

SHREVE MEMORIAL
HIGH SCHOOL

The Hilltopper

1963

To you, Father Drewes, we, the graduates of 1963, dedicate this edition of the HILLTOPPER. This is but a small token of our appreciation to you for your five years of unselfish service.

In our minds you have instilled the highest ideals of Christian education and the determination to live up to them. When we needed guidance, you listened with sincere sympathy and endless patience. Your dedication and loyalty have been an inspiration to us.

As we leave the halls of Shawe and enter a vast, new world, we are better prepared to make decisions and accept responsibilities because of your guidance. We are truly grateful for all that you have done for us.

---The Class of 1963

Shawe Memorial High School

Madison, Indiana

This Certifies That

Has satisfactorily completed a Course of Study prescribed for Graduation from this School and is therefore awarded this

Diploma

Given this twenty-sixth day of May, nineteen hundred sixty-three.

Rw. Hilary Mery
Superintendent

Sister Rosemary
Principal

Success is the key to the future. It is the key that opens the door to a new world of opportunity.

The students at Shawe have been given this key to the future through the unselfish efforts of their parents and their teachers. They have been given the impetus to accomplish not only the mighty but also the minute.

In this HILLTOPPER the class of 1963 has attempted to focus the spotlight on the successes of the students spiritually, mentally, physically, and socially.

Virtues Through Understanding

Seniors study the fundamentals of a Catholic marriage in Father Meny's religion class.

Church History is interesting to Juniors in Father Senefeld's class.

Sophomore girls listen attentively as Father Senefeld speaks about the New Testament.

Father Senefeld points out emphatically that Sophomore boys should study their religion.

Honors Achieved

Father Jones brings smiles to the faces of Freshmen in their religion class.

Sister Rosemary's English class finishes the last of the books in the school reading program.

The Junior class gets practice in diagramming sentences. Diagramming is easy! Explaining it is hard!

Sister Benedicta lets some of her English students have a hand at teaching the class.

Through Study

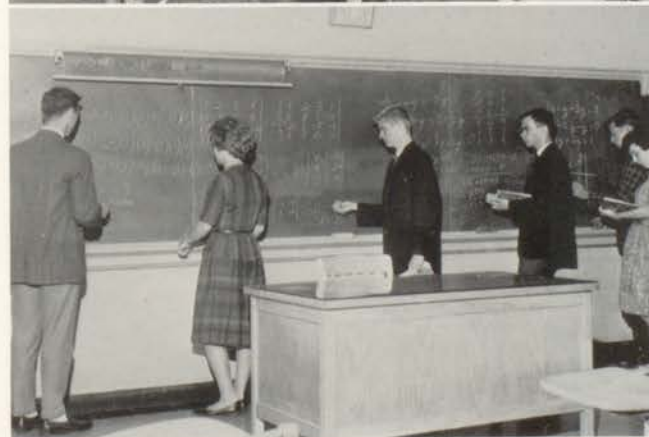

Father Drewes explains important points to the Sophomores. English is a subject that requires much time and study.

Freshmen diagram sentences for Sister Benedicta.

Father Drewes calls on Steve Bruner to read to the Freshman class on the subject of communications.

Junior and Senior Algebra II students work diligently on the assigned problems.

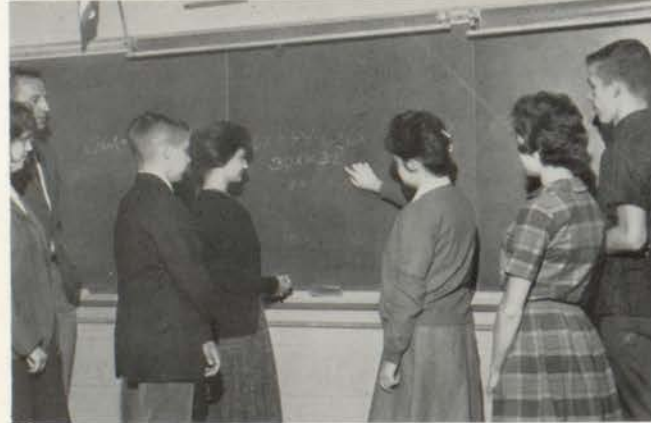

Sister Doloretta's plane geometry class tries to construct the mean proportional between two given-line segments.

Sister Kevin's General Math II students go to the board to analyze problems that will assist them with their homework.

Algebra I students really "know their stuff" as they figure out problems on the board.

Mr. Dwyer watches his General Math I students apply what they have learned.

Students Seek

These students gain knowledge by performing this experiment.

