuous hard play by the starters, gave the Cubs the added power needed to make them regional bound.

Three seniors led the scoring of the dotted cagers. Bob Wilson paced the attack with an average of 18.1 points per game. Second high scorer, Herman Keeton, averaged 16.7 followed by Jon Canida's 12.3. Freshman Louis "Junebug" Humes pulled off 164 rebounds to rank as the Cub's top rebounder. Junbug's 249 seasonal points left him 12 points short off the frosh record in varsity play.

SCRAMBLING AFTER loose basketballs is only part of the work put into the game by Junebug Humes and Mike Modisett as they wrestle for the ball from a Silver Creek player.

AFTER A SCRAPPY first quarter, the Cubs listen intently as Coach Ritter advises them on new strategy to use during the rest of the half.

AFTER COACHING the Cubs to a sectional victory, Mr. Ritter is honored to receive the tournament trophy and place it in the trophy case.

MIKE KEETON, sophomore guard leaps high to hit an open man under the basket. A strong Lawrenceburg team managed to capture a one point victory.

DWIGHT SCHNAITTER'S determination to score another two points for the Little Cubs results in a victory over rival Switzerland County.

Andrew, J. Canida. LAST ROW: Mr. Orrill (asst. coach), M. Modisett, P. Dryden, E. Hackney, B. Johann, B. Auxier, Mr. Ritter (head coach).

Little Cubs sport winning 10-9 season

The Junior Varsity Cubs sported a fine record as they ended with a 10-9 regular season slate. Coach Mr. O'Neal relied on balanced scoring by Kirk Mayberry, Mike Keeton and Rick Hoskins throughout the year. The team also depended on height, being taller than the varsity.

In their only tournament of the year, the Little Cubs finished as the runner-up behind the host team, Jennings County Panthers, after losing 70-57 in the final game. They gained their second place berth by defeating Bedford the night before by 24 points, 65 to 41.

The frosh team, coached by Mr. Dwyer in his first season, finished with a 5-9 slate. They started slow by losing their first seven games but ended with a four game winning streak. Ed Combs led in scoring.

Rainy season washes out Coach's hopes for victories

The 1971 baseball season was hampered throughout by rainy weather. Four games were completely washed out. They still managed to turn in eleven games, yet only two victories, over rivals Silver Creek and Southwestern, were captured.

Track records fall during cinder season

The 1971 track team was one of the best under Coach Gallatin.

Throughout the track season outstanding performances were shown. Five new school records were set. Shotputter Chester Fowler hoisted the weight 51 ft. 7 in., John Konkle rose 6 ft. 1½ in. in the high jump to break another record. In the running events Dave Collins and Brad Ferguson scored a 1-2 punch in the mile and the two mile, respectively. Dave's 4:27.1 and Bradley's 9:58.1 set new school marks. The fifth record was set by Dennis O'Neal as he was clocked in 15.5 seconds in the high hurdles.

Two Madison trackmen participated in the state meet held at Indianapolis Tech. Sophomore miler Dave Collins and senior shotputter Chester Fowler represented the mighty thin-clads at this main meet.

MADISON, SOUTHWESTERN and Switzerland County runners toe their marks and wait for the gun at the start of the mile run.

COACH GALLATIN doctors Jay Richmond's knee after a fall into the cinders and a photo-finish in the 100 yard dash.

Racketmen show unsuccessful season

Mr. Smudde, a Science teacher at the junior high, coached the tennis team for his second year. The team was composed almost completely of underclassmen. The only senior on the squad was Richard Lodge.

The team's 0-6 season was mainly due to the boys' inexperience. Improvement is next year's objective.

Representing the tennis team at the Bloomington Invitational tourney on May 8 were Juniors Don Ihle and Mike Williams and Sophomore Bob Cook. None of the team members were able to win their matches.

JUNIOR KEETON makes a powerful swing in a doubles match during the fall tennis sectional held at the New Albany Community Courts in New Albany, Indiana.

Golfers drive On to records And victories

New golf coach, Mr. Barry Cooper, managed to spark a young golf team to a successful and winning season.

In the Batesville Invitational Madison placed an impressive sixth while only seventh in the Bedford Invitational Tourney.

Freshman Tom Schienbein, one of Mr. Cooper's better golfers, set a course record for an amateur at Sunrise Falls Golf Course. He shot a 33 on the first nine holes followed by a 40 on the last nine for a total of 73 for 18 holes. The old record for nine holes was a 34.

