Sophomore girls paint the new three-point line that was put into effect for the first time this year.

There have been many families pass through Shawe over the years, like the Torlines, Ringwalds, and Hills. But there are many families with kids still here, like the Schafers, Dattilos, Heitz's, Prosts, Oeffingers, Retzners and Barrons, just to name a few.

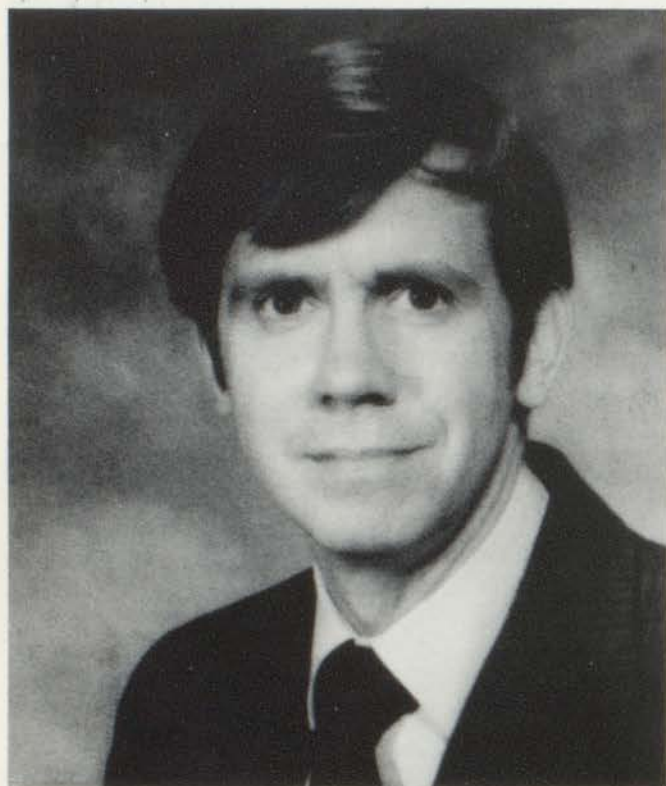

Probably as long as this school exists, there will always be that special family feeling that is nearly impossible to find anywhere else.

Administrators Tackle the Tough Jobs

Mr. Arthur Politz, principal of the school.

Mr. Allen Boedecker thinks he's posing for G.Q.

Mrs. Carolyn Pagel saying, "If you take my picture, you'll be sorry."

Mrs. Sieglinde Morrellion cleaning with a smile.

Mrs. Karin Krasevac-Lenz has fun collecting money for Shawe.

Mr. Charlie Meisberger hard at work.

Mrs. Peggy Shuler keeping the books straight.

The administration has many responsibilities that people are not aware of. Mr. Arthur Politz, principal, deals with irate parents and teachers. He negotiates conflicting interests within the school community and he gives out detentions to unwary students who commit crimes like standing in the hallway or walking on the grass.

Mr. Allen Boedecker, director of religious education, is in charge of confirmation, senior retreat, Sunday religious education, school mass, and other aspects dealing with religious education in the school.

Mrs. Karin Krasevac-Lenz is the director of Friends of Shawe and Pope John, a new organization founded in 1987 to collect contributions from Shawe alumni and school supporters. Friends kicked off its fund raising campaign November 14 with initial gifts totaling $60,000. By February the group was able to announce gifts and pledges totaling $330,628 toward a goal of $500,000.

Mrs. Carolyn Pagel is the school secretary and bookkeeper. She is always hard at work keeping track of absentees, doing school paperwork, answering the phone, and keeping the books.

Mrs. Sieglinde Morrellion is in charge of keeping the school clean and neat. She is hard at work all day and after everyone leaves school.

Mr. Charlie Meisberger is in charge of keeping the school grounds neat and trimmed. He also drives the van from Switzerland County.

Mr. Pat Rorie takes care of leaking ceilings and pipes. He is also seen doing miscellaneous things around school.

Mrs. Peggy Shuler is librarian for Shawe and Pope John Schools. She takes care of all the information and audio-visual equipment in the library.

The administration does many thankless jobs for the school and if they weren't as dedicated, the school wouldn't be as nice as it is.

Mr. Pat Rorie fixing the ceiling.

New and Different Faces

There were 16 new students including high school and junior high. There were three new seniors: Jason Shelley, Wes McAdams and West German foreign exchange student Simone Staudenmayer. In the Junior Class were Jeanne Tatman, Holly Carver, Ric Weldon and Douglas Lubbe. Sophomores included Lee Green, Brian Furnish and Stephanie Townsend, while the Freshman Class gained Bobbe Jo Sage, Wendy Center and Joanne Booth. The junior high had an addition of three new students, Paul Booth, Jerry Tatman, and Brian Dalgleish.

When asked why she came to Shawe, Holly Carver said, "It was my choice. I came here because the school was smaller and you can get more help from teachers." Also when asked about the dress code and what she would want changed, she said, "I would like to be able to wear sweatpants and half shirts."

The overall opinion of the new students was that they came to Shawe because of the size and the closeness between the students.

Exchange student Simone Staudenmayer has made her home with Dr. and Mrs. Mel Skiles. She is a native of West Germany.

Sophomore Lee Green made a significant contribution to the varsity basketball team during his first year at Shawe.

Seniors Have New Experience

On April 5 at 8:15 a.m. the Senior Class left on its final retreat as a class. They were headed to the Beech Grove Benedictine Center. The class learned to respect people for what they are. The class was accompanied by Father William Turner, Mrs. Mary Boedecker, Mr. Allen Boedecker, Mrs. Sharon Horton and Mr. Dave Royalty.

As the seniors prepare to leave, they take time to sign each other's posters.

