The first semester of school proved to be full of changes for students. A new dress code and many new rules left room for desire. Sophomore Josh Clements said, "I don't think it's right that they change what they want us to wear every year. If they want us to wear pants without side pockets they shouldn't send a letter saying it's okay, then change their minds two weeks before school starts so we have to go out and buy all new pants. The pants with no pockets don't bother me though." With the addition of several new teachers and students many new names and faces had to be learned. When asked what she most likes about Shave as a new student, junior Rupa Yeager said, "I really like the friendly atmosphere."

Second semester started off cold and snowy.

Elizabeth Kelly said, "I liked having snow days because we got to sleep in. Because we had so many I caught up on a lot of sleep." Despite the cold weather students got excited in March when the boys won sectionals. In April, eighth graders traveled to Washington D.C. The students had an enjoyable time. Bridget Fry said, "Four days, 28 eighth graders.....Ah-h-h-h-h!" April also proved to be very rainy and several classrooms downstairs flooded. The school year ended with prom, graduation, Shawe games and senior mass. Carole Williams said "Prom had an added feature this year with a delicious Cajun meal."

Students Express Views, Ideas and Concerns

When the first boycott of school lunches occurred, Student Council knew it was time to take action. "I liked the Forum this year because it gave students a unique opportunity to express their views and concerns about Shawe," said Jimmy Leveille. With the first school forum ever, students learned to express their views, ideas, and concerns about school related policies in an open assembly. New students at Shawe settled into their environment with ease. Matthew Bates said, "I like the people here. They are friendly and take jokes pretty well." Sister Jane Ann sported a different fashion this year when she was put behind bars. Her striped black and white jail outfit gave the students a laugh. Students raised enough money towards Muscular Dystrophy to keep her locked up for an hour. Sister Jane Ann commented, "Time in jail was a privilege for me because it allowed me to help those who suffer with the disease."

Spirit this year was always present. At times it was a little more difficult to see than others.

At the beginning of the year students and faculty went through the growing pains that accompany every year. Students had to get used to all of their new teachers. Spirit was difficult to see in the beginning weeks.

Signs of school spirit started to emerge during the school's fall sports season which included volleyball and soccer.

Spirit became even more prevalent with the announcement of our new head basketball coach, Jerry Bomholt. The students' excitement was mirrored by the parents.

The enthusiasm of the fans at the boys' basketball games carried over to the girls' team, as well.

School spirit was never any higher than it was before sectional and eventually regionals.

"The decorations were awesome. I was surprised to walk into school and see so much green and gold. Every-one showed a lot of spirit by participating", said sophomore Stephanie Von Fange. "I think that the fans at regionals were the loudest that they had been all year," said junior

Josh Watterson. Chris Deaton said, "No question the fans were the best all year during the regional game. The fans were feeling a huge amount of pride in their school because the emotions during that game were running so high."

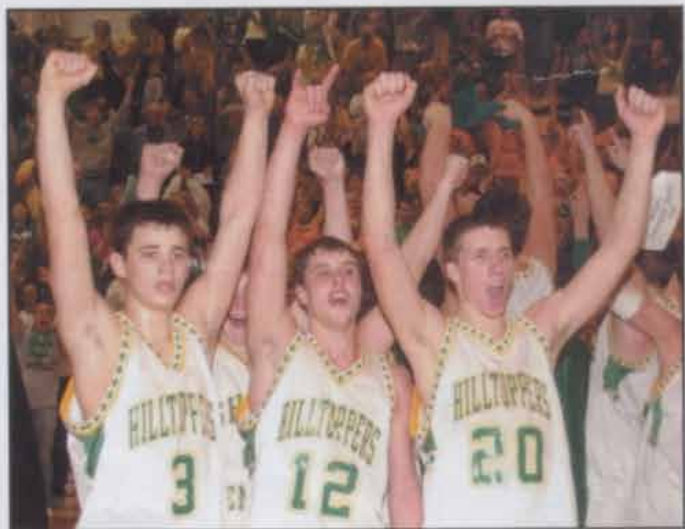

"The spirit at games was really awesome. I'm glad all the fans came to support our team," said John Bennett. -Cameron Willoughby

PERSONALITY TYPE

From head to toe, trends were of great importance to teens. "I don't really follow the trends. I just wear what I think is cute. I like my jellies and my peasant tops and jeans. Jeans are essential. When it comes to clothes you should express yourself and not what a Seventeen style magazine says is in," said Megan Phillips.

Many of the students, on dress-down days, dressed casual to be comfortable. Some looked like they hopped out of a teen style magazine. Fads came and went and they added originality to student looks. From uniform days to occasional dress-down days, trends always showed through.

Nate Stormer said, "Abercrombie is one of the biggest trends since I've been in high school. It's sad when you see someone in high school wearing the same clothing item as a five year old."

The dress code, was strict on the length of shorts and how tight they fit around the legs.

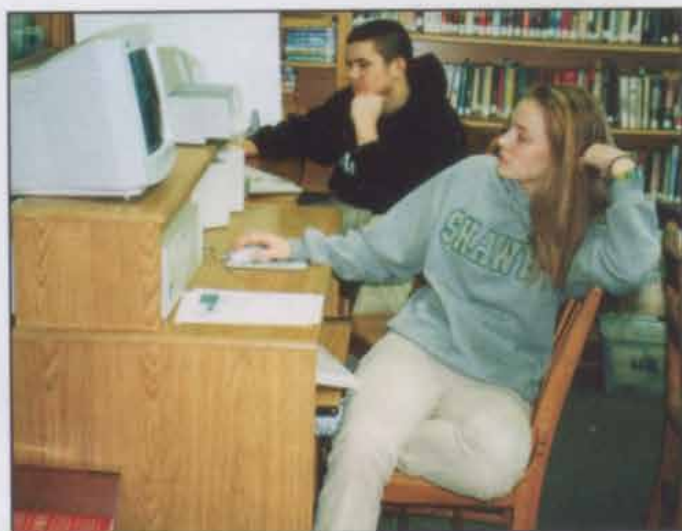

"Capri pants, tank tops and flip-flops are my favorite trendy clothes because they're easy to throw together and they're comfortable," said Kelli Hoffman. "I really like the new sweatshirts because they have hoods," said Tabatha Smith.

Students who didn't follow the dress code were sent home and had to change in order to be allowed back in the classroom.

FAVORITE UNIFORM SHIRT

Christmas dance was held at the Knights of Columbus Lodge. This annual dance, put on by the Senior Class was the year's first formal dance, and was held for the entire high school.

White Christmas was the theme of the dance. The tables were decorated elegantly with white linen tablecloths and blue silk covers. Mirrors were placed at the center of each table. On top of the mirrors sparkling, snowflake floating candles were placed.

"I thought the seniors put a lot of hard work and time into their decorating. I really liked the penguins in the photo backdrop," said Phillip Kapfhammer.

