

An embossed illustration of Shawe Memorial High School. The building is a long, two-story structure with a central entrance and several windows. The text "SHAWE MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL" is embossed on the front of the building. In front of the building is a circular field, possibly a sports field or courtyard. The entire scene is rendered in a light, textured embossed style.

Foreword

Knowing that friendliness is essential to happiness, we hope that the 1966 HILL-TOPPER will inspire all those who read it to greater friendliness.

If everyone would light just one little candle of friendliness, what a warm world this would be.

The Theme

Friendliness, so characteristic of our faculty-student relations, is our theme for 1966.

Dedication

To you, Sister Xavier, we, the class of 1966, dedicate this edition of the HILLTOPPER. For all of us, this dedication is replete with significance. It is our way of expressing deepest gratitude for the role you have played in our lives. Our thanks to you for giving us our theme — FRIENDLINESS. But above all, we thank you for making friendliness not only a slogan but also a gradual realization during our treasured high school years.

School Song

Faithful and true hearted,
Let us cheer for Shawe Memorial High;
We revere her and defend her
And her colors proudly fly;
We will stand for her united,
Of her deeds we gladly tell;
Her colors streaming
Glad faces beaming —
So here's a cheer for her we love so well.

Joyous and ever loyal,
Let us boost for Shawe Memorial High;
Let every heart sing,
Let every voice ring,
There's no time to grieve or sigh;
It's ever onward,
Our course pursuing,
May our hope e'er soar on high;
But united we will boost for her
DEAR SHAWE MEMORIAL HIGH.

Academic

English Instructs Students in Every Phase of Language

Teachers and students realize the importance of communication, both written and oral, in today's fast-moving world. The four-fold English program — grammar, vocabulary, literature, and reading — fulfills this need by providing an informative well-rounded course.

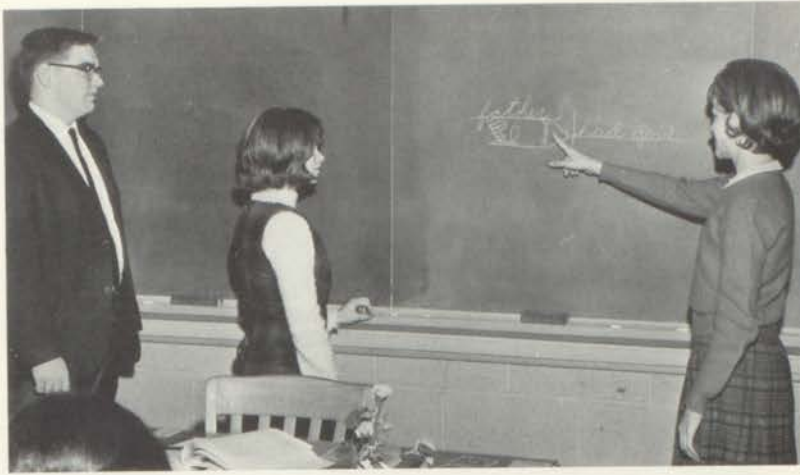

Mike Devlin prepares to analyze his English research paper under the opaque projector.

Mary Kay Dierkes, John Bornstein, Jane Kirchner, and Ann Niesse delve into the works of Tennyson in literature.

Jackie Heitz instructs Millie Aich in the diagramming of a simple sentence containing a compound subject.

Mastery of Words Develops Speech and Writing

Denny Clerkin discusses the meaning of a three-syllable word with Marie Vogel.

Juniors Mike King, Theresa Vogel, and Doris Zollman are pleased with the number of passed book tests on their cards.