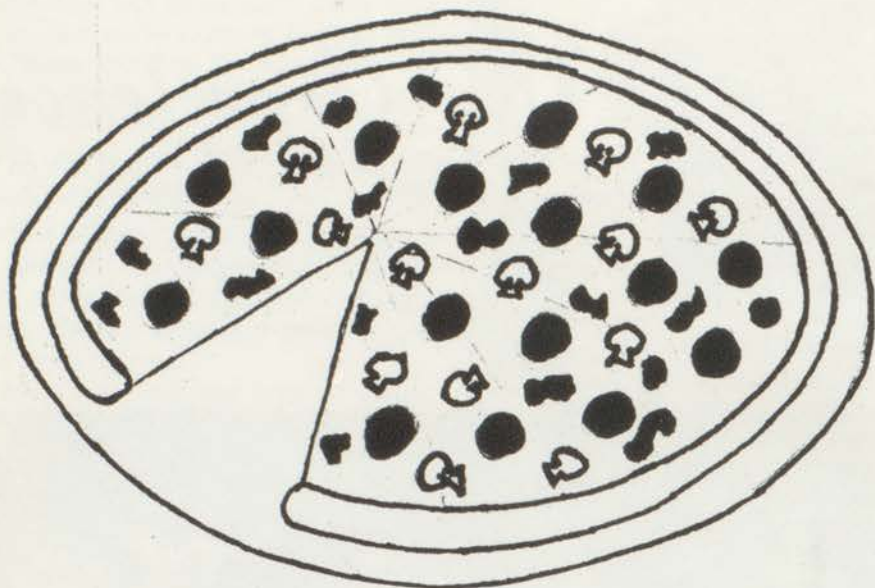

Mrs. Horton takes time out to smile.

Making Education Possible

Striving to become a well educated person seems to be what every student at the school wishes. The fourteen well qualified teachers strongly encourage the students to reach their potential and prepare them for their college studies.

A total of 47 courses are offered at the junior high and high school. Other courses, such as physics and Spanish, may be taken at Madison Consolidated High School. The following is a list of the teachers, their academic achievements, and the courses they teach at the school.

Karen Adkins has earned a B.S. at Indiana State University and an M.A. at Indiana University Southeast. She teaches freshman, junior and senior English, speech and creative writing.

Maria Armbrecht has earned an M.S. at Indiana University and a B.S. at Marian College in Indiana. She teaches basic science, junior high computers, biology and chemistry.

Mary Boedeker has earned a B.S. at the University of Missouri and an A.D. at Paul VI Institute for Catechetical and Pastoral Studies in St. Louis. She teaches junior high and junior religion.

Louann Center has earned a B.A. at Hanover College and an M.S. at Indiana University Southeast. She teaches computers, beginning accounting, advanced accounting, typing and consumer math.

Lynn Chattin has earned a B.S. at Middle Tennessee State University and an M.A. at Appalachian State University in North Carolina. She teaches seventh and eighth grade science and literature.

Glenda Elam has earned a B.S. at Austin Peay State University, and an M.M.E. at Austin Peay State University. She teaches junior high and high school band.

Sister Thomasita Hayes has earned a B.S. at Ursuline College in Louisville and an M.S. at Notre Dame University. She teaches basic algebra, algebra I, algebra II, geometry, trigonometry and calculus.

Laura Hodges has earned a B.A. at Hanover College.

Sharon Horton has earned a B.S. at Indiana University, an M.S. at Indiana University and is currently working on another M.S. at Spalding University. She teaches world history, United States government, economics, sociology and psychology.

Glenn Petty has earned a B.S. at Butler University, an M.A. at St. Francis in Fort Wayne, and is currently working on an E.D.S. at Ball State University. He teaches freshman physical education, junior high physical education and health.

Aline Schafer has earned a B.S. at Ball State University and an M.S. at Indiana University. She teaches freshman, sophomore, junior and senior French, and junior high religion.

Beth Steinert has earned a B.A. at Alma College in Michigan, an M.S. at Indiana University Southeast, a reading endorsement for grades kindergarten through senior, graduate work in geography at Michigan State University, and is currently working to become a specialist in middle school social studies. She teaches junior high mathematics and social studies, and high school global studies.

Reverend William Turner has earned a B.A. at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., and an M.D.U. at St. Meinrad College in Indiana. He teaches freshman, sophomore, and senior religion.

Carole Williams has earned a B.A. at the University of Evansville in Indiana, and an M.S. at Indiana University. She teaches junior high art, high school art, and sophomore English.

ISTEP: The Pressure Is ON!!

Academics have been enhanced by a new mandatory test called the "Indiana Statewide Testing for Educational Progress" (ISTEP). ISTEP was enacted by the state legislature of Indiana. This test was given to students in grades one, two, three, six, eight, nine and eleven. Used to show achievement and aptitude, the test covered areas like reading, math, spelling, writing and comprehension. If a student scored below a certain percentage he was required to take the courses failed in summer school. The test, given in segments totalling six to seven hours, was given in all Indiana schools March 1-11.

We Be Jammin'

The band had many accomplishments this year. They participated in many activities, such as the fall, Christmas and spring concerts. The band also entered numerous competitions. These included the CYO and District Competitions. The band even had one player, Dan Dattilo, go all the way to State with a trumpet solo, a great achievement.

Band members finished the year with a concert and banquet on May 10.

Hark! It's #1 trumpet player Danny Dattilo.

Are we ready or what?

Seniors: Leaders of Tomorrow

Class Officers: Don Prast, President; Robbie Schafer, Vice President; Mike Johnston, Secretary/Treasurer; and Class Representatives, John Craig and Arlene Dirksen.

This Senior class thought itself to be unique. With their personalities, talents, and ideas, the class members worked to function as one. Mrs. Sharon Horton, sponsor of the Senior class stated, "We expect great achievements from all of the members of this year's Senior class, as each fulfills his or her unique talents, whether this encompasses cognitive, artistic, creative, musical or nurturing capabilities. The life goals of the 27 members of the class of 1988 hold potential for greatness."

Senior Arlene Dirksen said, "I hope what I have to say will agree with my fellow classmates. We will always treasure what has been given and received between us and we will use these treasures to remember what we are leaving behind and what we take with us."

Fashion and Fad

Many of the students are making fashion statements. The way they dress, the way they hold themselves, are all part of fashion, but what about fads? Do fads exist within the halls and classrooms?

