Not knowing what to expect, Shawe students came crashing back to school this year with new faces, ideas, fads and challenges. Dr. Fred Schmits was there to greet us as the new principal and new student council advisor. Coach Mike Hannan was also there as the new basketball coach and athletic director, to reassure the jocks that there would be harder practices.

Father Jeff Charlton also was a new face in the crowd as St. Mary's and St. Michael's new pastor. He picked up on Topper spirit really fast and related very well to the students.

This year the students had to get used to new rules and a different routine. But since our school is filled with students of immeasurable atomic potential, who bond together and release invisible energy, it took no time at all to go with the flow. No other school can match the outstanding academics, activities, and friendships that come out of Shawe.

We never claim to be the best, however to the other schools we seem fairly sophisticated. We have excitement and energy that makes us crackly with life and uniqueness. While having all the force of an uranium atom, Shawe students have all the blending harmony of peanut butter and jelly.

This year has been filled with new leaders, new experiences, new expectations, and dreams. We are growing with our own challenges, and are ready to face what still lies ahead.

We Love You, Sr. Thom!

In 1969, a math teacher made her first appearance at Shawe Memorial High School. This teacher was Sr. Thomasita Hayes, and throughout the past twenty years Sister has made her mark on the Shawe Community.

Sister has proven to be an invaluable member of the staff at Shawe. She is many things to many different people. To students she is someone to respect, learn from, and fear. To the parents she is someone to depend on, respect, and share enjoyable times. The cheerleaders look to her to settle fights, keep them in line, and make, alter, and fix the various uniforms.

Shawe will be missing a vital part of its teaching staff next year. Sister will be leaving us a tough place to fill. We will miss you, Sister; you always proved to be More Than We Expected.

Sr. Thomasita Hayes

Sr. Thom assumes her normal position at the head of the class, as the Trig class tries to understand their problems.

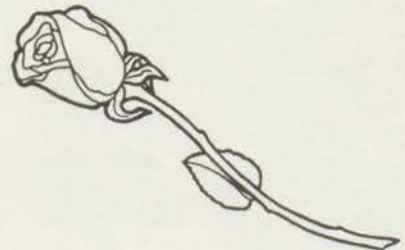

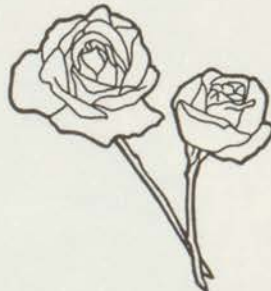

Sr. Thom tries to show Tony May the correct way to pin on his flower before Homecoming 1989.

Sr. Thom shows the audience a few of her dance moves at an Honors Day.

In an expression of pure joy, Sr. Thom prepares to go into her "last" Prom.

After years of Prom and Homecoming decorating experience, Sister Thom shows the Pep Club how to decorate for Homecoming 1989.

Sister assumes her position of power, her place behind her podium.

Sister Thomasita's pride and joy is her flower bed in front of the school. Here she is being helped in the planting by Byron Petty.

Sister displays her frustration. This usually happens about a week before Prom.

Sister celebrates her birthday by "chowing-down" on a cookie given to her by her students.

Our New Chapel

Through the dedicated hard work by some of our supporters in the Catholic community we once again have a chapel in Shawe High School. Our Lord is present to receive visitors throughout the day for private meditation or class prayer.

We extend our thanks to the following for their hard work in the conversion of this old office and store room: Mr. Charlie Meisberger for hanging the fixtures; Mr. B.C. Cooke and Mr. Dennis Potter for hanging the drop ceiling; Mr. Donn Lorton and Mr. George Schafer for the carpentry and painting; and our D.R.E., Mr. Allen Boedeker for the overall design and supervision of the renovation.

It is nice to have HIM (Jesus) back in our midst.

Homecoming

The overhead lights grew dim, the spotlights beamed and Natalie Kloepfer's voice filled Meny Gym. It was February 24, 1989, the final game of the regular basketball season, and Homecoming Night.