Literary Masters Bring Life to Freshman English

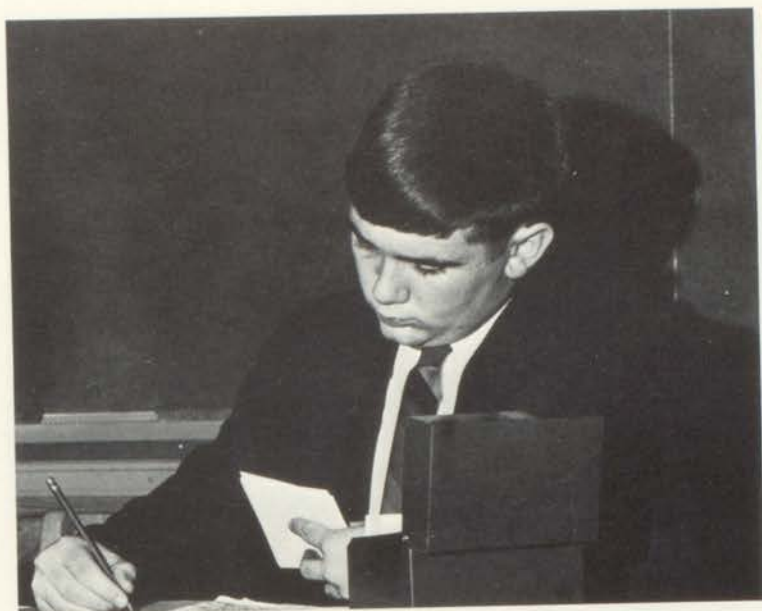

"For a light wife doth make a heavy husband," quotes an amused Kathy Hooton to avid Shakespeare fans Ronald Rietman and Judy Twitchell.

In freshman English Robert McGill outlines the climatic build-up of "The Necklace" for Debbie Thorpe.

Communication students Richard Leahigh, Carolyn Hemmer, Chris Seiner listen attentively as George Altepeter clarifies a tough passage.

Preparing for a fiery debate, Rob Barlow takes notes on the constructive speech of the opposing debate team.

Speech, Debate Aim at Expressive Communication

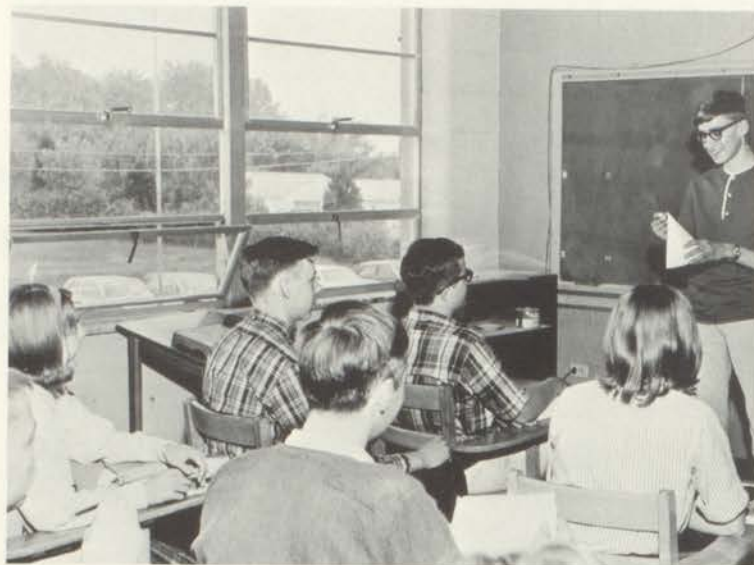

"How's that?" asked speech student Dan Keyser as he finishes his oration.