There was much excitement at the dance. For the freshman it was an exciting time because it was their first Christmas Dance and for the seniors it was their last Christmas Dance.

"I had a lot of fun this year. All my friends were there and it was my last Christmas Dance so it was really special. Since I was the Princess last year I had to crown Shawnee, so I was a little nervous," said Gretchen Sizemore.

Music is what brings people out on the floor as well as the D.J., Dan Dattilo, who served as the disc jockey.

"The D.J. played good music. He kept everyone dancing all night," said Julie Zubaty.

For many students the dance wasn't the only fun part of the night. A lot of people enjoyed going out to eat at a nice restaurant. "We went to the Key West Shrimp House to eat before the dance. The restaurant manager took pictures of us and the food was great. We had a really great time eating," said Hilary Rucker. After the dance most people went to friends' houses to hang out and watch movies.

The gym was packed with fans. All but a few lights were dimmed as the 2003 Homecoming Princess and Queen candidates lined up by the door. Nerves were as big as smiles on faces. And finally names were called, one by one, to the floor. "I was going to intentionally trip to try and embarrass Anna, but I chickened out at the last minute," said senior Nate Stormer, who escorted Queen candidate Anna Barber.

This year's court was an unusually small size. It consisted of only one representative from each of the under-classes as Princess candidate and only four from the senior class as Queen candidates. "I think it was cool that both my sister and I were able to be on the court this year," said senior Queen candidate Annette Leiske, whose sister, Patti, was a candidate for Princess.

As with tradition, many alumni also returned to speculate the event and remember back to when they watched their own classmates walk through the gym. They took time from their careers and college to witness the crowning.

Preparing for the event was also a challenge. The varsity cheerleaders sponsored the event. "It took us a long time this year to set up the event because there was only three of us to work on everything. But in the end I think it all turned out to be really nice. Our hard work payed off," said cheerleader Gretchen Sizemore. - by Julie Zubaty dinner because the food was really good. I also enjoyed being at the same dinner with other people in my class," said Kelli Hoffman. Students enjoyed the dancing, great music and entertainment provided by the Disc Jockey, wife and his two sons. "By far the highlight of the dance was the time I had with my date. Plus the rhymes and decorations were tight," said Greg Guarino. The officers which were led by President Sara Sabie worked very hard from the beginning months of school right up to the day of the dance. "Planning and organizing was not as difficult as I thought it would be. The Junior Class worked well with each other. The only thing I really worried about was the Seniors being happy with their last Prom," said Sara Sabie. The theme of the dance was Mardi Gras and the theme song was "Everything I Do." The juniors made C. D. 's for the seniors which had never been done before here at Shawe. Each junior was able to pick one song to go on the C.D. It was an enjoyable night for both the juniors and seniors. -Anna Barber

Shawe Games was a very successful day that was planned by the Student Council under the leadership of the Jacob Laskowski, President. "I think Shawe Games was successful because it was well organized. Students also seemed to have a lot of fun," said Sarah Yeager. Along with the normal games such as basketball, volleyball, soccer, tennis, Tug-of-War, Spoons, Chess, Euchre, there were several new games. The Student Council decided to add several games to play at Shawe Games which were, King of the Remote, Soda Challenge, Karaoke, Disney Charades, Will It Float? Game, and several different board games. "The hardest part of the planning and organizing of Shawe Games was making sure everybody was involved in all the classes. We also added new games this year which called for more organizing by the Student Council," said Maureen Stack. Getting ready for Shawe Games is something that Student Council plans for all year long. "I started organizing and planning for Shawe Games over Christmas Break to make May less hectic for me. After Christmas Break Shawe Games was completely organized and all we had left to do was buy the supplies," said Jacob Laskowski. The standings ended with sophomores third place, juniors second, and seniors took the first place title.

HOW MANY HOURS A WEEK DO YOU STUDY?

Students Busy Out of School

Students faced many challenges outside of school. These achievements allowed students to improve their social, mental and physical skills. Zoe Ralston said, "The highlight of the dance competitions was getting to have fun with the other girls on my team. We also got to show people how we had improved." Zoe Ralston and Stacy Shaffer were part of the first All Star Dance Team in Jefferson County. Maggie King said, "I feel my best accomplishment outside of school is becoming a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) because it is a lot of hard work." Maggie continues to work as a CNA at The Waters Nursing Home. When asked what makes Shawe stand out as a school, Hilary Rucker said, "In some ways I think Shawe is like a big family because I know everyone. When there is a big event coming up at Shawe everyone gets involved. If you have problems almost anyone will help. Most of the people here will lend a helping hand if you ask."

Where do you see YOURSELF in 10 years?

ANNA BARBER

"In ten years I will be graduated from Western Kentucky University and living in a big city somewhere warm with my own house. I also plan to start a business of my own and possibly be making plans to get married."

MICHAEL BELL

"I see myself hopefully living in Bloomington recruiting players for the Indiana basketball team."

MATTHEW GOLEY

"In ten years I think I will be married and own a house for my family. Hopefully I will have a decent job when I get out of college."

JENNA HACKNEY

"Hopefully I will live in a big city and be really successful. I hope I will be married but with no children yet."

GREG HODGES

"Location is insignificant, but if it is significant, grad school."

MAGGIE KING

"Ten years from now I see myself with a PhD. in nursing. I see myself with a nice house, car, and possibly even a wedding ring!"

ANNETTE LEISKE

"Hopefully, I will be a successful attorney at a firm in Tampa. I am going to own a gigantic house on the waterfront with time on my hands to spend swimming in the ocean."

BRETANI MUNIER

"I see myself married and hopefully working for a pharmacy company far away from Madison."

Where do you see YOURSELF in 10 years?

KATIE SCHAFER

"In ten years I see myself happy, married, and successful at my job."

GRETCHEN SIZEMORE

"I see myself married, living in a big house, and making lots of money at a great job."

MAUREEN STACK

"I see myself married with possibly a couple kids, working as a speech therapist, and living somewhere other than Madison."

NATHAN STORMER

"I'll be living in San Francisco, California just finishing my residency and looking forward to starting my own practice."

CALEB TANDY

"In ten years I see myself at an Ozzy Concert."

CLAYTON TANDY

"Hopefully I am working hard, driving nice cars, living in a nice house somewhere warm, and married to a beautiful woman!"

BREANNA THEVENOW

"I see myself in an old country house on the back porch drinking lemonade, watching my kids play in the backyard with their golden retriever puppy."

CAMERON WILLOUGHBY

"I see myself married and working to pay off my college debts. I also see myself living somewhere warm and sunny most of the year."

JULIE ZUBATY

"Hopefully in ten years I will be out of college with a good job, a nice house, and maybe even a ring on my finger!"

What is your most EMBARRASSING moment?

