THE SENIOR CLASS OF
SHAWE MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL
Madison, Indiana

FOREWORD

We, the Seniors of 1960, wish to thank our beloved parents and teachers, and all those who have helped to show us the importance of the four great qualities of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service.

As our readers leaf through the pages of our 1960 Hilltopper, they will see the characteristics of the above named four qualities reflected in our past school activities.

In the future we, the members of the class of 1960, will try our utmost to continue the cultivation of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service in ourselves and in others.

We, the Seniors of 1960, proudly dedicate the 1960 Hilltopper to Sister Mary Doloretta, who has faithfully and generously served Shawe students for the past six years and who has instilled into these students a love of truth and scholarship.

---The Seniors, Class of 1960

Under the able assistance of their instructor, Father Meny, these seniors gain a greater insight into the "Catholic Approach to Marriage."

Judy Handlon points out a few interesting facts on the news map to some of her classmates.

French II students - Phillip Torline, Margaret Ann Kalb, Richard Kelly, Jerry Barnes, John Lorenz, Robbie Brooks, and Bill Potter - under the guidance of Sister Rosemary, follow the travels of Phileas Fogg in Jules Verne's AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS.

Robert Lockridge holds the interest of the other Spanish II students as he does a sight-translation for them.

Stewart Smith, Jean Woracek, and Mary Barbara Weisenbach, under the tutelage of Sister Doloretta, are busy solving problems in trigonometry.

Biology students listen very attentively as Sister Doloretta explains the use of the microprojector, donated by the Shawe P. T. A.

These Typing II students learn how to increase their typing speed under the instruction of Sister Michael.

Shorthand II students take dictation from Sister Michael.

Bookkeeping students listen attentively to Sister Michael as she gives them a few notes.

Las muchachas, recuerden ustedes la clase de español I? Juniors Jane Norris, Delores Gerth, Margaret McAuliffe, and Janice Gerth, taught by Sister Benedicta, learn their Spanish.

Shorthand I students - Mary Margaret Ringwald, Joan Schafer, Stephanie McCarty, Betty Sommer, Carole Brawner, and Mary Ann Finnegan - under the supervision of Sister Michael, learn to do it the fast way.

With the aid of a recording, Sister Rosemary's French I class practices French carols for the Christmas Cantata.

The juniors, under the direction of Sister Rosemary, make a thorough study of Dickens' TALE OF TWO CITIES.

Father Drewes has some of his world history students find key places on the maps and on the globe.

These art appreciation students appear quite happy over the display of work done by them in their art appreciation class.

Sister Michael points out just how it is done in plane geometry.

Sister Benedicta helps the freshman literature class improve their reading speed and comprehension.

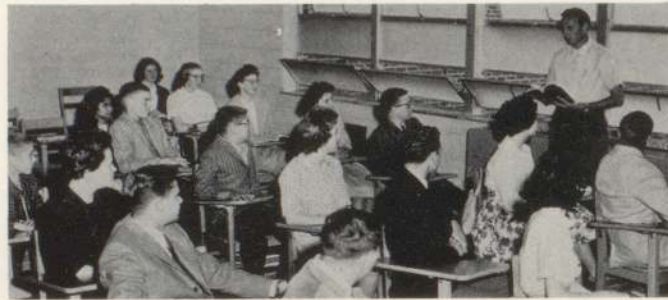

Father Drewes explains to the freshmen the importance of the study of world history.

Susan McCauley demonstrates a problem in Algebra I class to the members of her class.

Mr. Dwyer, driver training instructor, points out to John Sorg, Robert Spencer, Deanna Zapp, and Theresa Ebbing that a driver has to use the clutch when shifting gears.

The rules of health and safety are explained to the freshmen by Mr. Dwyer.

Under the supervision of Sister Benedicta, these arts and crafts students learn many useful things.

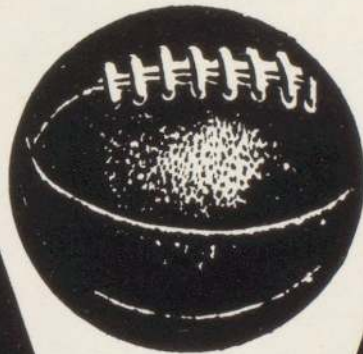

These home economics students are being taught the useful art of sewing, needlework and upholstery under the guidance of Sister Doloretta.