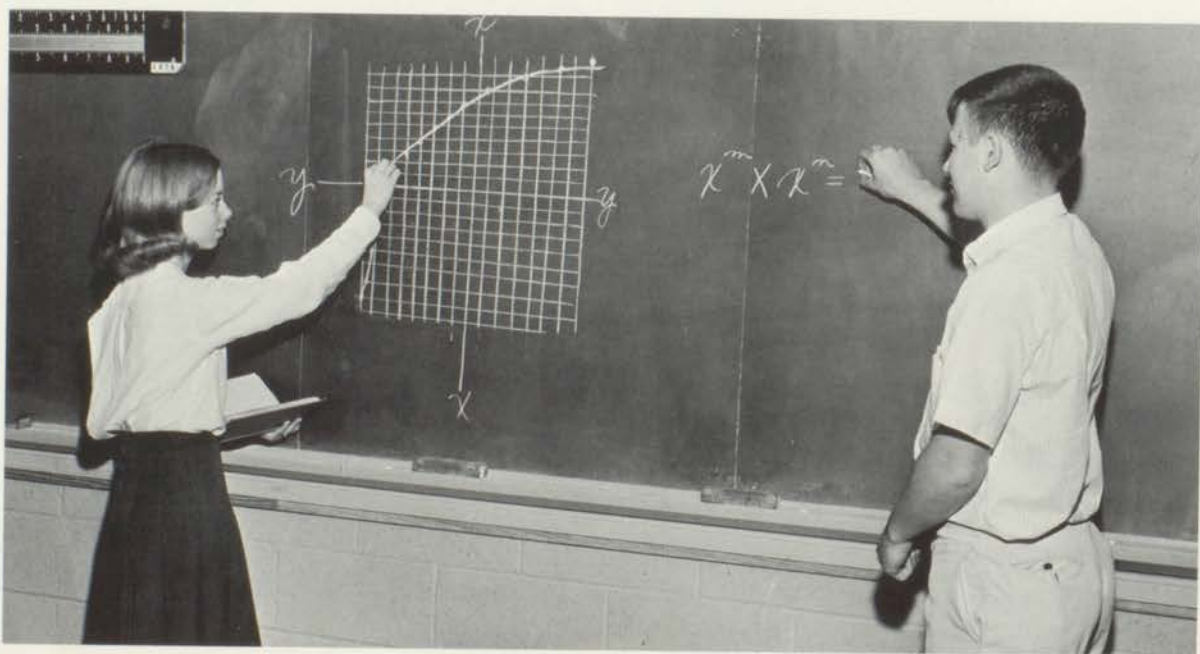

Terry Schlick tests the tape recorder by crooning the Beatles' latest hit. Manipulator Judy Sommer is unperturbed.

In the various mathematics classes students learn both fundamental and advanced phases of numbers. This study trains students to reason better and to be more exact. For those planning a career in mathematics, it is the beginning of a challenge to be met in college years.

Larry Framme points out the apex of a cone in his demonstration during solid geometry class.

Math Tests Students' Comprehension

Michele Fondiller connects the points on her graph as Mike Schafer begins to solve the corresponding equation.

Freshmen Patty Moorman, Joe Shipley, Patty Barber, and Tony Craig prove their knowledge of algebra by factoring equations.

"Walk softly and carry a big protractor," believes Mary Maude Barber. Eddie Koczergo hopes he draws his figure correctly, so she won't have a chance to use it.

Numbers, Figures Uncover Mathematical Ability

Jeannie Horton, Karen Hill, Carolyn Hoffman, and George Klein are diligently constructing figures during the plane geometry class.

Willing attention is given by Steve Horton and Mike Moore as Sister Patrick explains the spectrum in physics class.

Physical Sciences Stimulate Student Curiosity

Weight is no problem for Donna Lorton as she checks the weight of a liquid in milligrams during physics class.

The wave lengths indicate a rather squeaky voice as Steve Horton records Mike Moore's voice on the oscillator.

Mr. Lee, biology instructor, focuses the cross-section of a woody stem on the micro-projector.

Joe Kelley, Shawe biology student, reads a report under the watchful guidance of a plastic eye.

Fascination of Life Unfolds

Rose Schafer and Sue Deveyary assist "Dr." Karen Hill as she makes a delicate incision on an earthworm.

Father Drewes makes his view known as he and Mr. Dwyer engage in a "friendly" discussion of the Civil Rights Act.

Controversy Over Current Affairs

Jane York tells Theresa Gobel, Beth Bond, and David Wolf how the federal government plans its budget concerning the war in Viet Nam.

Tony Eder disagrees with Father Drewes on the Viet Nam question brought up by Steve Kelly.

Instigates Civic Action

Mike Kirchner, Margaret Kelly, and Libby Datillo enter into a friendly argument over the geographic position of Estonia.

Linda Leahigh and Georgellen Kelly leaf through the pages of history in quest of material for their term papers.

With an "eagle eye", Father Kadel watches Lynn Cheatham and Shara Hagan conjugate some words from their favorite language — Latin.