Rupa Yeager

"Last year I was eating pizza for Fast Food Friday, and I walked around school the whole day with a piece of tomato stuck between my two front teeth, I was so embarrassed!"

Daniel Butler

"My most embarrassing moment this year was tying South Ripley in soccer!"

Evan Hensley

"Earlier this year when I hit John Bennett's van in the parking lot!"

Elizabeth Shelton

"Early in my freshman year, I fell down the stairs and landed at the feet of several seniors. I was real embarrassed!"

Doug Ungru

"My most embarrassing moment is when I jumped the bush and landed in a pile of mud in front of the whole school, and I had to walk around with mud on my pants for the rest of the day, and everyone teased me!"

Greg Guarino

"It was definitely the time I said a quote from Bob and Tom and cussed really loud. Mrs. Riehle caught me and I was so embarrassed. I got a detention as the result!"

Stephanie Watson

"My freshman year in geography Sister asked me to name a country in North America and I said Utah. I felt so stupid, and I still get made fun of to this day!"

Heather Atkinson

"One time during a volleyball game my sophomore year I was not paying attention and a volleyball was hit and smacked me right in the face. Everyone started laughing at me. I felt so stupid."

REBECCA MCCLURE

"My most memorable moment was the eighth grade trip."

ZOE RALSTON

"My most memorable moment was the Christmas Dance. I really enjoyed my date and being with all my friends at dinner and the dance. The night was a lot of fun."

CORTNEY HOFFMAN

"Sectionals were really awesome this year. When we won, it was the best feeling ever. Since Shawe sports don't always win sectionals, I'll always remember this year."

JACOB LASKOWSKI

"My most memorable moment was when Father McCarthy made me walk around the school for twenty minutes and if I didn't make each lap within a minute, he'd lower my grade by a letter."

ERIC BRICHTO

"My most memorable moment was when we got in trouble for throwing snow balls at each other."

How has the NINTH GRADE CLASS changed?

JACOB BENNETT

"Most people have grown and matured more. We are more serious about what we do. Plus, there are several new faces and we are missing old ones."

DREW KRING

"Classes are harder, but this year I am closer to my friends."

CHELSEA SIMS

"It is a little different because I know that this year the grades actually count and I need to be more serious about them."

ELIZABETH KELLY

"Our class is a lot closer. But the biggest change are sports. Sports are a lot harder."

MATTHEW CULBRETH

"I have gotten closer to the people in my class and I love them!"

BRANDON LAUSTER

"I think that the classes are harder. But everything else is pretty much the same."

JOSHUA TAFLINGER

"This year I have lost a lot of friends, but the ones I still have I think are closer now. We have a lot of new teachers and I think some of are harder but fun."

ISRAEL PYLES

"I think that the freshmen year in ways have changed from last year because of the work. I think some of the work is hard. But some of it is O.K. I think our class is the same."

SARAH YEAGER

"I think that the class has gotten closer to each other. This year they are nicer to me than last year."

What is your most CHALLENGING experience?

DREW MARTIN

"My most challenging experience was Sister Jane Ann's religion class. Her tests were really hard, and they challenged me."

LUKE WISE

"My most challenging experience was Mrs. Torline's math class. I had a hard time understanding her lessons because she speeds through them."

RACHELLE TANDY

"My most challenging experience was getting to Mr. Jones' class on time after lunch."

MARIA BERRY

"My most challenging experience was getting good grades and stuff like that. It was hard for me."

ADAM CULBRETH

"My most challenging experience was being able to sit through Mrs. Torline's math class, while thinking I might get hit by a piece of stray chalk."

VANESSA TORLINE

"My most challenging experience was probably juggling homework, hobbies, time with my friends and extra curricular activities. Man that's hard!"

KRISTEN WALLER

"Math was my most challenging experience because I'm not very good at math."

DUSTIN REED

"English was my most challenging class because I didn't pay attention."

ALLISON TORLINE

"Mr. Jones assigned a project called, 'Music of Geography.' We had to find a song that gave examples of the five themes of geography, and then write a report on it. I think the whole class failed."

Motivation Leads to Success

The Academic Success Program was appreciated by as many as 100 students earning their place on Honor Roll and High Honors. Giving the students a pat on the back, the program allowed each member a dress down day, ice cream sundaes and a special lunch. "I think the Academic Success Program is a great motivation for students who might not get good grades if they didn't get something for it. I wouldn't be on honor roll if I didn't get dress down days and free food," said Eric Brichto. ISTEP's were an added accomplishment for the 8th and 10th graders. All of the 8th graders passed with flying colors and 95% of the sophomores did. A new class formed for the seniors. "AP Calculus was a hard class for me but I feel like it has prepared me for the difficult classes I will take in college," said Julie Zubaty. Advanced Placement Calculus was the first of its kind yet Angela Miller was positive that there will be more AP classes in the future.

English

English classes offered were junior high English, English 9-12, Honors English for sophomores, juniors and seniors, etymology, creative writing and speech. The English teachers were Dorothy Brooks and Andie Martin with Carole Williams teaching creative writing. The English classes read several books.

Heather Atkinson said, "My favorite book to read in English class was The Odyssey because even though it was really long, it made me think and it opened up my mind to new ideas, some morbid and different, but new."

The seventh graders read two main novels - Across Five Aprils and The Outsiders. The eighth grade class read The Call of the Wild and The Diary of a Young Girl; Anne Frank. Junior high students were required to gather information from the novel that they read and then make a project with it. The Freshmen Class read Shoeless Joe and The Sun Also Rises. While the Freshmen Class read The Sun Also Rises, Mrs. Andie Martin discussed information about WWI and the 1920's to help the class understand background information about the book. Sophomores read Of Mice and Men and The Old Man and the Sea, while the Junior Class read To Kill A Mockingbird.

"When I hear big words in the future, I'll think back when I had them on a test, and know what they mean." - Chelsea Sims

Science

Patti Leiske said, "I liked dissecting frogs in Biology II. It was a fun lab! We got to really see what they looked like inside."

Participating in labs and hands-on activities was a big part of Biology, Chemistry, Anatomy and Physics. Students not only stated that it was very fun, but it really helped them better understand the chapter, if they were struggling with their notes or reading.

Stephanie Watson said, "My class didn't do very many lab experiments this year, so they didn't really help me that much."

"I admire Miss Applegate because she has been through so much this year and yet she still teaches very well," said Lesley Steinhardt.

Anita Woodruff taught all high school science classes, while Elizabeth Applegate taught junior high science and one section of biology.

"Biology was a lot easier this year than it was last year," said Alyssa Brown.

"I really liked studying about the process of cells dividing and making copies of themselves. These processes are called mitosis and meiosis. An activity that we did was taking flowers apart and labeling the parts of them," said Paige Jones.

Sophomore Stephanie VonFange said, "I really liked the labs. We had a big variety of experiments from dissecting frogs to testing sunscreen on bananas. I enjoyed the experiments with animals the most since I ended up naming most of my 'guinea pigs'."