Certainly, fads exist. Fads include the way students roll up their jeans, the floppy socks that they wear. Fads aren't just clothing styles that are in for awhile then are out, but fads are styles that include the way the students fix their hair. The guys are getting their heads buzzed and using gel and mousse to style their hair. Among the girls the crimper is one of the hottest new wave hair styles. Also the benders, which are curling rods that bend and curl the hair all over.

Fashions that exist among the guys are wearing their tennis shoes untied with their blue jeans tucked in, 501 Levis and rugby shirts. Girls are wearing big sweaters with a turtle neck underneath, and their Guess blue jeans with the eastlands.

The answer to the question is yes, the students are into fashion and are just a bunch of young faddists among the halls and classrooms of Shawe.

Sophomores Get Involved

The Sophomore Class was very active this year. Every person participated in extracurricular activities such as basketball, cross country, or Pep Club, to name a few. The class also went on a trip to the Keys in Florida, making it the fourth year the biology class has gone on the trip. This year was no exception to any other, because everyone had a great time on the trip.

Freshmen Answer Questions

The Freshman Class was asked some general questions about school life and life in general.

One question was, "What do you like most about Shawe High School?" Jennifer Smith said she liked the small size and the fact that a student can get to know everybody. Denny Potter and Angie Schafer said that they liked the fact that since Shawe is so small people normally don't get cut from sport teams.

When asked, "Who is your hero in life?", David Kalb said that Charles Barkley was his hero, Denny Potter said Ozzie Smith was his, and Matt Prost said Ric Weldon was his hero.

When asked, "What is your favorite eating establishment?", Eric Armbrecht said Taco Bell and David Kalb said that Sizzler was his favorite.

Eighth Graders on the Move

The eighth grade has been busy this year with many activities. Sports, school work, and a trip to St. Louis were some of the things that kept the class on the go. Some fund raisers for the St. Louis trip included a successful chili supper, bingo, car wash and a raffle.

A special bond was held in this class. Out of the 17 students, only four were girls. This allowed the four girls to be quite close. Favorite times of the school day were noted as gym and lunch. When an eighth grader was asked what the highlight of the year was, she responded, "Knowing that I am going to be a freshman next year."

Seventh Grade Adjusts to Shawe

In their own opinion, seventh graders have a hard time adjusting to the new school, the high school students and the teachers.

In Pope John last year, the seventh graders were used to being treated equally by all their fellow classmates and by the teachers. When the newly enrolled seventh graders came to this school, they found that they would receive a lot less attention from the upperclassmen and from the teachers as well.

The teachers in junior high were Mrs. Beth Steinert and Mrs. Lynn Chattin. They have been doing the best they can in welcoming the seventh graders and eighth graders.

Holding Our Own

The athletic part of Shawe is important to the students in different ways. According to Mr. Glenn Petty, athletic director, "Sports are important, because they give students a chance to relieve tension through the physical activity. It also improves public relations and gives the school public exposure." It was also stated by Byron Petty, "Sports can be recreational and leave off pressure. It also gives the school a way to stick out in the crowd, not just in academics."

In the Ohio River Valley Conference there are six high schools. They include Milan, which has 323 students; Jac-Cen-Del, 281; Rising Sun, 282; South Ripley, 412; Southwestern, 459; Switzerland County, 405; and Shawe, 81. Although other schools may be triple Shawe in size, Senior Chris Oeffinger stated, "our school has always held its own."

Tennis Team Gains Experience

With only two returning players, Senior Tim Thomas and Junior Kevin Jacob, the tennis team began a rebuilding program.

"Given the circumstances, it was a very successful season. We had one of the most inexperienced teams in the state. But despite our inexperience, everyone had wins during the season," stated Coach Art Suchocki, who coached for the third year.

Playing singles for the first time in his career, Jacob compiled a winning record in the number two position. Thomas played number one and newcomer Eric Armbrecht number three in the singles matches.

Doubles players were Eddie Hunger, Wes McAdams, Brian Furnish, Michael Whitham, and Chris Harris.

In the ORVC Individual Events Tourney, Shawe defeated Milan 3-2, but later lost 5-0 to Southwestern. Shawe was knocked out of the Sectional by Austin.

Coach Suchocki felt that each member of the team made positive contributions. At season's end he awarded Thomas the coach's award, Jacob the most valuable player award, and Armbrecht the winner's trophy for the best individual record.

Looking at the players Shawe has moving up the ranks he predicted, "In about three years we'll be Sectional material."

Team members were (front) Chris Harris, Brian Furnish, Mike Whitham, Eric Armbrecht, (back) Coach Art Suchocki, Tim Thomas, Kevin Jacob, Wes McAdams, and Eddie Hunger.

Senior Tim Thomas was the most experienced team member.

Junior Kevin Jacob was named the team's most valuable player.

Cross Country Team Young But Successful

Although cross country was quite new for most of the runners, they found it to be rewarding in the long run. This season was also a new experience for the coach, Gary Armbrecht, a strong supporter and dedicated junior varsity basketball coach. Mr. Armbrecht was inexperienced in coaching cross country, but proved to be the person for the job.

This season was a building season for the runners. The two senior runners, Len Dattilo and Don Prost, were instrumental in recruiting runners to form a competitive team.

Shawe placed 11th in the sectional, a considerable improvement over the prior year's 64th place finish. Len Dattilo was 15th with a time of 17:40. Don Prost was 53rd in 18:42, Chad Miller was 65th in 19:13, Steve Dattilo was 67th in 19:13 and Harry Fraley finished 76th in 20:04.

The most valuable runner of the season was Len Dattilo, while the most improved runner was Chad Miller.

Seniors Don Prost and Len Dattilo lead the race for Shawe.

Volleyball Team Gets Better

The Lady Hilltoppers, coached by Joyce Bickers, ended a 6-17 season with a heartbreaking loss to Jennings County in the sectional.

Both the varsity and junior varsity worked hard, beginning the season with conditioning in early August. Practice focused on both individual and team skills.