Robert Schafer and Gregory Yeager prepare for another experiment.

Paths to Knowledge . . .

Sophomore biology students enjoy viewing their small friends through microscopes.

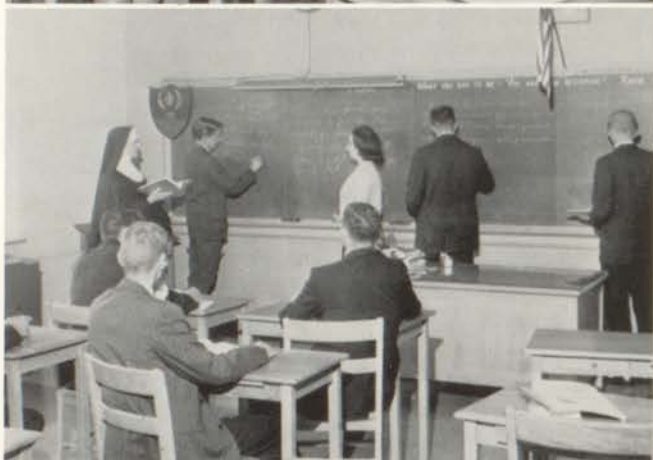

The boys learn new and exciting things by dissecting a frog in their biology class.

French III students, under the able direction of Sister Rosemary, try to follow Phileas Fogg's journey "Around the World in Eighty Days."

Industrious French II students write their assignments on the board.

Sister Rosemary teaches French with the aid of a tape recorder. These French I pupils find it easier to speak and understand French because of oral practice.

Spanish II students practice pronunciation in Sister Benedicta's class.

Achievement

These Sophomores learn the fundamentals of Latin from Father Jones.

Father Jones enjoys teaching Latin to the Freshman.

in Classes . . .

Health and Safety creates many friendly debates in class discussion.

Father Drewes civics class prepares for a Criterion quiz.

Mr. Dwyer shows his American History class several of the more important trouble spots of World War II.

Jane Kirchner points out a few interesting places on the world map to Mr. Dwyer's World History Class.

Learn

"Now, that's a radiator cap," says Mr. Lee. He finds that it is easier to teach the boys the mechanics of a car than it is the girls.

Did you say this was a compact car? Mr. Dwyer finds an eager group ready to take Driver's Ed.

Sister Kevin keeps the Seniors busy in Typing II class.

Speed tests are a regular event in Sister Kevin's class. Tests of speed and accuracy go together in rounding out a top typing student.

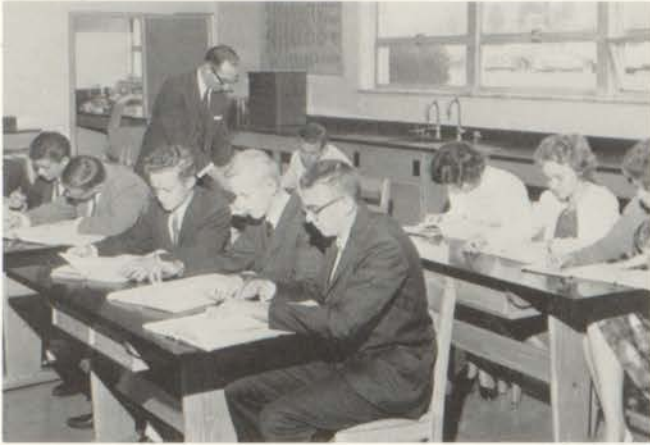

by Doing . . .

Shorthand students take turns writing dictation assignments on the board. This is one of the "Learn by Doing" processes.

Freshman girls take a break from P. E. class to pose for a picture. Standing, Pam Deveary, Mary Jane Breitenbach, J. York, D. Hill, L. Perry, M. K. Dierkes, J. Kirchner, L. Nelson, S. Brown. Front, R. A. Ringwald, Y. Yeager, P. Steinhardt, K. Schlick, M. Hock, S. McCauley, A. Niese, S. Vande Water and M. M. Aich.

Successful Work

Mr. Lee's bookkeeping class learns how to balance books.

These art-appreciation students put the finishing touches on their projects.

Home Ec. students develop new talents and abilities.

Phil Harrison and Larry Burkhardt gaze in wonderment at the various art projects brought in by the art-appreciation class.

Brings Satisfaction . .