"Mrs. Armbrrecht taught us how to write and balance both formulas and reactions," said Jimmy Leveille. -Tabatha Smith

Mathematics

Math classes offered at Shawe Memorial were Algebra I and Algebra II, Pre-Calculus, Geometry, and Calculus. Mrs. Teresa Torline joined the staff, teaching seventh grade math, Algebra I, Geometry and Pre-Calculus in a addition to math teacher Jane Riehle. Riehle, along with Andie Martin, won the first ever teacher's award that was handed out during Catholic Schools Week. They were selected by students by writing a paper nominating the teacher that most inspired them.

Jacob Laskowski said, "At work I have to add up all kinds of things, and it gets to be really hard sometimes."

Freshmen George Alcorn said, "Math will help me budget my money."

Math Culbreth answered that "I learned a ton more this year in one day then I learned in the whole year last year."

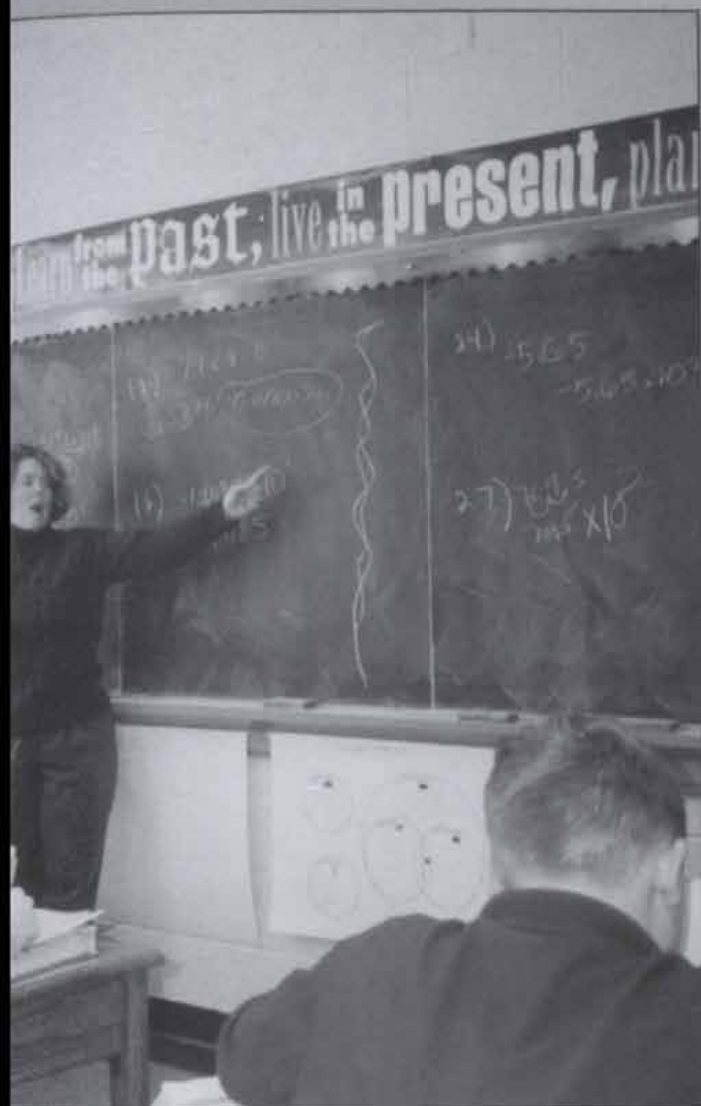

Stephanie Watson said "Geometry is the hardest math class that I've taken."

Eighth grader Paige Jones commented, "Depending on what career I choose, math could be helpful in my future"

Freshmen Elizabeth Kelly who takes Algebra II said, "I just don't study for the tests and I seem to do very well on them, probably because Mrs. Riehle plays a review game with us." -Sarah Yeager

Social Studies

Students started school with a new Social Studies teacher, Chad Duvall, and a new Geography teacher, Will Jones. Instead of students being required to write a report for History Day, the social studies classes were asked to write a ten-page report on a person that has affected history.

Will Jones said, "My favorite things about teaching Social Studies and Geography are the lively and interesting debates and enthusiasm the students bring to class for the material."

The freshmen Geography class had to keep in touch with what was going on around the world. Every week they had a current events quiz.

"Taking Geography class makes me want to travel because it shows and tells about exotic places in pictures, textbooks, and movies, which makes it look beautiful and fun to see," said Elizabeth Kelly.

"I really liked learning about different places in the world," said George Alcorn

Most classes were required to make projects after each chapter, such as a project on a poster, a presentation or a report. Students agree, having to write long reports and taking tests isn't much fun. -Tabatha Smith

Religion

Religion classes had two new teachers join Sister Jane Ann Breen and Aline Schafer in the religion department. Father Ryan McCarthy and Bridget Fry began their teaching careers. As a first year teacher, Fry was committed to helping students have a good day with her positive attitude. Meanwhile, Father was concerned that the students were behind in church doctrine and piled on the homework. In addition, for the first time, students were graded on regular Mass attendance.

"Religion is very cool. Father McCarthy makes me want to learn more about my religion and my faith," said Hilary Rucker.

When Rupa Yeager was asked what she had learned in religion, she said, "I have learned so many interesting facts that I can't think of just one."

Lynsi Monroe said, "My favorite part of religion is Mrs. Fry. She is very helpful and kind."

Fry's class learned about the book of Genesis by creating their own books. They made cartoon drawings and the book covered creation to Joseph and his many colored coat.

Students claim Father McCarthy taught the seniors far more than religion. He also taught the boys how to tie a tie and how to waltz.

Lunchtime

Lunch was one half hour enjoyed by all, whether it was eating lunch, or coming back to the student lounge, buying snacks and talking with friends.

Greg Guarino said, "The part I enjoyed most, was when I went to the student lounge and talked with the guys."

Some days the students enjoyed everything on their trays and other days many students ate only one thing on their tray.

"Overall the student lunches were better than last year's because of the forum. The students really expressed their opinions about lunch," said freshman Tabatha Smith.

The half hour lunch provided the students not only time to fill their stomachs but also time to talk with their pals and even more importantly time to take a break from classes.

Rachel Cox said, "The part I like about lunch is having the half hour off homework and class lectures. At this time I can just sit, eat and talk with my friends. Then I get a little exercise walking from school to school while I'm at it."

Sometimes students didn't like what was being served so they just didn't eat at all, but the Student Council helped by having Fast Food Friday's once a month. Then the students chose what fast food they wanted. After lunch students went to the student lounge and talked with their friends and bought candy. To some students this was their favorite part of the day because it was different from the rest of the day. -Jarrod Perry

Junior high students fulfilled their one semester computer requirement and enjoyed the experience for a number of reasons. Maria Berry said, "I like computers because I get on MSN and talk to my friends."