One highlight of the season was the Sept. 24 defeat of Southwestern in a 5-15, 15-7, and 15-12 match. At the Madison Invitational near the beginning of the season, the team lost to Madison and beat Southwestern and South Ripley. Although Shawe was defeated by Southwestern in the first round of the Ohio River Valley Conference Tournament, Colleen McCarthy was selected by area sportswriters and broadcasters to be on the All-Tournament team.

Coach Bickers, who was in her first season as volleyball coach herself, anticipates a more experienced team next season.

Junior varsity team members were Jodi Cooke, Julie Armstrong, Jennifer Smith, Vicky Dahlem, Colene Barlow, Angi Schafer, Angie Schafer, Melissa Worcester and Jeanne Tatman.

Angi Schafer, Julie Armstrong, and Angie Schafer are stretching before a junior varsity game.

Sometimes "giving your all" means hitting the floor.

Skiles Gets Sectional Win

The girls swim team had a successful season, having a first place winner in the Columbus North Sectional. This is the first year the school qualified for competition in a sporting event at the state level.

This year the team had two scheduled tri-meets. Shawe placed first in the tri-meet with Southwestern and Providence and second in the tri-meet with Milan and Southwestern. As preparation for the sectional the swimmers were able to swim individual events against Madison, Seymour, Lawrenceburg and South Dearborn.

At the sectional Kristina Skiles placed first in the 200 yard individual medley and third in the 100 yard freestyle. Anna Wolschlag placed seventh in the 200 yard freestyle and eighth in the 500 yard freestyle, and the relay team of Jodi Cooke, Simone Staudenmayer, Skiles, Wolschlag placed seventh in the 200 yard medley.

Coach Sandi Skiles and assistant coach Lynne Tereshko hope to improve, or at least maintain the team's level of success for next year. Coach Skiles said, "I hope that this year's success will generate enough enthusiasm to encourage more girls to participate."

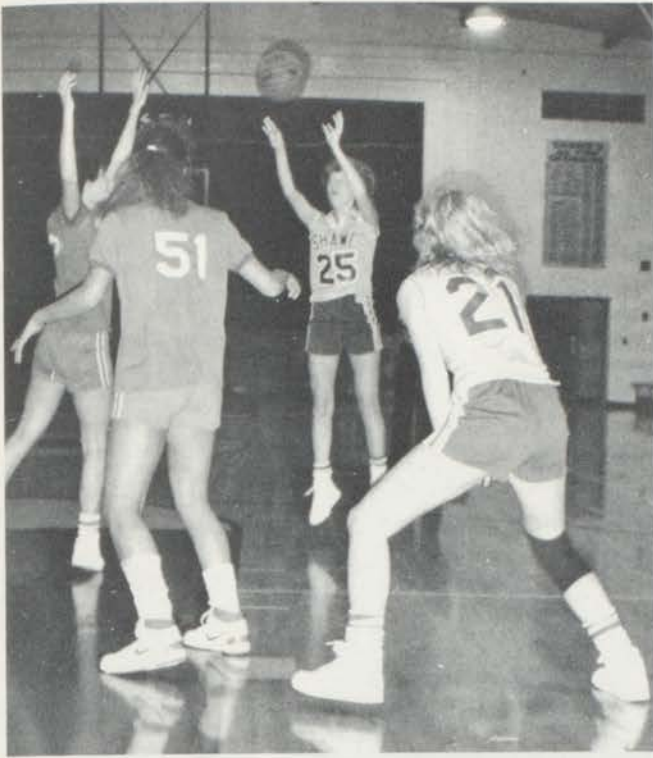

The swim team includes (front) Kristina Skiles, Jodi Cooke, (back) Anna Wolschlag and Simone Staudenmayer.

Strong Defense Leads To 4-1 Record!

"They surprised even me!", said Coach Bob Pratt, when asked about his team's season. The Junior Varsity team consisted of only seven players, Freshmen Wendy Center, Vicki Dahlem, and Kim Oeffinger, Sophomores Angie Schafer, Kristina Skiles, and Missy Worcester and Junior Kelly Geyman.

The team just got organized after Christmas break due to the fact that some of the players were sick or injured earlier in the season. In spite of that, the Junior Varsity team played strong defense and achieved a proud record of 4-1. Coach Pratt feels that the players showed a lot of desire and the will to win, and said that it would have been interesting to see how the team would have done if they had played a full schedule. Coach Jim Barnes thinks that some of the girls that played Junior Varsity will be key players for the Varsity team next season.

Here's One For The Record Book!

The whistle blew and the foul was called on Missy Worcester, her fifth foul. Having only four players the team had to contend with the aggressive Rising Sun team with all five of its starters plus three substitutes.

Given encouragement by Coaches Jim Barnes and Bob Pratt, the four remaining girls were sparked and played their hearts out.

With one minute left the score was 32 for the Toppers and 30 for the Shiners, when Kim Oeffinger committed her fifth foul after playing outstanding defense. Now the Toppers had three players left and had to hold off the five Shiners. With 18 seconds left, the Shiners turned the ball over to the Toppers. With the team outnumbered, the Toppers couldn't get the ball out of bounds. Then the Shiners got the ball and took a shot at five seconds to go, it missed and Kristina Skiles ripped down the rebound and held the ball for the win!

The Lady Toppers had an exceptional season, ending with a record of 7-11. This was the best record since the 1982-83 season when they were 9-11.

After losing the first six games of the season, the team started a comeback with a December 14 home court win over Medora. Top scorer Stephanie Barnes then led the Lady Toppers in victories over Graceland Christian, Rising Sun and Medora, setting a new school record for consecutive victories. The Medora game also marked Coach Jim Barnes' 200th career victory, over 19 years of coaching.

The winning streak continued through January with the girls defeating Crothersville for their fifth straight victory. Later victories over Henryville and Louisville Collegiate contributed to the comeback season.

Shawe was eliminated from the Sectional by Southwestern's Lady Rebels, 55-35. Again, Barnes led the scoring, with additional points made by Natalie Kloepfer, Colleen McCarthy, Gretchen Heitz and Jeanne Tatman.

Junior Varsity Struggles

The junior varsity boys basketball team, coached by Gary Armbrecht, had a hard season at 4-14. But they gave it their all every game.