Scholastic letter winners: M. K. Dierkes, D. Heilman, B. Ackerman, R. Biere, A. Niese; Second row, C. Schwacke, R. Scully, M. M. Aich, P. Daun, M. Ackerman, D. Hill, S. McCauley, S. Schoenstein; Third row, R. Norris, (hidden) T. Smith, P. Deveary, J. Kirchner, M. J. Breitenbach, C. McCarty, J. Biere, J. Hoffman; Fourth row, B. Fondiller, G. Guarino, R. Dierkes, T. McKenna, and L. Kelly.

Seniors are intent on completing their last assignment as high school students.

The cafeteria serves as a study hall every morning. Note, how studious they are to complete their work.

Seniors couldn't be that sad about their last Civics class. No, they're giving all their attention to the film Father is showing on the threat of Communism. Father seems to be smiling. He wasn't used to seeing the Seniors with serious faces!

English III students of Father Jones are kept busy the last days of school by finishing their workbooks.

The Seniors make a last minute check of their papers as Father Drewes cheerfully collects them. After all the papers are collected, Father will show a film concerning the threat of Communism.

ATHLETICS

The "Big Ten" members are: John Guarino, Ron Dierkes, Tom McKenna, Louis Kelly, Mike Warren, Don Wolfschlag, Bill Hertz, Tom Ringwald, John Wolf, and Gary Guarino.

Successful Season

"That's mine," yells Tom Ringwald. Tom finds that he has to fight for the ball. The Rebels were equally determined, but Tom came through for us.

Tom McKenna moves in for a lay-up. After he successfully evades the Versailles players, he sinks a hook shot to bring us two points closer to "V."

Dierkes caught by Rebel defense, goes in to score.

Two points for Shawe! John Wolf raises the score as Lions look on.

in Basketball

Versailles' Alan Smith searches for the ball as McKenna turns to head down court for a score. Sad to say, the Hilltoppers were out-scored that night.

The victorious Hilltoppers enjoy success. It is the second time in a row they have been recipients of the American Legion Old Oaken Bucket.

The bonfire of victory burns brightly as proud, happy students and parents gather around to cheer, with joyful faces and tearfilled eyes, their wonderful Hilltoppers.

Mr. Dwyer beams with pride at second Jefferson County Invitational victory.

"No, it's mine!" says Don Wolf-schlag, left, as some of the Warriors try to take the ball from him. With the aid of Tom McKenna, Don eventually escapes with the ball.

It's not a jumping contest but a contest of determination. The Vevay Warriors find it difficult to block one of Ron Dierkes' hook shots. He is even more determined.

John Wolf, #32, and Tom Ringwald, #12, are doing their best to make sure that the Hilltoppers keep the ball. John jumps high for the rebound and Tom stands ready to help.

Ron Dierkes, #20, comes through with two more points for Shawe.

"Got it" says Guarino. Don Wolfschlag does a good job of guarding while Tom McKenna comes in to help.

Cub knocks Hilltoppers out of the way as he comes down with the rebound, but Hertz is ready to recover.

"Hey, get your hand off the ball," says Don Wolfschlag, as John Wolf tries to keep a Cub away. Guarino stands ready to take ball down the court.

Pride in Outdoor Sports . . .

Catcher Dick Lovell signals to pitcher Jack Dagleish who is preparing to fire another fast ball across the plate to a Dupont player.

Gary Guarino stops during a warm-up to show us batting stance which has proved to be effective.

The newly organized Shawe golf team pose for a picture. This group is under the supervision of Father Philip Jones. The boys are: Bob Norris, Bob Scully, John Smolarczyk, Ricky Keyser, Jerry Lopez, and Bill Hertz, and Howell Kelly.

The smiles of victory shine brightly on the faces of the C. Y. O. Deanery Champions. David Goebel, coach, and Father Drewes, C. Y. O. moderator, are proud of the team.

It looks like a close race. Every boy is pushing to win for his own team. Gary Guarino tries for a little more push to add another blue ribbon to his fine collection.

With a burst of speed and a high jump, Tom McKenna leads the way in the high hurdles. Tom is one of Shawe's foremost trackmen.

Steve Hoffman takes a flying leap to clear his way in the high jump. It takes a lot of effort and skill to attain perfection in the high jump.

Gary Guarino, ribbon-winner in low hurdles, is one of the best trackmen in Shawe's history. He represented us this year in the state sectionals and regionals. His swiftness and smooth stride make Gary a frequent winner on the cinder track.

Susan Schoenstein smiles at the sad moment when her four years of Cheerleading come to an end. Her personality and excellent character always exemplified the spirit of the Topperettes.