"I like to talk to my friends and type reports," said Rachelle Tandy. Jamie Priest said, "I like to use the computer for the internet." Megan Roberts said "I get on MSN and talk to my friends and sometimes for reports."

LouAnn Center's economic and accounting class, taught students how money works in the real world. Tenth grader Zoe Ralston said, "I think all the accounting is easy but it takes a lot of work and you have to be sure all your numbers are correct. Posting in journals is very easy and it comes quickly to me."

Senior Jenna Hackney said, "I don't really have a favorite project in accounting because I like all the work we do."

"Accounting is a good class to take because I'm good with numbers and it is an easy class to take," said Katie Sommer said.

Greg Guarino said, "I chose accounting because I feel like it will be beneficial to my career choice. It is a lot of hard busy work but I enjoy it."

Jarrod Perry said "I like to talk to my friends on the internet and look interesting things up on Yahoo." -Sarah Yeager

Foreign Language

Spanish students made posters of famous Latino sports players. Some of the posters included Roberto Clemente, Juan Marichall and even Sammy Sosa.

Some Spanish students made masks out of paper mache. They covered balloons with mache and then popped the balloons. Next they cut the paper mache form in half and then decorated it with paint and various art supplies.

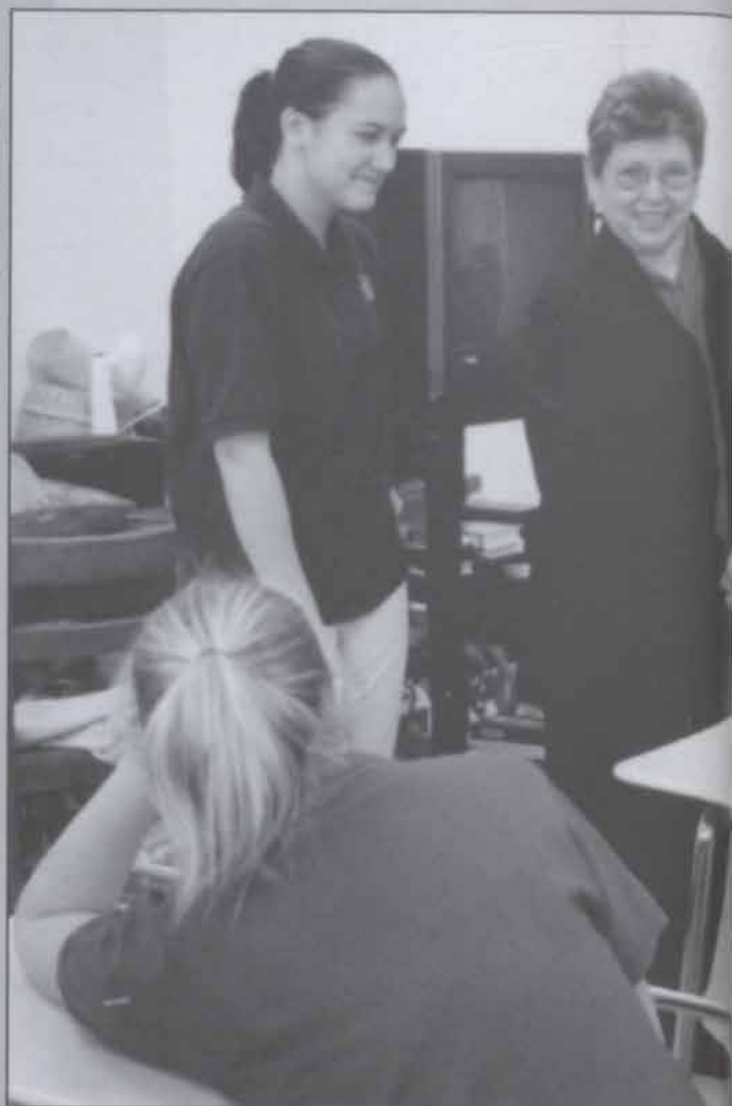

French class had a field trip to Louisville, Kentucky to see a play. They watched "The Three Musketeers". Afterwards they dined at a French restaurant.

The ninth grade Spanish class went to see the Flamenco Ballet in Louisville, Kentucky. Afterwards the students ate at Don Pablos in Clarksville, Indiana.

Spanish Classes celebrated Cinco de Mayo on May 5 which was Mexico's Independence Day. They broke pinatas, ate Mexican food, and listened to a guest speaker talk about Mexico.

The eighth grade class was allowed to take Spanish I if they took junior high Spanish in seventh grade. Their class went to Tapatios to experience the taste of Mexican food. When asked what is it was like taking Advanced Spanish I, Cody Harms replied, "Well, it's a lot harder than junior high Spanish, but it's kind of cool to learn more advanced Spanish. It's a lot of work, but if you work at it, it can become very rewarding." - Joshua Taffinger

Fine Arts

Students had a choice of three fine arts classes - band, drama, or visual arts. They were challenged with many different projects and activities.

The drama class put on a play called Angels Were Mortals with the student council serving a dinner. This play was the first of its kind at Shawe. The audience ate as they watched the play.

Cortney Hoffman said, "In drama we are going to put on a really funny play in April. I think it will be a hit! I like drama and acting because I get to hang out with my friends, and Mrs. Sego is such a good teacher."

Visual arts this year has been very successful in and out of the classroom. This year the students have enjoyed doing projects such as making bottle lamps using clay beads. Megan Phillips said, "I really like having Mrs. Williams for a teacher. She makes you do your best and work to your full potential."

Erin Jacobson said, "My favorite activity was trying to paint 3D figures. It was a lot of fun and it kept my interest."

"My favorite activity we did this year was when we went to the art museum in Louisville and we had a crazy tour guide," said Doug Ungru.

Band is a very relaxing class. "I enjoy talking with my friends in all our free time," said Courtney King. Chris Deaton said, "I enjoyed playing pretty much all of the music during the second semester class. The music we played were challenging and more enjoyable than those of the first semester." - John Bennett

Physical Ed

I'm sick, my toe hurts, I think I have a fever. Most of these excuses were used during Physical Education. P.E. was used to help teens get in shape and give them extra practice for sports that they participated in at school.

"The part that I liked best about physical education class this year would have to be the workout days because they helped me get in shape and lose weight so that I can feel better about my image," said freshman Lynsi Monroe.

About new teacher Chris Gardner, Ben Schafer said, "He is way too strict. He acted like we were training for war!"

At the beginning of the school year, some students took health class while other students participated in physical education. When second semester came around, students switched classes which gave them a chance to have both classes during the school year.

"Health is the same every year! Sometimes I just get sick of it, but I guess I learn more every year about my body," says Alyssa Richards.

Health has helped many of the younger teens learn about their changing bodies and how their lives will change as they grow older and go through adolescence.

Visitors

There were several guest speakers throughout the year. One speaker was Rick Stoddard who spoke to the high school about smoking and tobacco.