With many young, inexperienced players, the junior varsity team had a rebuilding year, according to Coach Armbrecht. He felt that the team was strong on offense, but had not yet developed the defensive capacity to win the games they could have. The team began to play more consistently late in the season, as evidenced by such near-victories as the three point loss to Southwestern.

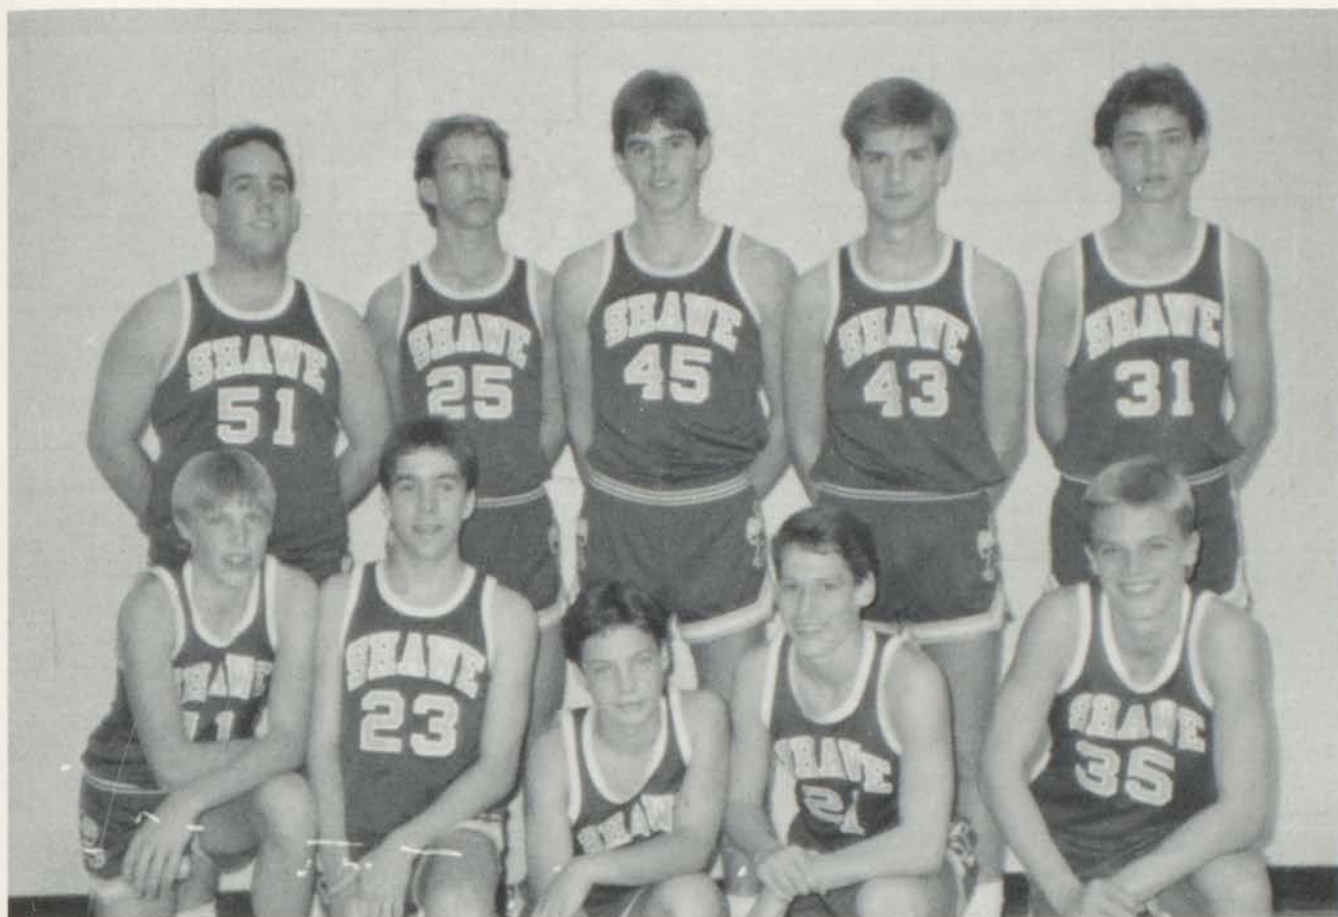

Outstanding players named by Coach Armbrecht were Brian Furnish, Mike Prost, Ric Weldon and Bill Oeffinger.

We've Got Spirit

Cheerleading requires enthusiasm and dedication. Practice for the cheerleaders starts before the first game and ends with the final game of the year. They work very hard and attend every home and away game.

The cheerleaders did not attend camp but they worked hard to learn the traditional cheers. They also tried to help keep the spirit going throughout the year.

The cheerleaders organized Spirit Week and pep rallies. The Varsity and Junior Varsity are under the supervision of Sister Thomasita Hayes. The Junior High squads are sponsored by Aline Schafer.

Laura Rucker, Ann Suchocki, Megan Galvin, and Colleen Johnston, show their spirit.

Eighth Grade: Angie Barnes, Jennifer Maurer, Rea Ane Lionetti, Leah Jameison, and Kelly Wolf.

Varsity Basketball

Coached by Glenn Petty and assistant Gary Armbrecht, the varsity basketball team had a rough and discouraging season, with a 4-18 record. Even though the team had it hard, they played to their potential.

High points of the season included victories over Milan, Southwestern, Crothersville and Jac-Cen-Del. One low point of the season occurred at a February game at Rising Sun, in which sophomore star Lee Green was injured. He missed several subsequent games, but was able to return for sectionals.

The Hilltoppers were knocked out of the sectional in the semi-final round by Austin, 72-55.

All season, the team stayed together and never quit trying to win. Coach Petty said it better: "Even though the team was losing, they were all still friends." Graduating senior players were: Matt Deiters, Chris Oeffinger, Byron Petty, Don Prost, Wes McAdams, Jason Shelley and John Vaughn.

Shawe's Awesome Tennis Team

Natalie Kloepfer practices a first serve.