Languages Give Insight into Culture

The fast-moving pace of today's world necessitates a better understanding of the languages and cultures of other nations.

Laying the foundations for their pursuit of the Romance languages, freshmen and sophomores study Latin vocabulary and conjugations.

French and Spanish students grope for an understanding of foreign people by studying their cultures.

Pues . . . Asi es la vida — dice la señorita Susita Schafer.

Van Harrison amuses Theresa Vogel and Bob Wolf as he struggles to get a true French sound.

Jane Biron and Mike Devlin listen attentively (?) as Bob Scully reads a passage in French.

In Latin II Jo Norris and Dan Devlin discuss the construction of Roman Roads.

Classes in French, Spanish Prove Interesting as Well as Educational

The Spanish II students, Susan VandeWater, Martha Hock, Jerry Lopez, and David Wolf improve pronunciation by listening to Spanish tapes.

By utilizing folk Masses and studies of comparative religions, the religion classes imbue the students with the rhythm of modern ecumenical spirit of the Church. The deeper understanding of God and his teachings pervades the modern Catholic with an increased interest in his religion.

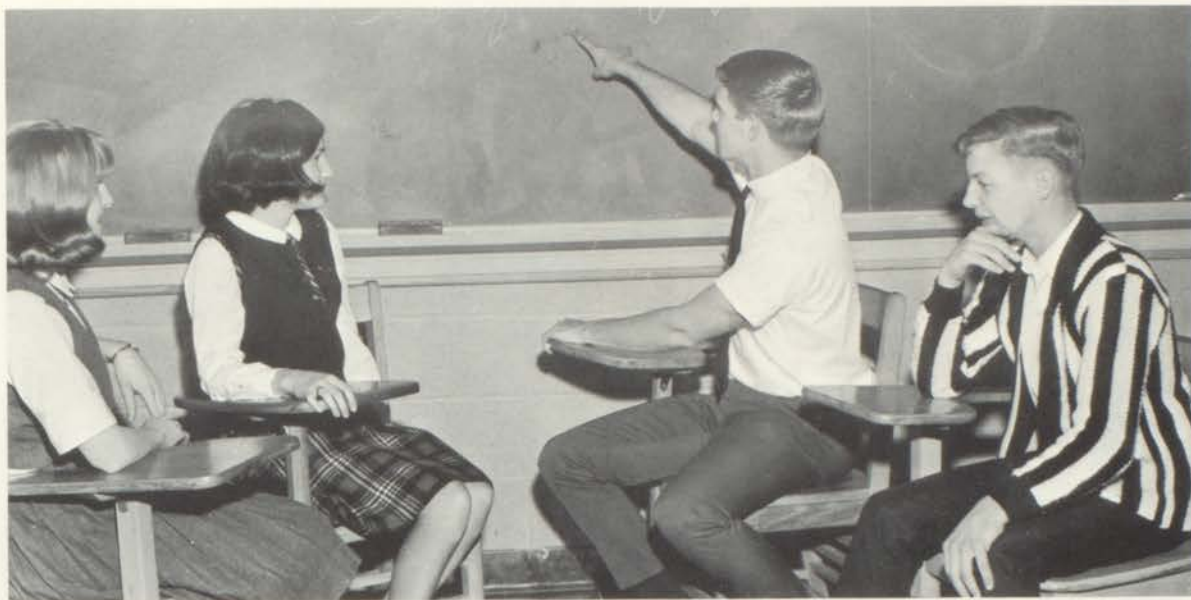

Religion instructors Fr. Kadel and Fr. Buchanan are fascinated by the "sole" of Fr. Drewes.

Religion Balances Students' Education

Jo Norris and Susan Hill, as opposed to Father Kadel, find nothing amusing in Chuck Hirtzel's views on the role of women in the clergy.

Mark Breitenbach and Tom Hendricks are preparing Biblical research for their Religion I class.

During the marriage course, Bob Grimes points out to Sarah McCauley and Jane Kirchner the astounding fact that 50% of married people are women.

by Merging Religion and Practical Living

Kathy Hoffman, Mike Schaum, and Harold Eder take part in the Holy Mass during the junior religion class.