Greg Guarino said, "I really liked the guy, I enjoyed his message and learned a lot about the negative effects of smoking."

During Diversity Week Douglas Chug and Nicole spoke about Hawaii. They talked about how their culture was really different from ours and that they are no different from anyone else.

"On Hawaii day, I learned to make a fire and climb trees! I learned how to get food from coconut", mentioned Zoe Ralston.

Tuesday, was Japan day and Stacy Shaffer, demonstrated to all the high school students how to make origami items. On Wednesday, Reverend David Yeager came in to talk to the high school and junior high about politics and religion in the middle east. Friday was Irish Day and everyone wore green and then during fourth period everyone went to their class sponsor and Jacob Laskowski and Kathryn Gray read questions

Students Learn Outside Classroom

-Julie Zubaty

Throughout the school year students were provided with an opportunity to take their learning to a level beyond the classroom. The School-to-Work program continued to give upperclassmen a chance to gain hands-on experience in the areas of their interest. "I enjoyed everything about school-to-work at the hospital because being in surgery I saw many cool things. My favorite thing was scrubbing in a case and holding a man's small intestine," said senior Breanna Thevenow. Field trips also proved to be a great learning experience for students. "My favorite field trip was when the Spanish Class went to Marian College. I learned more about Spanish traditions and culture. It was really fun," said sophomore Zoe Ralston. Several students also went on the Parish Youth Mission Trip to Mexico. Senior Clayton Tandy said, "My favorite part of the trip was eating the tacos when we first got there that most of the locals were afraid to eat. I felt brave!"

FieldTrips

What was your favorite field trip?

"My favorite field trip was going to Marion College for spanish. We got to experience their culture and do activities that help us learn more about the people. We got to choose what we wanted to learn about and then took classes on it. Even though they spoke in spanish it was a good learning experience and helps us pick up the language."

- Zoe Ralston

"A few of us went to St. Mary's in North Vernon to recruit students to Shawe. We spoke about all the fun activities and academics Shawe offers. I think a lot of their students got to see a good image of Shawe, and hopefully will come their freshmen year. I think they were pretty surprised to know that there was a catholic high school near them."

- Jacob Laskowski

"The yearbook field trip was a lot of fun this year, but Mrs. Williams seemed to get us lost again! The best part was learning how to develop pictures in a dark room. It is amazing how long and hard it is to get a picture to look good. If one little thing goes wrong then you have to do the whole picture over."

Most students had the opportunity and chance to experience learning outside the classroom. Carole Williams' journalism class had the chance to go to Indiana University Southeast and learn how to develop pictures. "At first I hated it and I was very frustrated because I could not get my pictures to turn out right. But after awhile I got the hang of it and I started to enjoy myself," said John Bennett. "My favorite field trip this year would have to be when journalism went to Indiana University Southeast and developed pictures. It took a while for mine to work but I did it," said Sara Yeager.

Dorothy Brooks senior English class also took a trip to the Hanover College Library. "I enjoyed our class trip to the Hanover library because it explained their complex computer system. It also gives me another place to research," said Maggie King.

Third year Spanish students were also able to go on a field trip to Marian College in Indianapolis to learn about the lives and background of the Spanish people. "My favorite field trip was when we went to Marion College for Spanish because we got to learn about the background and language," said Heather Atkinson.

Art students also had the chance to go JB Speed Art Museum. "My favorite field trip was the art field trip because our tour guide was crazy. She said it was okay for artist to expand their minds," said Evan Hensley. -John Bennett

Experience

The school-to-work program began another successful year in 2002. Many students chose to go to a place of their own interest during an elective period. The program provided students with the chance to learn outside of the classroom and gain hands-on experience in an area that they might want to pursue in the future.

"I liked helping Mr. Kortman. He was always doing something and I thought it would be good to help him out. We fixed the air conditioning, changed light bulbs, worked on the new concession stand by the softball and soccer fields, and other odds and ends that the teachers needed us to do," said junior Josh Watterson.

"I really enjoyed working with the fifth graders at Pope John. The kids were all great and I got to learn a lot about what its like to be a teacher. Hopefully some of the things I learned will come in handy in the future," said senior Julie Zubaty.

Many students also had the chance to travel to different places around town. Senior Breanna Thevenow went to a different location each semester. "First semester I got to work in surgery at the hospital. I got to see a lot of cool things and I even got to hold a man's small intestine. Second semester I worked at OVO Headstart. # Learning

In June 2002, 17 youth and 3 adults traveled to San Miguel de Allende, Mexico for the Parish Youth Mission Trip. Volunteers were divided into three groups, each going to either La Casa de Don Hogar, Mexiquito, or La Casa de los Angeles.

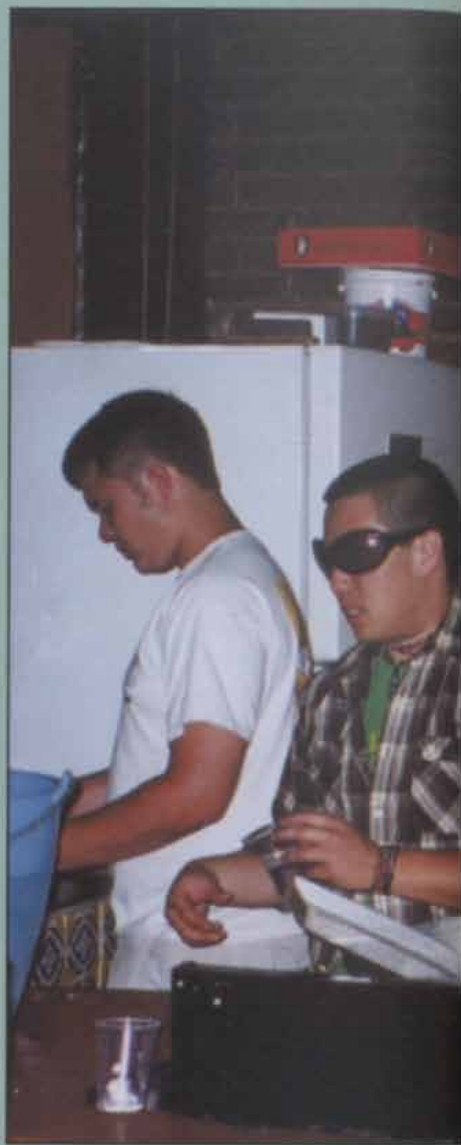

At La Casa de Don Hogar, an all girls orphanage, volunteers got to play with the children and help them with their chores. "Even though we couldn't communicate with them efficiently, we taught them a lot of songs in English. They taught us a lot of songs in Spanish too. We had a lot of fun teaching them 'Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes!'" said Annette Laiske.

At Mexiquito, an all boys orphanage, volunteers entertained the children and did work around the orphanage. "We worked really hard moving heavy rocks. It was cool to get to help other people," said Nate Stormer.