Don Prost, Jennifer Smith, Ann Suchocki and Simone Staudenmayer offer their team support.

In only its fourth year the tennis team made many great accomplishments and firsts under the coaching of Bobbe Suchocki, Art Suchocki and Dennis Munier.

The team participated in and won the Marian Invitational Tournament, which is a Catholic schools tournament. Other schools participating were Immaculate Conception and Marian Heights.

All spring newspaper headlines reflected the long string of victories. Even arch-rival Madison was defeated in a regular season meet. The season record was 12-4.

The Hilltoppers won the first round of the New Albany sectional by defeating Borden 3-2. Ann Suchocki at number one singles and Natalie Kloepfer at number two singles both easily overpowered their opponents. Colleen McCarthy and Colene Barlow also won their match at number two doubles to grab the win for Shawe.

The girls were knocked out of the Sectional in the second round by Pekin Eastern.

Golf, Track Teams Compete in Spring

Waiting to tee off at the Sunrise Golf Course before the sectional are: Clint Schultz, Eric Armbrrecht, Denny Potter, Harry Fraley, Charlie Grote and Coach Tom Nichols.

Eric Armbrrecht progressed to the golf regional at Seymour by shooting at 81 at the Madison sectional. He was the first Shawe golfer to play in the regional since the 1974 team competed. His regional score was 95.

Shawe's golf team finished a respectable eighth out of 13 teams at the sectional, with a team score of 376. They bettered their 1987 sectional performance by 41 strokes.

The team was comprised of one junior, Charlie Grote, and four freshmen, Armbrrecht, Harry Fraley, Denny Potter and Clint Schultz. Mr. Tom Nichols, coach, termed it a "rebuilding year". The season record was 0-7.

Armbrrecht was named the most valuable player, while Fraley was the most improved.

Sharon Horton was coach for the track team, which participated in an abbreviated season of meets.

Kristina Skiles had a successful season, winning the 1,600-meter run in the Ohio River Valley Conference meet. She also qualified to run in the sectional. At the spring sports banquet, Skiles was named most valuable performer of the girls track team, Jill Vaughn the most improved and Rob Schafer the most valuable performer of the boys team.

Shawe's track team includes (front) Angie Schafer, Rob Schafer, Sandy Getz, (back) Jill Vaughn, Julie Armstrong, Joely Kimmel and Kristina Skiles.

Baseball Team Young But Talented

The baseball team underwent a coaching change this year. Denny Kring now coaches the team. Due to a participation problem, the team didn't get off to a good start. The team participated in the Madison Courier Invitational Tournament, where it was defeated in the first game against Trimble County. The team had a numbers problem all through the season, therefore fill-ins were found so that the team could play all the scheduled games.

The team entered the sectional with a 3-20 record, but that didn't prevent them from setting out to win their June 4 sectional game against Madison. Shawe jumped out with three runs in the first inning. Madison didn't score until late in the first inning, but went on to beat the Hilltoppers 16-4.

Mike Whitham, senior pitcher/shortstop, was named to the all-tournament team based on his performance in that game. He pitched 2 2/3 innings, had two strikeouts, four walks and gave up seven hits. He also walked twice and scored a run for the Hilltoppers.

At the spring sports banquet, Whitham and Senior Matt Deiters were named co-most valuable players. Senior Eddie Hunger received the mental attitude award, while Whitham won the scholastic award. Freshman Denny Potter received the defensive award for his performance at second base. Coach Kring named Sophomore Chris Harris the most improved player.

Matt Deiters and Brian Furnish prepare to play.

Karst, Retzner Lead Softball Team

Shawe's softball team included: (front) Linda Augustin, Connie Lizotte, Kim Retzner, Jodi Cooke, Wendy Center, (back) Head Coach Joyce Bickers, Vicky Dahlem, Melissa Worcester, Carla Hackney, Angi Schafer, Beth Karst, Jeanne Tatman and Assistant Coach Clyde Bickers.

After struggling all season, the softball team ended a three-season losing streak by defeating Switzerland County 8-7 in the final game of the regular season. Highlighting that game were two doubles hit by Kim Retzner and Beth Karst. Retzner knocked in two runs with her double in the second inning, while Karst's double allowed the winning run to score in the seventh inning.

The softball team had worked hard all season to make strong improvements in their play. Joyce Bickers coached for the second year, along with help from her father Clyde Bickers.

Karst, the catcher that was one of the team's top players, had been with the team since she was a freshman. Retzner, a senior pitcher, was also on the team for four years.

Shawe was defeated by Southwestern in the first round of the Madison sectional May 27. Coach Bickers announced after the game that she would not return to coach the team next year.

Junior High Athletes Compete

Eighth grade basketball players included (front) Jeremy Whitham, Phillip Trueblood, Kyle Yancey, (back) Brian Sorensen, Sean Gatewood, Brent Davis, and Daniel Sommer.

Seventh and eighth grade girls volleyball award winners were Kelly Wolf, Rae Ane Lionetti, Beth Grossman and Erica Suchocki.

There has been one major problem in the junior high sports program. This problem has always been around and will probably always be around: the shortage of students. This creates a dilemma each year for the coaches that try to get junior high sports on the road and going. The students that do participate, though, work very hard and usually there is a good program for people who do take part. Many students from the grade school are recruited to play. This means an even better program and more students for the coaches to work with.

During this past year, the junior high sports program was pretty good. Take for example the junior high girls basketball team. The wins to losses really do not tell the story. Although their record was 1-6, the girls played their hearts out and gave it their best. A few of the games were very close, lost by one or two points. Despite the small number of players, the girls did very well and gave it their all.

The junior high sports program included the eighth grade boys basketball team, coached by Pat Berry and the seventh grade boys basketball team, coached by Kevin Jones. The girls basketball team was coached by Bob Wolf. Connie Wolf and Diana Harrel coached the volleyball team. The boys also had a cross country team, coached by Mike Gardner.

Seventh and eighth grade basketball award winners were Jeremy Whitham, Rae Ane Lionetti, and Jimmy Thompson.