Taking an active part in the new liturgy, Linda Schultz and Michele Fondiller take the offering to the altar.

Shawe's "Michaelangelo," Bobby Grimes, is working for a change on one of his many masterpieces.

An Engaging Study of Art

Maria Carr, a junior, is admiring some posters done by fellow art students.

and Experiment

A talented student, Georgellen Kelly, paints a firebird for her art project.

In Advanced Art Class Sister Benedicta indicates an improvement to be made on David Wolf's woodcarving project.

Mondrian's "Broadway Boogie Woogie" fascinates Judy Wollenman and Paul Sommer.

in Personal Style Inspire Creativity

A section of the art appreciation class experiments with chalk to learn the values of colors.

Sister Roch smiles her encouragement as she helps Patty Steinhardt to reset her margins correctly.

Commercial Classes Drill and Prepare

Seniors Yolanda Yeager and Beverly Wolf work towards speedy, legible shorthand notes.

Jane York works painstakingly to recover the loss of $525.00 which she needs to balance her books.

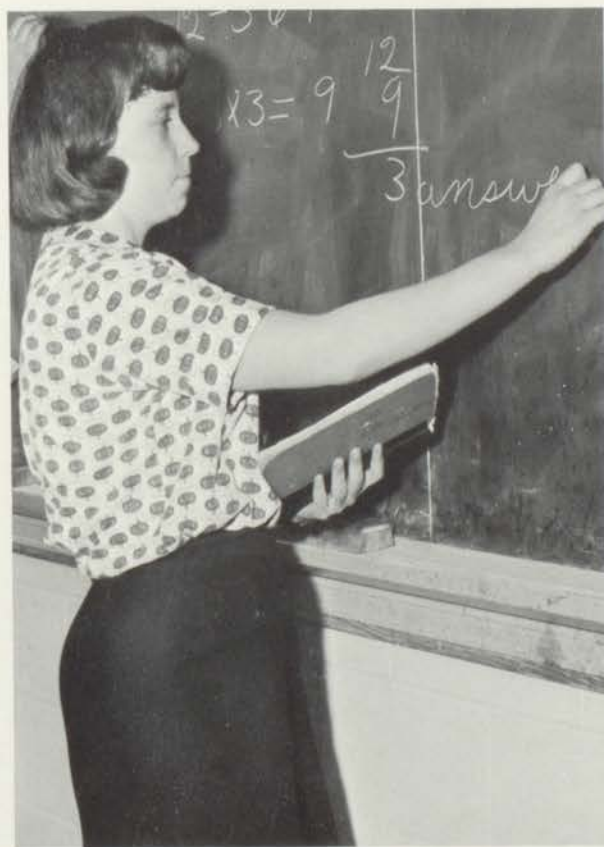

Linda Barnes sends a knowing glance towards Janet Chandler, who is smugly contented with her timed typing test.

Students for Future Business Careers

"This must be right!" Debbie Lehnert thinks as she finishes her general math problem.