At La Casa de los Angeles, a day care center, volunteers played with the kids and helped them with school work such as learning the alphabet. They also helped with some of the physical labor. Clayton Tandy said, "I worked really hard. I had to clean and carry five-gallon buckets for miles."

For Life

In January 2003, four Shawe and two Madison students traveled to Washington D.C. for the Archdiocesan Youth Pilgrimage for Life, or more commonly known of as the Pro-Life March. It was a peaceful demonstration that is held every year on the anniversary of the court case of Roe vs. Wade, which made abortion legal in the United States.

"It was nice to be a part of something that means a lot to so many people. Even though we were a small group and didn't feel like we contributed much, just our presence there made a difference. If every small group that wanted to go didn't because they didn't think they could make a difference, then eventually no one would go," said Julie Zubaty.

Even through the cold, inclement weather, the students marched on. "The actual march only took about an hour once we got started. But we stood there just waiting for about two hours. It was so cold!" said Megan Phillips.

Sight-seeing through Washington, D.C. was also included in the trip. Students traveled to Arlington Cemetery, the Holocaust Museum, the Smithsonian Institute, a Franciscan Monastery, and attended a Mass at the Basilica. "I liked going to the Holocaust Museum because I got to learn a lot about something I didn't know much about. I thought it was really neat to see so many people crowded into one museum to learn about the same thing," said Katie Schafer. -Julie Zubaty

What was your favorite part of the trip?

"My favorite part of the trip was getting to go sight-seeing. I've never been to Washington, D.C. before so I got to see a lot of the historic sights you always see on T.V. in person."

-Julie Zubaty

"My favorite part of the D.C. trip was how everyone was so welcoming to everyone else. I didn't expect that kind of atmosphere in such a diverse city."

-Megan Phillips

"My favorite part was touring Washington because I hadn't been there since I was little. I remembered some of the places like the Smithsonian Institute. The March was a great experience too."

French Trip

Junior Kevin Schafer loads luggage on to the TGV train with the help of Doug Ungru. Students only had a few minutes to board the train that would take them to Avignon.

"My favorite site that I saw when I was on my trip in Europe was the Notre Dame Cathedral. I thought it was interesting because it used to be painted and we learned that the little painting that was left on the building was on Adam's leg."

-Bretani Munier

"The Rocky beach of the Mediterranean Sea was my favorite site that we saw when we were in the city of Nice. The beach was very interesting because it had rocks on it instead of sand. The water was also really awesome because it was so clear."

-Michael Waller

"My favorite part of the trip was when I saw the mime in the city of Eze. He was really funny because he reminded me of Mr. Varble. The mime was one of the many performers I saw on the streets in France."

Seventeen French Club Students and twelve volunteer chaperones traveled overseas to explore Europe. The trip started out in London, England where the students learned all about the British Royal culture. After London the students traveled by the underground Chunnel to the country of France. In France students saw first hand what they had been learning in French class for several years. They also saw how French society differs from the American culture. "I noticed that the French people eat a lot more bread with their meals than we do here in America. I also saw that a lot of people like to eat outside and watch the people go by on the street," said Katie Schafer. Students also found that French food was a lot different than American food. "My favorite food in France that I had not eaten before was duck because it appealed to my taste buds. I also liked their oranges because they were very sweet and almost a reddish color on the outside," said Seth Hall. "Of all the places we went to, I enjoyed the little town of Avignon the best because I liked all of the little shops. I also enjoyed the markets where you could go and buy all the different food products from different booths but all in one place," said Breanna Thevenow. The trip was a great cultural experience for students because they were able to use the language they had been learning in class several years and to see first hand European culture. - Anna Barber

With countless trash bags sold and spending money in their pockets, the eighth graders headed to Washington D.C. under the leadership of religion teachers Father Ryan McCarthy and Bridget Fry. Emily Knight said, "I really liked the eighth grade trip to Washington D.C. My favorite thing about it was getting to know and grow closer to my classmates. I loved being away from normal life in Madison. Most of the time I felt rushed, but I liked it. It was exciting. Overall, it was an awesome trip and a great learning experience." The students also got to eat at Magionno's, a very nice Italian restaurant. The students were required to dress up and look nice for the occasion. Cody Harms said, "I liked eating at Magionno's because we got to dress up, eat all this fancy food and feel all important. Also the guys had this dude in their bathroom to give them gum and wash their hands, but there wasn't one in the girls." Even though the students learned from the trip, they still had lots of fun. "The funniest part of the trip was when Nick Torline squeaked a whole bunch and Thomas Barber fell off of the bed at the hotel," Joseph Bear said. Thirteen chaperones went along to help. They were Gerry Lauderbaugh, Jeanie Martin, Tom Barber, Kathy Chandler, Joanie Bear, Joe Craig, Priscilla Torline, Susan Schmidt, Rick McGee, John Campbell, Troy Morgan, Bridget Fry, and Father Ryan McCarthy. "One night we went out on a nighttime walk around the mall and it was pouring and the monuments were all lit up and it was really pretty and half of the class started singing songs, laughing and stomping in in puddles. All the other people were looking at us like we were weird. Overall the trip was really fun."

- Alyssa Richard

"The best part was definitely not the walking. I liked seeing all the sites, like the White House, the reflecting pool, and the Duck Tour were all pretty cool. But the best was messing around at the hotel. That was the coolest."

- Patrick Craig

"I liked getting to see the Washington Monument and the Korean War Memorial, because previously I had never gotten to go to the Washington Monument and my grandfather served in the Korean War. I also liked the hotel, because it was a Four-Star and I rarely get to stay in those. Overall, I think that Maggioni's was very cool, because they had lots of really good food."

Experience

Reality

The Reality Store was enlightening for many of the eighth grade students. The students got a chance to see how they would manage their expenses and family. Students came from all over Jefferson County to this year's Reality Store. They each had a choice of jobs based on their grade point average. Ones with the highest grades got to choose any job they wanted. Paige Jones said, "I was a pilot. I picked this job because it was the job that made the most money and had health insurance. Doctors didn't get health insurance." Many others were train conductors and relators. Alyssa Hall said, "I was a nurse. I picked being a nurse because my friend was being a doctor, and we wanted to do almost the same thing, plus my mommy is a nurse." With salaries ranging from thirty-thousand to ninety-thousand, many had to have second jobs. Jared Martin said, "My second job at the Reality Store was hard labor. I needed the extra income to have some money left over at the end of the month." Others didn't have to get second jobs because they had enough money to last the month. John Stack said "I ended up with a little over $1,000. It didn't really surprise me how much money I had because I was a doctor, and they make a lot of money." Even if they made enough money everyone had big purchases. Tom Seaver said "My biggest purchase at the Reality Store was my 1994 Ford Probe. I bought because it was cheap, and I didn't have much money." Overall most would say that this year's Reality Store was a success in Jefferson County. - Kathryn Gray

"The Reality Store was really fun. I learned a lot about a person's income, and where all the money really goes. You don't ever really get all of your paycheck. You have to pay for taxes, insurance, and all that other stuff. Sometimes it can get pretty confusing."