Senior National Honor Society members, together with Father Richard Grogan and Father Hilary Memy, welcome the new inductees into the society.

Members of the National Honor Society listen to Nancy Davis, president of the society, as she explains the meaning of the society's chapter.

Shawe Memorial's Choral Club, under the direction of Sister Sarah, gives its spring recital.

Student Council members plan for an election of new officers. President Jack Hardigg explains points of interest in the constitution which were helpful in the election.

Queen Sherry Ackerman and King Bob Lockridge, royalty of the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom, smile proudly as the fairy-godmother watches the modern Cinderella and her Prince Charming.

Seniors kneel in prayer as the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration in the school chapel each First Friday for all-day adoration.

Science Club members experiment with sound. Theodore Blanc turns up the volume as Jack Hardigg adjusts the oscilloscope. The other Science Club members, Charles Niccum, Phillip Torline, David Niccum, Robert Brawner, John Dattilo, Carole Brawner, Nancy Davis, and Mike Smith look on. Mr. Winkel, science club sponsor, is not pictured.

This group of mission unit officers are preparing the agenda for the general CSMC meeting. Unit officers are, left to right, Sherry Ackerman, secretary; Mary Barbara Weisenbach, president; Jack Hardigg, vice-president; Terry Smith, spiritual treasurer; and Betty Sommer, financial treasurer.

"Do you think they'll be all right?" There is no need to worry; it's only a scene from the senior class play, BEAUTY AND THE BEEF.

Unusual situations presented themselves throughout the senior class play, and here we see Carolee Anger, Patricia Taflinger, and Bob Lockridge in such a moment.

Below members of "Cast A" attend the football party which resulted in a comical mayhem.

It can plainly be seen upon the faces of the members of "Cast B" of BEAUTY AND THE BEEF that all had a wonderful time rehearsing for this production.

Shawe seniors march in the May Day procession. Each senior girl carries a yellow rose which she presents to Our Lady as a tribute of love.

Our Lady and her court as they enter St. Patrick's Church for the May crowning ceremony.

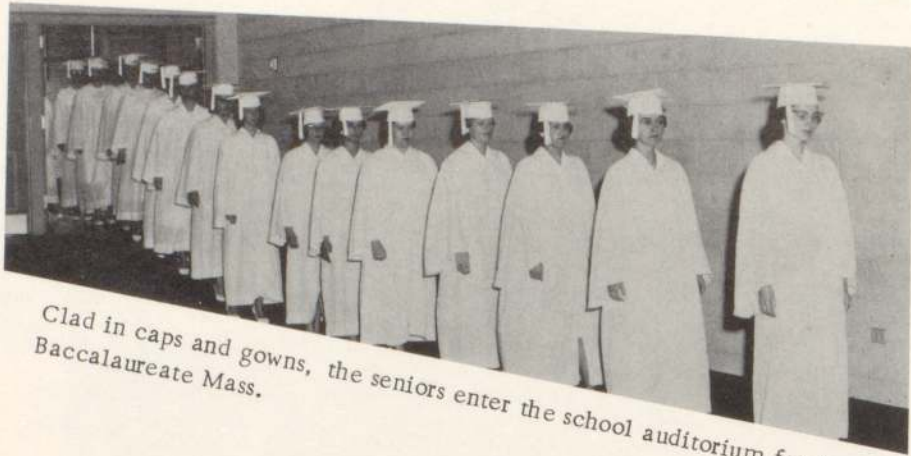

Mary Barbara Weisenbach, senior class valedictorian, crowns our Blessed Lady as Queen of the May. Nancy Davis, class salutatorian and crown bearer, stands at the right.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was the final tribute to Our Lady on May Day.

As a climax to the May Day activities, Shawe seniors presented the annual Class Day program. Members of the senior class listen as Nancy Davis, class salutatorian, gives a farewell address and a "Thank You" in the name of the class of 1960.

Clad in caps and gowns, the seniors enter the school auditorium for the Baccalaureate Mass.