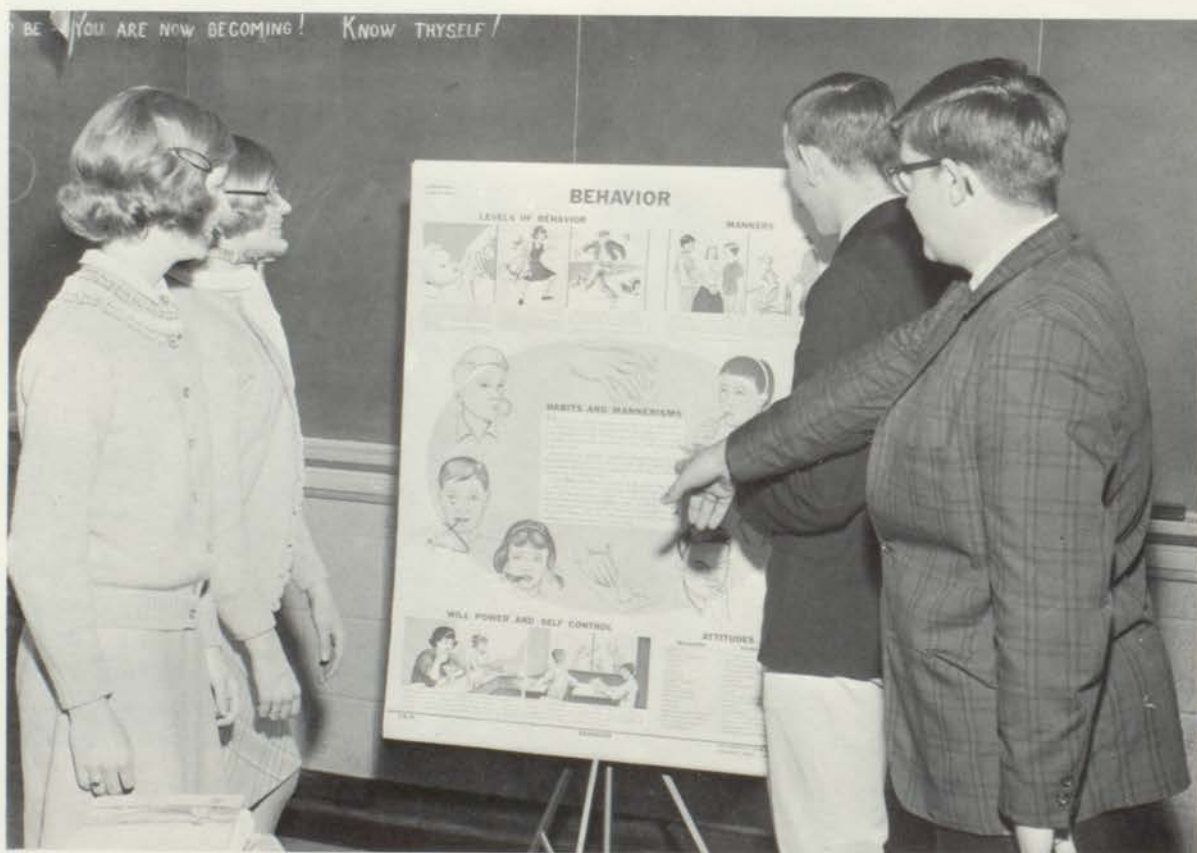

A future secretary, Janet Chandler, concentrates on dictation in Shorthand I class.

If determination is really the key to success, then Cindy Geyman has her driver's license in the bag.

Aspects of Safe Driving with Emotional Habits Supplement the Students' Education

Dickie Wolf points out an important point of behavior to Barb Schwacke, Karen Kasper, and Tom Eder.

The Coach Contributes That Extra Push

Mr. Dwyer shows anything but pleasure at the call by a referee who has obviously mistaken a Shawe player for an erring opponent.

Although Coach Dwyer seems to be disagreeing, he is really giving his Hilltoppers needed encouragement.

Bob Wolf outwits his man and is open for an easy score.

Tim Hoffman sails high for an easy basket while a Silver Creek player anticipates a collision.

Mike Ackerman has his man so well covered that there's no chance of an opposing score.

Competition Sharpens Class Spirit

Junior Harold Eder lays in another easy one against the seniors.

Tom Hoffman glides to another two-pointer for the freshman team.

Work Well Done Earns Praise

Bob Wolf gathers up a loose ball, but is surrounded by Henryville foes. Dick Lopez waits anxiously nearby for a quick pass.

Sectional action finds Tim Hoffman and a Charlestown player both losing this loose ball as it flies out of bounds.

Team Reveals Spirit and Teamwork

Mike Ackerman decides that now is the time to get rid of the ball.

Sophomore Dick Lopez finds that his close-in range is accurate as he lays in this basket.

Larry Dierkes battles with a Deputy player in trying to soften the Panther's scoring punch.

Stamina Pays Off

The junior varsity had good reason to perform well with these girls cheering them on. They are: Ann Bertram, Connie Sommer, Suzanne Lopez, and Jill York.

"Jolly good show, old chap," exult Jill York and Cindy Geyman.

Herein Lies That Impelling Force

"Well, it looks like Shawe has another commanding lead!" say confident members of the cheer block as they give strong support.