Seventh grade basketball players included (front) Chris Gardner, Matt Walro, John Geyman, John Cooke, Jeff Kloepfer, (back) Mark Zubaty, Dominic Dattilo, Daniel Barron, Jimmy Thompson, Jerry Tatman, Chris Schafer, and Brian Dalglish.

National Honor Society is truly the highest honor at Shawe. To be considered for National Honor Society one must maintain an 88 grade point average and excel in scholarship, which the faculty determines. Once a member, one is expected to uphold these qualities and responsibilities. Eight new members were inducted in the spring.

Student Council was under the supervision of Mrs. Sharon Horton and President Lenny Dattilo. The Student Council organized a Thanksgiving picnic and Mass. They also sold candy grams for Christmas.

Mrs. Lou Ann Center, the sponsor of National Honor Society, is holding the induction cake.

Student Council officers are Robbie Schafer, Treasurer; Janet Moore, Secretary; Ann Suchocki, Press Secretary; Lenny Dattilo, President; and Kim Retzner, Vice President.

Jason Shelley and Gretchen Heitz enjoy the music.

The Christmas Dance was held on December 21, at the Knights of Columbus. The dance was put on by the Senior Class and sponsored by Mrs. Sharon Horton. Fred Dickman was the D.J. This is the first year that it was open to the Catholic Youth Community. New and different people made the dance even more exciting.

"Why Can't This Night Go On Forever?"

It was a dark, stormy night, Friday the 13th, the worst night someone could have picked for the Junior-Senior Prom. Anything that could have possibly gone wrong did. The electrical storm blew the equipment of the band, L.E.D. from Louisville, and the music for dancing was then provided by tapes, courtesy of Dan Dattilo and Rob Schafer.

"Why Can't This Night Go On Forever?" was the theme for the prom, held at the Moose Lodge on May 13 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The Junior Class, with the help of Sister Thomasita, organized and financed the special event. As decoration the juniors chose emerald green and silver streamers and balloons. The memorable event of the night was the crowning of Don Prost and Megan Galvin as the Prom King and Queen.

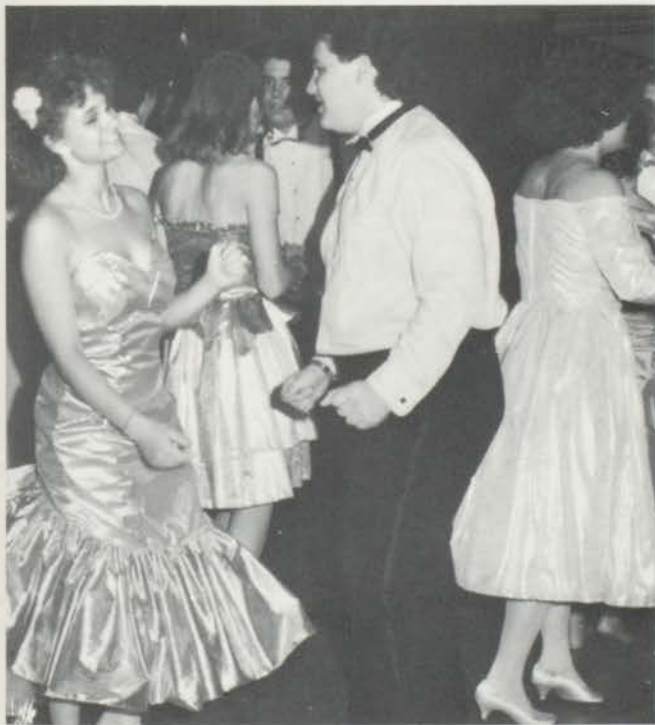

Don Prost and Megan Galvin are the 1988 Prom King and Queen.

Candidates for Prom King and Queen were Kim Retzner, John Craig, Gretchen Heitz, John Vaughn, Megan Galvin, Don Prost, Len Dattilo, Simone Staudenmayer, Laura Rucker, and Tim Thomas.

Second Walk-athon Raises Over $7,000

For the second year the annual Walk-athon raised its goal of over $7,000. This year, the walk was held on Friday, May 6. Students and faculty walked or ran a six-mile course around the Madison area. This walk is to raise money for the school system. Pope John students and faculty also walk on a marked course to raise money.

All in all, for the past two years the Walk-athon has been very successful.

Harry Fraley was the first runner in.

Principal, Athletic Director Leave Shawe

Editor's Note: Information for this article was gathered when Mr. Politz was interviewed by the journalism class during May. The story combines material written by Arlene Dirksen, Don Prost, and Janet Moore.

Arthur Politz, principal of Shawe Memorial and Pope John XXIII Schools, left after the 1987-88 school year to further his studies and earn a doctoral degree in education. Ball State University is where he plans to pursue his studies.

Mr. Politz sees himself as a somewhat quiet, shy and determined man. He served in the Vietnam War and has been the principal of several Catholic schools.

A native of Delphi, he graduated from high school in 1964. He joined the Marines and served four years. In 1965 he was shipped to Vietnam, where he was among the first to land. He was told the conflict would last only six weeks, while it lasted ten years after he left. The military was alright in some regards, but Mr. Politz did mention the disadvantages of the service. He didn't like being told what to do, the lack of privacy, and he said he has "no desire to return to the service".

After the military, Mr. Politz went to college, where he met his wife Joan at a computer card dance. Mrs. Politz has a bachelor of arts degree from Valparaiso University, a master's degree from Purdue, was a National Merit Scholar and salutatorian of her high school. Mr. Politz has a bachelor's degree from Valparaiso, a master's degree from Indiana University-Fort Wayne, and will earn an Ed. D. from Ball State.

Mr. Politz has worked in a few different positions: teacher, accountant's aide, and principal. The schools he has worked in include St. Joseph's, St. Patrick's, St. Paul's and Shawe/Pope John. Mr. Politz feels, "Catholic principals have enormous power." At the same time he says that of all the people connected with a school, the principal is the most dependent on others.

As the first person to serve concurrently as principal of Shawe and Pope John Schools, Mr. Politz was proud of additions to the school system during his tenure; the pre-school, the day care center, a tennis and swimming team and the band. He tried to allow the two schools to function as one unit. He said that he leaves with a sense of satisfaction and also of frustration that he could not guarantee the future of Shawe.