KEVIN CADE holds the crowd spellbound as he concentrates on sinking a very important putt in a match with Batesville.

KEEPING HIS eye on the ball is a deciding factor for golfer Tom Schienbein as he prepares to drive. Tom was an outstanding freshman golfer.

SENIOR MARLENE COSBY writes down the names of the girls who will be competing in the meet's main field event, the high jump.

Women's liberation seen in Girls' athletic performances

The women's liberation movement was seen in girls' sports activities at MCHS this year. The girls' teams were coached by Miss Eisenhardt.

Nine girls traveled to Knightstown in the early fall to compete in an archery tournament. Although they received no honors they gained some valuable experience from this new type of tournament.

Madison High School's representatives at the District nine volleyball tournament placed second. They competed with teams from Bedford, Springs Valley, Paoli, and Oolitic in a double elimination tournament. The volleyball team then traveled to the state tournament at Tipton where they were eliminated in the first round of play.

Three qualifiers from the track district meet competed in the regional meet held at Madison. These participants were Kathy Adams, 880 yard run; Nancy McDowell, 100 yard dash; and the 880 yard relay team.

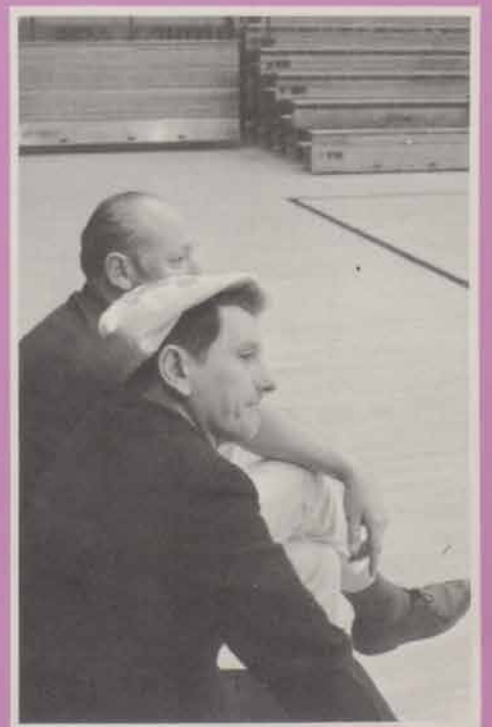

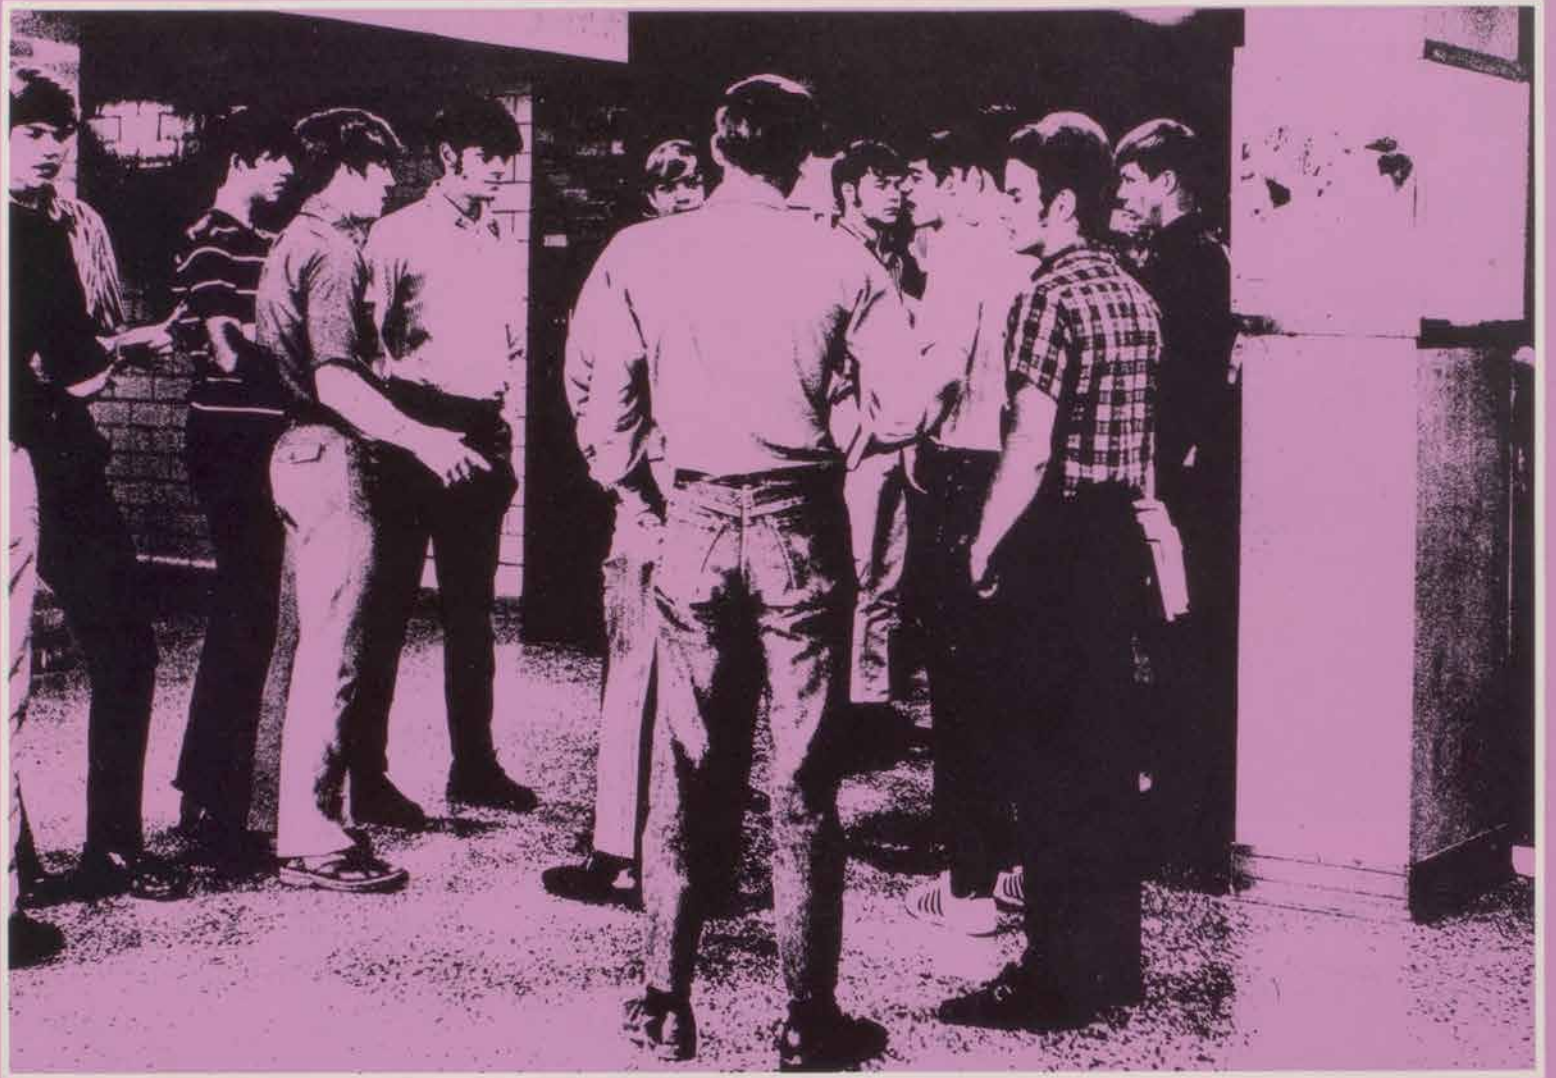

AFTER WEEKS OF hard after-school practice, Kathy Adams demonstrates her endurance in the grueling 880 run. She placed third in the event.

Memories of Seniors' year Are treasured

The Senior year of a graduating class is looked back upon with mixed emotions. There were trying times, with the added load of term papers; there were the instances when every senior wished it was all over; but then there were moments which the whole class will remember. In the minds of the seniors certain highlights inevitably remain. Student Government Day, Spirit Week, and the Prom were held; the queens were crowned, and now only memories linger; and to the Class of '71, it is not the way we are, but rather, the way we were.

Seniors unite for final accomplishments

United efforts by the Class of '71 brought recognition as well as honor to the 280 Seniors. At Homecoming the class won the float competition with its "Time For a Victory" entry. During the week of sectionals the Seniors were proclaimed "Most Spirited" by a student-teacher panel. Gifts given to the school were an engraving machine and a Cub Mascot with additional money going into a fund for the improvement of the conference room. Spring events such as the Prom finalized the year.