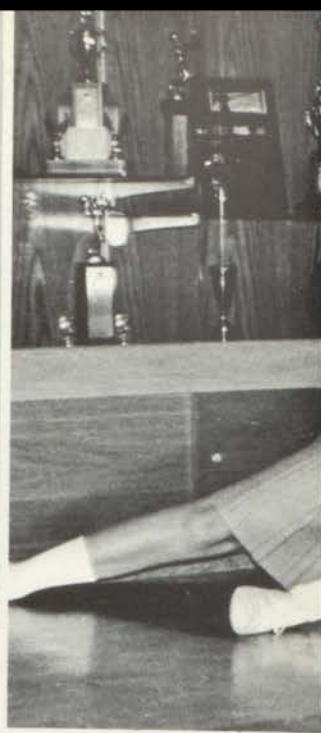

Shawe's highly regarded cheerblock shows mixed emotions in an exciting sectional contest.

That Urged the Team Onward

Fight! Fight! Fight! yell Shawe's peppy varsity cheerleaders Dianne Hill, Brenda Seibert, Karol Goley, Susan Vandewater, Susie Schafer, and Janet Dierkes.

Patricia Ferguson sits royally amidst her court after she has been crowned Miss Hilltopper for 1966.

With a bench like this – Dale Hierlmeier, Rob Barlow, Andy Guarino, Jim Hendrick, and John Shelton – how could our baseball team lose?

Talent Shows on Field and Bench

Tim Hoffman hurls another strike against worthy opposition.

Baseball Team Shows Many Strong Points

From his coaching box, Mr. Lee relays his strategy to the players.

Tracksters Demonstrate Agility

Omer Gerth, Shawe's star shot putter, heaves the shot towards another school record.

Bernie Ringwald clears the high jump bar with a graceful form all his own.

Shawe was the area's top tennis team because of the admirable effort of these boys: Harold Eder, Tom Eder, Dale Hierlmeier, and Bernie Ringwald.

Senior Jerry Lopez very often needed no more than this one putt to reach the hole.

Jerry Lopez seems to want this putt very badly, but Rob Barlow, Dick Lopez, and Chris Hawk have their doubts.

Golf Has Its Greatest Year

Mr. Dwyer leads the golf team to one of its many victories. They are: Bob Wolf, Chris Hawk, Art Daun, Jerry Lopez, Rob Barlow, Tom Thorpe, and Dick Lopez.

Activities

The girls sing for the junior Mass. Hey! Mike, how did you get in there?

Father Feldpausch blesses the school rings before distribution.

Juniors Are Receptive

Receiving Communion is the fulfillment of the Mass.

On Parents' Night everyone is an "A" student.

School Is More Than Classes

Talk about white collar jobs . . . Mike Schaum finds it isn't all behind a desk.

Mike Schafer and Larry Framme perform the hidden duties of a Junior Dinner.

Dianne Hill and Omer Gerth crown the 1966 Christmas Dance king and queen, Jane York and Andy Guarino.

The Season Diffuses Its Spirit Throughout School

Freshman Margaret Kelly seems to have the Christmas spirit as she decorates her homeroom door.

Student Council members Rob Barlow and Karol Goley decorate for Christmas.