As the candidates and their escorts were announced, the tension grew until the final big moment when the queen was called out. Queen Colleen Johnston and her escort followed the court to the stage decorated in green and silver.

The boys' varsity basketball team added to the excitement of the evening by emerging victorious against the Switzerland County Pacers.

The annual Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Senior class, was held December 22, 1988 in the cafeteria at Pope John. From 8:00-11:00 p.m. the students celebrated the coming of Christmas to music supplied by Jim Taylor, a local D-J.

Underclassmen got the honor of seeing some superb dancing by the ever-energetic seniors. Besides providing dance lessons the seniors also planned and decorated for the festivities.

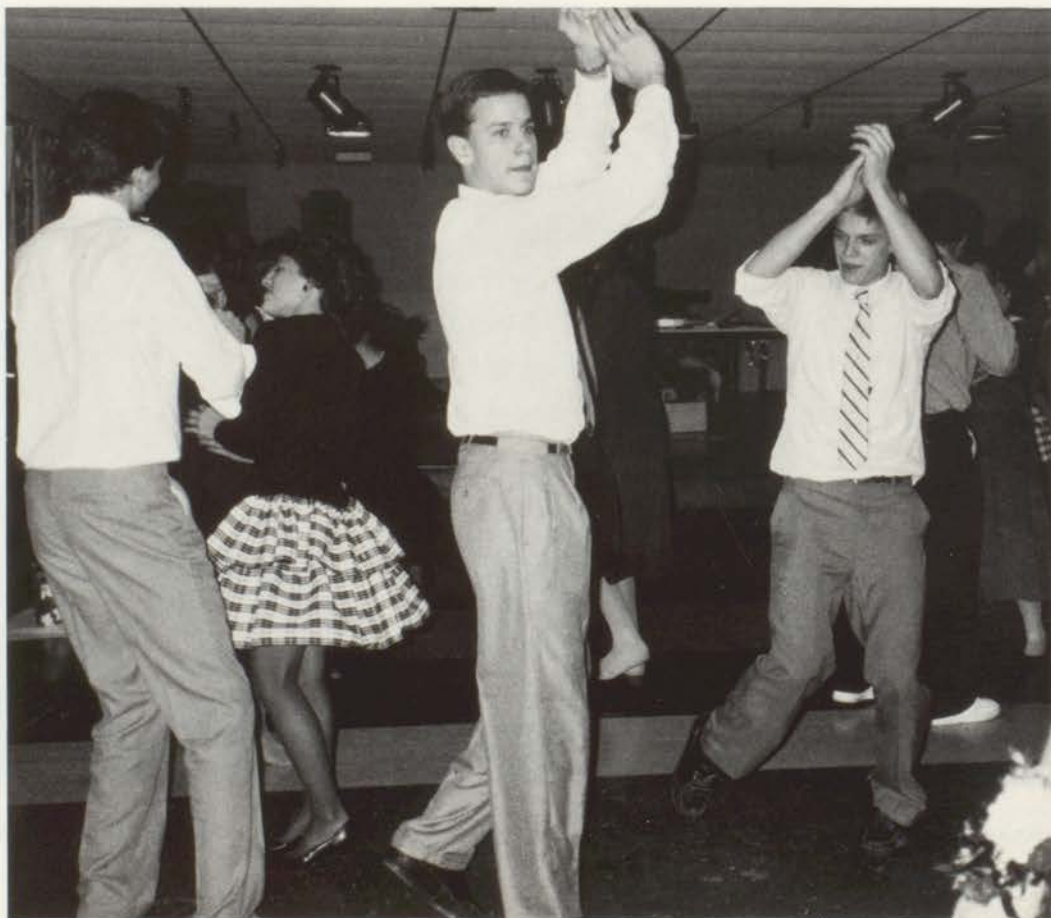

Everyone had a blast!

Retreat

In order to grow closer to themselves, each other and God, the Seniors took a three day retreat. Their retreat was held at Beech Grove Benedictine Center.

Among the memorable activities in which the Seniors participated, there were meals shared, time for basketball, and the ever popular, chance to drown Father Bill in the pool.