When asked how this school was different from others he worked at, he said that Shawe's school spirit was like no other that he has seen. He was also amazed at the academic records. He was happy that he spent less time on discipline.

A saying from Pope John XXIII guides him in his ways: "He may let me do little, but of the little He lets me do, I intend to do it all."

Athletic Director Glenn Petty also resigned at the end of the school year. He has been athletic director, head basketball coach, and physical education instructor for three years.

A native of the Indianapolis area, Coach Petty was a graduate of Butler University, where he played basketball under Coach Tony Hinkle. He holds a counseling degree from St. Francis College in Fort Wayne and has completed some work towards a doctoral degree at Ball State University.

As a basketball coach, his career is 134 wins to 93 losses. During his first season at Shawe the Hilltoppers compiled a 10-11 record. His most successful season at Shawe was the 1986-87 season, with 15 wins and 8 losses. This season the varsity squad was 4-16, giving Coach Petty an overall record of 29-35 at Shawe.

Coach Petty's resignation letter said, in part, "At this time I would like to tender my resignation as athletic director, teacher and basketball coach. This action has been perpetuated by a difference in philosophy by myself and the school community. In my tenure here I have done everything I could possibly do to try to make Shawe Memorial High School a better place for this community to explore alternative educational philosophies."

His resignation coincided with the graduation of his son, Byron Petty, who has been a varsity basketball player.

Baccalaureate, Commencement Exercises

Baccalaureate was held May 20 at 8 p.m. in the Meny Gymnasium with Father James Suchocki, Father William Turner, Father Hilary Meny and Father Larry Crawford as presiders of the liturgy.

It was a very touching mass for the seniors, with special moments shared between them. The Sign of Peace turned out to be a time of hugs and tears between classmates as well as with parents when seniors presented their parents with yellow roses. "Remember Whens" were read with much laughter at the good times the seniors had shared. Father Turner's slide show proved to be another memorable event with pictures of the seniors throughout the years.

After baccalaureate gifts that the seniors had made for each other were exchanged among themselves. The memories of the class of 88 will carry on forever in the hearts of many.

Honor 27 Graduates in Class of 1988

Happy graduates gather together one last time after commencement exercises.

Commencement was held May 22 at 2 p.m. in the Father Hilary G. Meny Gymnasium. The seniors marched proudly into the gym to "Pomp and Circumstance", with the senior girls carrying red roses. The invocation was done by Father Larry Crawford. "You were here . . . we made it through together" was the theme of Class Salutatorian Ann Suchocki's speech. Rob Schafer, class valedictorian, urged his fellow classmates and friends to take full advantage of the opportunities ahead of them.

The commencement address was given by Archbishop Edward T. O'Meara. Archbishop O'Meara then presented the class of 1988 with their diplomas and some encouraging words. Tassel turning involved hugs and even a "high five" by Lenny Dattilo and John Craig. The theme song "Honestly" was then sung by Mrs. Glenda Elam.

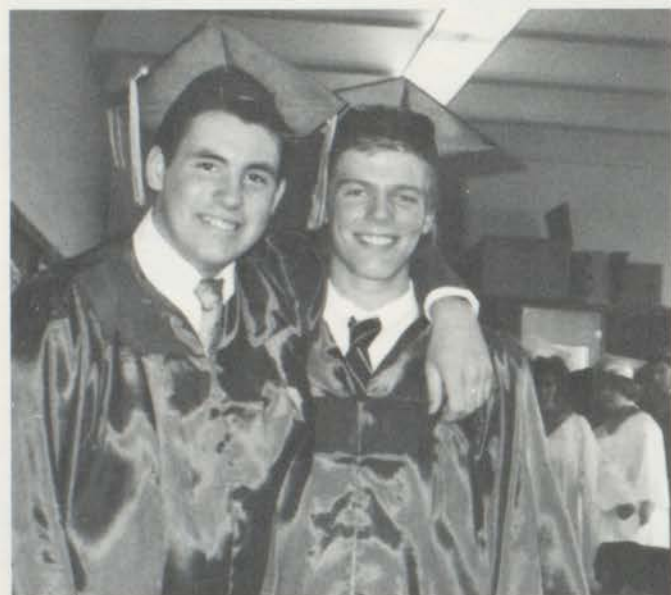

Scholarships announced during the program included: Yunker Scholarships — Michael Whitham, Megan Galvin, Robert Schafer, Gretchen Heitz, Ann Suchocki and Janet Moore; Father Michael Walsh Scholarship — Laura Rucker; Hall Memorial Scholarship from the Madison Teachers Association — Laura Rucker; Chuck Hall Family Memorial Scholarship — Donald Prost.

Dignitaries at commencement included Father William Turner, Father Hilary Meny, Father Lawrence Crawford, Archbishop Edward T. O'Meara, Mr. Arthur Politz, Sister Lawrence Ann Liston and Mr. Charles Torline.

Yearbook Staff Meets Deadline

The yearbook staff was under the supervision of Mrs. Laura Hodges. The yearbook staff worked hard during the year to produce the Family Album. In order to make a yearbook a yearbook, the class had to learn about deadlines, copies and layouts. To meet certain deadlines some students worked individually while others worked as a group. We would like to thank our sponsor Mrs. Laura Hodges for her support and dedication and helping us get through the deadlines we thought we would never make. Also, Mrs. Carole Williams gave invaluable help in the areas of photography and dark-room technique.

Mrs. Hodges assisting Dan Dattilo in his journalism work.

Front: Arlene Dirksen, Kim Retzner, Simone Staudenmayer, Holly Carver, Janet Moore, Back: John Vaughn, Don Prost, Byron Petty, Tim Barron, Jason Shelley, Dan Dattilo, and Chris Oeffinger.

Byron Petty demonstrates his photography skills.

Jason Shelley standing behind an unfinished layout.

A portion of the journalism class working hard.

Dan Dattilo and Chris Oeffinger hard at work in the journalism room.