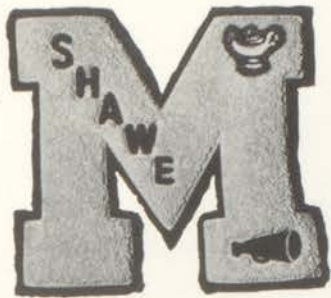

The real power behind the Pep Club comes from its President, Susan McCauley.

Victory Through Pep . . .

This is Shawe's Mascot. He was donated by Mr. Johann, father of sophomore, Tharsilla Johann.

These vivacious cheerleaders helped spark the team to victory. They spent long hours practicing, in order that the Topperettes could have cheerleaders they could be proud of. They are: seated, Susan Schoenstein, second row, Mary Lyn Lorton, and Kay Watson, third row, Donna Chesterfield and Peggy O'Dell, fourth row, Cathy McCarty.

The Shawe Pep Club shows some of its spirit which helped pull the Hilltoppers through good and bad.

ACTIVITIES

Everyone applauds as Sharon McLaughlin and Bob Grimes are announced the king and queen of the Christmas dance.

Bob Grimes and Sharon McLaughlin are shown after their coronation.

The teenagers aren't the only ones having fun at this dance. The chaperones seem to be enjoying it too. They are: Father Drewes, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Biere, Father Meny, Father Jones, Mrs. Philip McCauley, Mrs. Frank Dattilo, Mrs. Rosella Bloemker, Mr. Philip McCauley, and Mr. Frank Dattilo, (back to camera).

School Spirit Evident . . .

Verdoro Staff meets to plan an edition of the school newspaper. Maureen Wolf, Ruth Biere, Jane Hoffman, Jennifer Hoffman, Donna Chesterfield, Pat Daun, Cathy McCarty, Judy Biere, and Dianne Heilman.

Achievements in Music . . .

Sarah McCauley and Ann Niesse play a beautiful duet, the Intermezzo, at the annual spring musicale.

Pam Deveary accompanies Martin Schafer as he plays Arioso and Caprice on the trumpet.

The Shawe Choral Club, under the direction of Father Philip Jones and Sister Florita, presents a spring concert with a variety of popular songs.

Jane Hoffman and Jane Biron start the Shawe Memorial Spring Concert with the Flower Song.

Talent in Dramatics . . .

Parents and friends eagerly await the announcement of the winner of the Junior Achievement Scholarship award during scene of Senior Class play.

Sister Doloretta and Sister Rosemary pose with the "star" of the Senior Class play. Sister Rosemary wears an unusual corsage that was presented to her after the final performance of the play.

Susan McCauley, John Dattilo, and Susan Schoenstein prepare to test the quality of the new breakfast food that their company, the Black Hawks, specialize in as their newest project.

The cast of the senior play "The Very Opposite Sex", get together for a group picture after the final presentation.

"But, Mr. McGovern, you mean we're really under arrest?" ask the Black Hawk Feather Co. members.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ross enjoy the gypsies' serenade at sunset. They are: Gregory Yeager, Ronald Overpeck, Michael Geyman, Linda Eaglin, Nancy Lothspeich, Jadwiga Smolarczyk, Sharon Warren, Peggy O'Dell, Donna Chesterfield, Mary Ackerman, Louis Kelly, Patricia Daun, Rinda Oak, and Cathy McCarty.

"All right, but I can't see paying a dollar to have a fortune read," says Bob Norris as he pays Peggy O'Dell the money to have Pat Daun's fortune read.

Late at night, the gypsies - Louis Kelly, Donna Chesterfield, Tom McKenna, and Peggy O'Dell - gather around the campfire to sing their mysterious songs.

Don Wolfschlag, Ruth Biere, Mary Lyn Lorton, and John Guarino place second in the Archdiocesan C. Y. O. Play Contest.

Vocation Day . . .

"I never dreamed the convent could be so much fun!" was heard more than once as Pat Daun, Sharon McLaughlin, Mary Ackerman, Susan Schoenstein, Jean Sorg, Ruth Biere, and Diane Heilman talk with the Sisters from the Ursuline Convent about vocations.

Sister Inez Marie Schafer smiles happily as she chats with her mother, Mrs. Martin Schafer, and her younger sister before the program on vocations presented by the Ursuline Sisters.

Carol Wasnok, Peggy O'Dell, Signe Thevenow, Pat McAuliffe, and Donna Chesterfield talk with some Ursuline postulants and novices on Vocation Day. The girls find that they have the wrong idea of what the life in the convent is really like.

Both Ursuline Sisters and friends had a very enjoyable afternoon at the Deanery meeting. Julia Ponce and Judy Biere discuss South American missions with two novices.