The Seniors experienced a closeness on retreat that is hard to match during the busy time at school. This experience proved to be rewarding to the students and those adults who attended.

Mrs. Horton, Sandy Getz, and Carla Hackney take time out to relax at the retreat.

The Class Of 1990

The Junior Class of '90 was rolling along this year with Prom, Junior Dinner and Confirmation. Each individual played a vital role in preparation for prom such as selecting a band, colors, decorations and most importantly, their date. It didn't take long to get the hang of decision making and compromising. The Juniors bonded together in raising money through Sunday night bingo and the Junior Dinner.

Sophomores On The Loose

The Sophomore Class of 91 are stepin' out. This was an exciting year for them — many had a new challenge of driving themselves to school and making it on time without being chauffeured by parents or a bus.

The class also participated in many fund raisers such as chili suppers, selling trash bags and raffeling off a hundred dollars. This was all aimed for five fun-filled days in the Florida Keys.

The Freshman Class was a vital part of Shawe's extra-curricular activities this year. At any sports event or after-school activity at least one Freshman could be found promoting school spirit.

As the year grew older and May came closer these students established their own place in the student body of Shawe High School. Their contribution was unique and important to the school, and they proved to be more than we expected.

Eighth Grade Class

The Eighth Grade has been busy this year with many activities. To raise funds for their class trip to Washington D.C., they ran a coat check at basketball games, raffled off a piñata, sold trashbags and charged admittance to their basketball games. While in Washington they met Congressman Lee Hamilton and toured many buildings including the White House, National Archives, Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, the Capital and the FBI Building.

In The Middle Of It All

Dr. Fred Schmits is our new Principal this year. Coming to us from St. Susanna's in Plainfield, Indiana, Dr. Schmits brings with his vast and varied experience in school operations, athletics and law. He is interested in school leadership by the students and has encouraged the student council to take that lead in the initiation of planning and execution of many new projects.

Dr. Schmits is not one to sit on the sidelines, but really likes to be "in the middle of it all."

The Beat Of The Band.

Mrs. Glenda Elam has been directing the band at Shawe for the past five years. She is tremendously happy with the progress that the band has made. Her ideal program for the band is to eventually have three bands: beginner, intermediate, and varsity. She would like the band to progress to "a room of their own", and to a point where it's not just an extracurricular activity. Her personal opinion of Shawe as a school is that "it is the only place for my children".

In the five years of the band program they have maintained an average participation of 90% of all incoming classes. Their drop out rate is very low.

A source of pride to Mrs. Elam is that of the 45 students participating from grades 7 through 12, all are in the varsity band. Not many schools can boast that percentage.

We will all miss Mrs. Elam when she leaves at the end of the year, but we wish her good luck in her personal music career.

Mrs. Carole Williams

Mrs. Williams teaches art for grades K-12 and also creative writing for the sixth grade. Mrs. Williams is the head of an organization called PALS — a group which is against drugs and alcohol. She obtained her education at the University of Evansville and Indiana University.

ART

Joanne Booth won a gold key in the Scholastic Art competition this year. Her art work was displayed at L.S. Ayres in Indianapolis. (Carla Hackney had won a gold key in the 1988 competition).

Mrs. Jacob taught sumi-e painting to the high school art class. The class enjoyed the new painting they learned.

"Hold Onto The Night"

Shawe's prom was held on May 12, 1989, at the Elks Lodge, downtown Madison, from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. The 1989 Prom was sponsored and financed by the Junior Class of 1990 and Sr. Thomasita. The theme chosen for the prom was "Hold Onto the Night". The colors were black and silver. The Juniors decorated the lodge with streamers, balloons, silver stars and black fabric.

The candidates for queen and king were Colleen Johnston and Bill Oeffinger, Jenne Fitzpatrick and Steve Dattilo, Natalie Kloepfer and Mike Miller, and Stephanie Barnes and Kevin Jacob. The queen and king were crowned at 11:30 p.m. The queen and king of Shawe's 1989 Prom were Jenne Fitzpatrick and Steve Dattilo.