Celebrating the Solemn High Mass for the baccalaureate services are, left to right, Father Hilary Meny, superintendent of Shawe; Father Raymond Boehm, subdeacon of the Mass; Father Albert Ajamie, celebrant; Father David Senefeld, deacon; Father Robert Drewes, master of ceremonies; Philip McCauley and Douglas Breitenbach, acolytes.

Graduating seniors listen attentively as Father Ajamie gives the address at the Baccalaureate Mass.

How did you say you got down?

Look, Mom! No hands!

Originality is the keyword.

Two's company, but this is ridiculous!

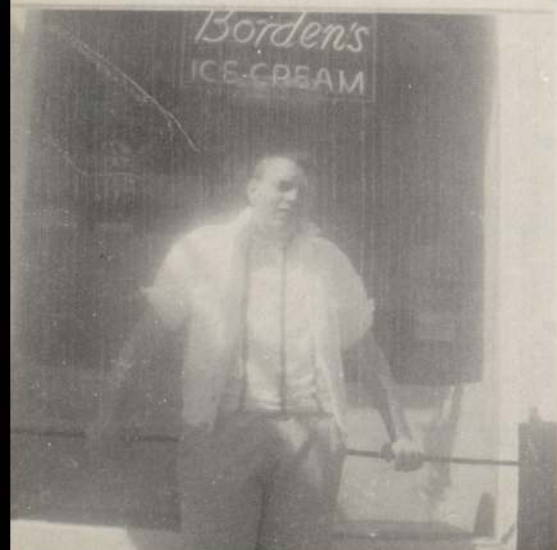

Ouch! That's my finger.

So you want to get tough, eh?