Florida Bound Seniors . . .

The food and luggage are packed. Now, find a place for thirty-one passengers in the space that is left.

Father Meny is all packed and ready to go. He is appropriately dressed for the trip to the Safari Beach Motel.

"Now, behave yourselves," says Sister Rosemary, as she gives last-minute instructions to the Seniors who are too excited to listen.

"Here we go again! Honestly, those kids are always disappearing!" exclaims Mrs. Ringwald, as Mrs. Sommers looks over all the luggage.

"Man, what a trip!" say Bill Jacobs and Dave Buchanan, while Roy Eaglin rushes around trying to find his suitcase.

Success Through Prayer . .

The boys of the 1963 graduating class march into the gym for the beginning of the Baccalaureate Mass. They are: (right to left) David Buchanan, Roy Eaglim, William Rowlett, William Jacobs, Dana Hillen, Larry Hardin, William Hertz, David Niccum, Michael Hoffman, John Dattilo, Thomas Ringwald, Michael Hill, and John Ringwald.

Father Robert Drewes, Father Raymond Boehm, Father Phillip Jones and Father Hilary Meny enter the gym to begin the Baccalaureate Mass. Father Raymond Boehm was the speaker.

Accomplishments Through Mary . . .

Susan Schoenstein, first-honor student, crowns Our Lady as Queen of the May. Jennifer Hoffman, second-honor student and crownbearer, looks on. Third-honor student, Carole Schwacke, prepares to place the golden scepter before the Blessed Virgin as a tribute of love.

Thomas Ringwald, Dana Hillen, John Ringwald, and William Hertz are the seniors carrying the Blessed Virgin to St. Patrick's Church. John Dattilo is the honor guard leading the way from school.

The senior girls carry a red rose which they place in a vase before the statue on the Blessed Virgin.

Graduating seniors pray to Mary for guidance throughout the years as they gather in St. Patrick's Church for May Crowning.

National Honor Society members pose with Reverend Hilary Meny, Superintendent, and Dr. Frank Hare, guest speaker, after induction ceremony. They are: Judy Biere, Carole Schwacke, Ruth Norris, Father Meny, Thomas McKenna, Dr. Hare, Teresa Smith, Susan Schoenstein, Mary Ackerman, Jennifer Hoffman and Susan McCauley.

Merit Brings Awards . . .

William Hertz proudly receives the Rotary Sports Award for mental attitude from Sister Rosemary on Awards Day.

Dana Hillen receives the Kiwanis Award for the Senior boy with the highest average from Mr. Raymond Sherman at the annual Awards Day Program.

Michael Hoffman, winner of the sectional and regional Knights of Columbus Oratorical Contest, receives his two trophies from Sister Rosemary.

Susan McCauley is recipient of the Col. Wm. B. Hardigg Math Medal and plaque for highest four year average in mathematics.

Mrs. Paul Scully presents the Tri-Kappa Scholarship Award to Judy Biere.

Thomas McKenna is recipient of the C. Y. O. Roger Graham Plaque awarded to the outstanding C. Y. O. member in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Sister Rosemary gives Jennifer Hoffman the Ursuline Scholastic Award for the highest accumulative scores in national tests.

Valedictorian Susan Schoenstein accepts the First-Honors Plaque from Sister Rosemary.

Determination Brings Graduation . . .

Father Omer Eisenman, pastor of St. Mary's, North Vernon; Father Richard Grogan, pastor SS. Mary-Michael Parishes; and Monsignor Galvin, Archdiocesan Superintendent of Schools, attend the Commencement Exercises.

Father Wm. J. Schmidt, S. J., President of Brebeuf Preparatory School, Indianapolis, gives the Commencement address.

Archbishop Schulte poses with Seniors after Commencement. Graduates are: Janet Bear, Mary Helen Schafer, Susan Schoenstein, Ruth Norris, Sharon McLaughlin, Jennifer Hoffman, Maureen Wolf, Teresa Smith, Judy Biere, Susan McCauley, Carole Schwacke, Julia Ponce, Delores Lee. Second row, Father Meny, David Niccum, John Dattilo, Roy Eaglin, William Hertz, Archbishop Schulte, William Rowlett, William Jacobs, David Sommer, Michael Hoffman, David Buchanan. Third row, Father Schmidt, Dana Hillen, Larry Hardin, John Ringwald, Michael Hill, Thomas Ringwald, Father Eisenman, Father Grogan.

The graduate holds the key to success . . .

For . . .

Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, domestic and social . . . in accordance with the example and teaching of Christ.

- Pius XI