Junior class Labors over College tests

Magazine sales progressed smoothly for the Juniors as they reached their super goal of 9,000 dollars. After decorating a float for homecoming, the Juniors took three tests for college—the PSAT, the National Merit, and the SAT college board exams. They finished the year by planning and decorating the prom with the theme, "Days of Wine and Roses."

Participation in homecoming Exemplifies freshman spirit

Exciting and hectic describe the first of four busy high school years for the freshman class. Boasting the largest class in school, the freshmen started the year with a show of spirit, using the theme "Cubs Rule" to decorate a float for the homecoming parade.

Elections consumed a major portion of the freshmen's time. They chose class officers, student council representatives, cheerleaders, class motto and colors. The frosh, who were sponsored by Mrs. Elston and Mr. Cooper, also took intelligence tests on December 11.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS, Tim Waterfill (pres.), Suzanne Browne (sec.), Tom Cox (treas.), and Wes Kring (vice-pres.), contemplate their duties.

PARTICIPATION IN SCHOOL skits helps to make Mr. Waterfill's duties as school principal "very interesting."

DAN WATERFILL listens attentively to a student suggestion during another busy day as school principal.

DR. CARTER, new school superintendent, pauses in the front lobby to admire the art work of the Arts and Crafts class.

SCHOOL BOARD—Mr. Jack Messmore, Dr. William Bear, Mr. John T. Reed, Dr. Robert O. Zink, Mr. Henry Custer, Mr. Gayle T. Kring, Mr. Emerson Lee.

Administration Experiences A hectic year

Changing best describes the busy year for the administration. The major concern was planning the newly-built secondary educational complex. Modular scheduling, reconstructing classes, and reassignment of faculty took up a large part of their time.

Dr. Carter, in his first year as superintendent, and Dr. Stuckwisch labored over next year's curriculum and scheduling. March first marked the beginning of Mr. Bates' new job as principal of the junior high. Mr. Colegrove replaced him as assistant principal for the remainder of the school year.

GUIDANCE CONSELORS, Mr. Craft and Mr. Fisher, discuss plans for modular scheduling which is to be in effect in the 1971-72 school year.

BESIDES HELPING underclassmen with their personal problems and class scheduling, Miss Stinson is also a Senior Class sponsor.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL Jim Bates is all smiles as he learns of his appointment as principal of the junior high school.

Excellent job Is continued By personnel

Our custodians, Theodore Schiphurst, Gene Lewis, Oscar Boldery, Myrle Sedam, Loretta McManis, Benny May, Pascal Bell, Yandell Borcharding, Rosie Stader, and Martha Jones, even with the added load of the new E wing, did a fine job of keeping the school in top condition.

The cafeteria cooks furnished hot lunches as well as provided rolls and donuts, orange juice and snacks for students before school in the mornings.

The secretaries and bookkeepers were kept busy helping the faculty and administrators with the modular scheduling for next year.

DISTRIBUTING TICKETS FOR "South Pacific" is only one of the duties assumed by Mrs. Mildred Thomas and her daughter Marla, who serve as Bookkeepers.

CAFETERIA COOKS, Mrs. Opal Scott, Mrs. Polly Lewis, Mrs. Andre Bates, Mrs. Dorothy Auxier, Mrs. June Vayhinger, Mrs. Frances Horton, Mrs.

Laura Jaynes, Mrs. Betty Cooke, and Mrs. Gladys Wheeler, prepare and distribute noon meals for the students.

THE THREE OFFICE secretaries, Mrs. Bright, Mrs. Giltner, and Mrs. Bentley study the new computer's student schedule sheets.

STUDY HALL monitors Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Freeman help French Club by selling candy bars to Kenny Cole and Michele Carpenter in study hall.

SEARCHING FOR AN interesting article to read, library aid Mrs. Reed looks over one of the many magazines found in the school library.

MRS. PAUL, teachers' aide, helps Todd Thaden increase his reading comprehension. She is director of the supplementary reading groups.

In a time of rebellion
for today's youth, Madison students are finding a need for the "Establishment".
We, the "now generation", are seeking an understanding between generations which can only be brought about through mutual cooperation.
Through after-school jobs,
DE and VICA programs, or through student patronage of the business community, we are brought one step closer to that understanding.

This is

THE WAY WE ARE.

Tomorrow

From our first school days in kindergarten to our last as busy seniors, we prepare for the day when we shall be
"on our own." We shape our destinies with the activities of today and
our plans for tomorrow.
We look ahead with spirit, determination, and enthusiasm.

This is