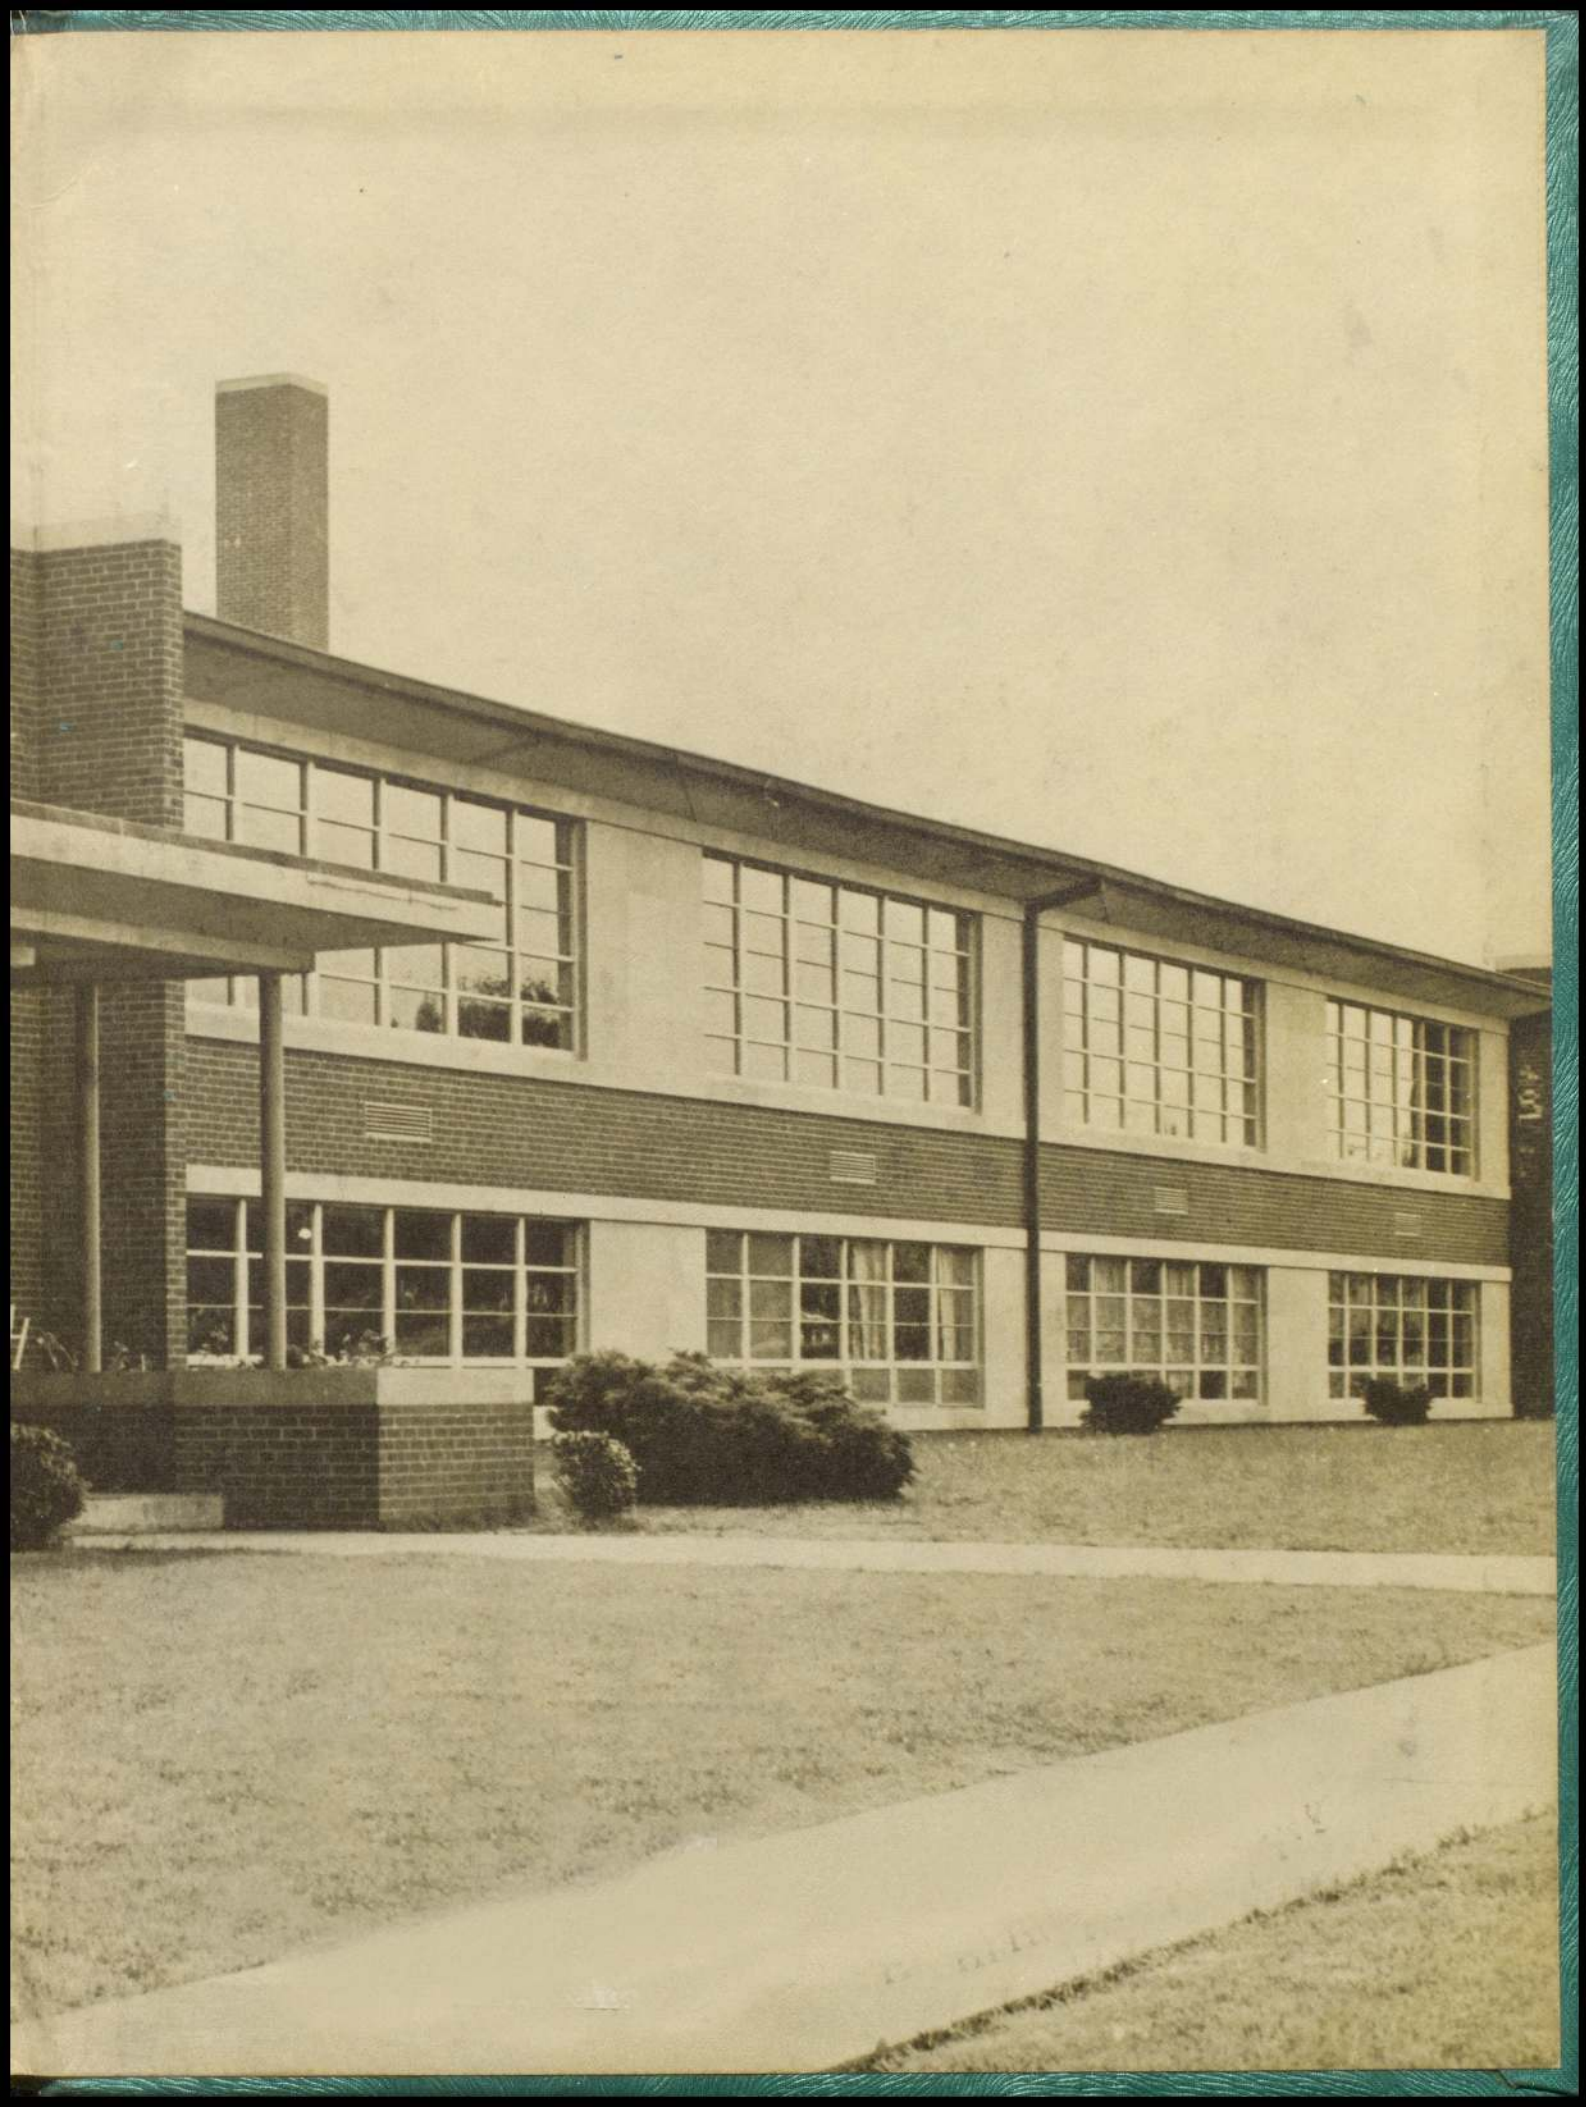

If we had a stamp we'd go somewhere!

Old reliable!