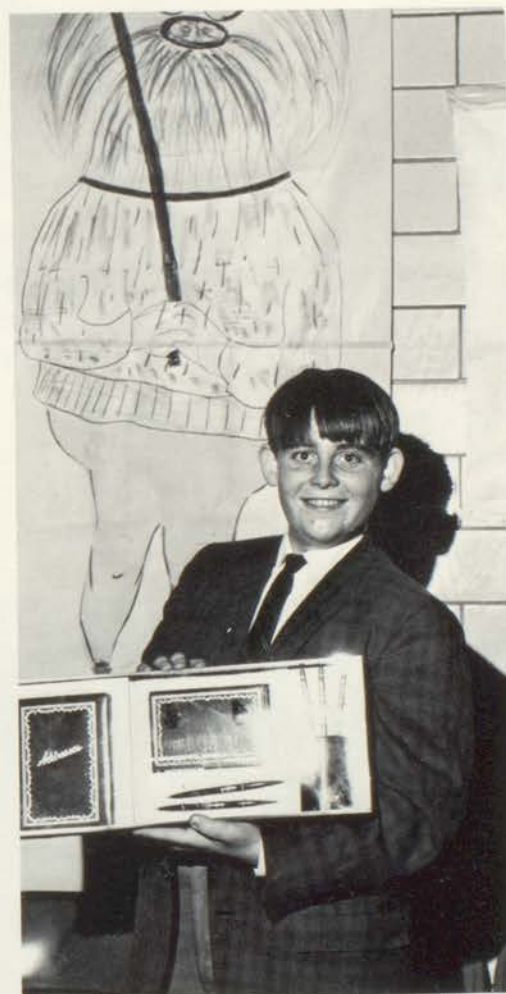

Is Dick WandeWater a thief or is Tony Sorg good enough to give him the shirt off his back?

Tom Kelly and Tom Hendrick are Shawe's version of the Beatles?

With the door prize he won, Richard Leahigh is sure to come up with some real "long-hair" poetry.

Scholars Often Digress From School Routine

Initiation Orientates The New Students

Tom Hoffman helps Karen Kasper start her high school career fashionably with a new "coiffure."

Come now, Cindy Geyman, was initiation that bad?

We know you like to eat, Tom Eder, but you'll get more in your mouth if you use a spoon!

Cheerful chore girls, Theresa Vogel, Veronika Koczergo, Pat Ferguson, Linda Leahigh, and Georgellen Kelly learn the tricks of cleaning a table.

Students Enjoy Extracurricular Affairs

What kind of deal is this? Just a small scene on Parents' Night.

Brenda Seibert and Karol Goley "flip" over Parents' Night.

Memories
of an Enchanting
Evening
Linger

Reigning over the Prom are Dianne Hill and Jerry Lopez. They were crowned by Brenda Seibert and Kathy Guarino. Other candidates were Mike Moore, Mary Jane Breitenbach, Patty Steinhardt, and Omer Gerth.

The Junior-Senior Prom theme, "Tender is the Night," is highlighted by the Grand March.

Enduring and Reminscent

Larry Framme, as well as many others, spent long hours in preparation for the Prom.

The cast of "Antigone," a one-act play directed by Mr. Cancilla, consisted of Terry Schlick, Larry Framme, Carter Thevenow, Brenda Seibert, Art Daun, Michele Fondiller, Mary Jane Breitenbach, Eddie Kozcergo, Maurice Hoffman, and Dan Keyser.

Karen Hill experiences a hair-raising ordeal at the Atomic Energy display.

Seniors, Jerry Lopez, Jane York, and Jane Kirchner share a joke as they decorate their homeroom.

Students Engage in Fun-filled Hours

Wintertime isn't all work for Tom Thorpe, Dianne Hill, and Bob Wolf.

Debate Is an Intellectual Challenge

Publicity Is Often Trying

Co-editors of the VERDORO, Pat Ferguson and Joanne Stucker, work on the next issue of the paper.

Father William Blackwell, speaker for the Baccalaureate Mass, and Father Feldpausch make their entrance for the liturgical service.

Ceremonies Bring Year to Its Finale

The senior class circles the altar of sacrifice during the Baccalaureate Mass.

Bob Scully and Tony Eder walk up the aisle to take their places during graduation ceremonies.

Tony Craig and Bill Schafer make a clean sweep while Sue Deveary and Rose Schafer wash windows.

Shaweans Support Clean-up, Fix-up Week

Freshmen take advantage of the clean-up day sponsored by the student council.

Would you believe Steve Horton is working? Yes, he really is helping the senior project along by painting the chapel ceiling.

---

We, the staff of the 1966 HILLTOPPER, wish to thank all those who made this edition possible.

First, we thank the faculty who were so patient and understanding when we interrupted their classes.

Next, we extend thanks to the patrons whose support enabled us to finance this book.

Also to the students who made this book a success by their cheerful co-operation, we express our gratitude.

Thank You