- Nick Torline

"I really liked the reality store. I saw a lot of people from other schools that I don't get to see very often. I liked being in control of what I did and not having people tell me what to do. I also like not having to go back to school afterwards."

- Emily Knight

"I chose the same job as my dad and by luck I got three kids, which is the same as my family. It was interesting to see what my Mom and Dad have to do to support me. The amount of money I had at the end really did surprise me."

Students Take Time For Clubs

Organizations were limited in quantity but important to the students. New organizations included Amnesty International, Ecology Club and Encore Show Choir. Amnesty International was a club that wrote letters to other governments to improve human rights. "I enjoy being a part of Amnesty International because I have a feeling of satisfaction in knowing that I am helping people who are being denied their essential human rights," said Megan Phillips. Encore performed at several events. They also released a holiday CD and had a press conference to introduce it. "I think the performances are the most exciting because it is so fun to see people's reactions," said Rebecca McClure. The Student Council's sponsorship of Mini-Shawe games provided an afternoon of enjoyment. "It was a chance for Student Council to test out new games for the big Shawe Games in May," said Maureen Stack. Clubs provided activities for students during their free time.

There were sixteen students in the National Junior Honor Society and fifteen in the National Honor Society. The National Junior Honor Society supported a family at Christmas and they went caroling during the holidays too. They also celebrated St. Nick Day. All the students and teachers got free coupons to McDonald and Wendy's. Teachers were asked to place their shoes outside of their classrooms and the Junior National Honor Society members placed candy and goodies in them. Junior Greg Guarino said "As far as this year has gone, yes, we have had a good year. This year has definitely run smoothly and everyone I concern myself with has gotten a lot closer too." "The best thing National Honor Society did for the school this year was Teacher Appreciation Week. It was fun for both students and teachers, I think it showed the teachers that that we are thankful for all the they do for us," said senior Maureen Stack. National Junior Honor Society was fun. I learned a lot about being a responsible leader." "It was a lot of fun doing activities with kids from Pope John," said Paige Jones. lives.

Protecting human rights was the motivation of Amnesty International. Members of this newly formed club spent most of their time writing letters to protect human rights in other countries around the world. Getting people to join was tough for the club because their purpose was constantly misunderstood. "The biggest challenge we faced this year was the misunderstanding about what our organization stood for. We do not support terrorists, and we are not a terrorist organization as former people have mistaken us for. We are here to support global human rights and the UN's Declaration of Human Rights," said Mrs. Martin, who only wishes for the confusion to be settled. Students involved had their own reasons for joining the club. "I joined Amnesty International because I think it's a good cause and I want to protect human rights. I'm entitled to human rights and everyone else should be also," said Alyssa Brown. "I joined Amnesty International because I wanted to help victims of crimes against humanity and protect those who stand up for their beliefs," said Eric Brichto. - Stephanie Von Fange

Winning the Hoosier Star Award for best overall yearbook in the state for schools with less than eight hundred students was a highlight this year.

"I enjoy being a part of yearbook because it allows me to work at my own pace and see a finished product at the end of the year. It was an honor to receive the Hoosier Star Award even though they misspelled my name," said Cameron Willoughby.

Journalism students worked hard to beat deadlines and sell ads. Hard work leads to success and that was goal. Students were rewarded for their hard work with pizza and other special events.

"Selling ads was fun, but it involved a lot of hard work. Sometimes it was hard getting in touch with people, but it all worked out," said Sarah Yeager.

"Sometimes getting pages done on time was difficult because people didn't always turn in their quote sheets. I like that we get to see the yearbook before it comes out. That's the fun part," said Tabatha Smith.

developing New

Student Council accomplished much this year with new ideas that led to big accomplishments. Jacob Laskowski, President of Student Council, said, "This year we did a lot, like the Topper Tribune, Fast Food Fridays, Shawe Games and Mini-Shawe Games. We brought back Diversity Week for the second year and we cleaned the church once a month. We also resurrected the recycling program and advent buddies. We organized Shawe's first open forum for student expression and helped improve many things, such as the school lunch and seniority issues." Student Council as a group achieved much, yet certain individual's felt some things were bigger accomplishments than others. Secretary Cameron Willoughby said, "I feel that our biggest accomplishment this year was reorganizing the constitution and trying to ensure the total participation in Student Council events such as the Dinner Theatre."

The Dinner Theatre

earned its place as one favorite new activity for the school year. "One of my favorite Student Council activities this year was when we teamed up with the Drama Club for the Dinner Theatre. The play went well and the food was great!" said Vice President Maureen Stack. by Stephanie Von Fange

With as much as 14 members Encore made a great start for their first year at Shawe. The club became a favorite hobby for most of the students involved and many highlights remain in the minds of the members. Rebecca McClure said, "I liked the competitions in Encore the most. We got to watch many other show choirs who are really good, and we got to have so many different experiences." These experiences included many trips to exciting places and working hard as a team-which Encore seemed to show at every performance regardless the situation. "My favorite part of Encore was preparation. We worked hard to put together a great sing-and-dance show which we competed with at various places. We got to hang out with brilliant choreographers and master vocalists. We also got to go to the Music in the Parks competition at Kings Island!" said Vanessa Torline. Encore also were tough competitors for some of the other show choirs. "One of my highlights in Encore was going to Edgewood and beating Oakhill, who were one of our top competitors. We placed 5th overall." said Adam Culbreth. by Stephanie Von Fange

French students were determined to raise money for trip

Everyone was either playing Euchre or playing on the three on three basketball tournament. Alyssa Hall and Cody Harms won the Euchre tournament. Michael Waller, Caleb Tandy, Matt Goley, and Kevin Schaefer won the three on three basketball tournament. "I enjoyed getting to sit around and play cards or watch people play basketball. The food was good, too," said Maggie King.

The Euchre tournament was not the only thing the French Club did to raise money to go on the trip to France. They also sold candles to parents and candy to the students.

They did well and raised $2,672.61. Katie Schafer said, "We've done many fundraisers over the last two years and it took a lot of my free time but in the end it all paid off. I think our trip to Europe will be something that I will remember for the rest of my life."

John Bennett said, "I enjoy the French Club because we get to have fun with our friends and sell candy at lunch." "Selling candy is an easy way to raise money. We all work as a team to earn the money for our trip in 2005," said Stephanie Von Fange. - Josh Taflinger

Speaking about Spanish Club fundraising Alyssa Brown said, "We had several fundraisers this year to raise money to go to Mexico. Some of our fundraisers didn't go as well as we hoped. We had good ideas but people didn't seem to get interested. Hopefully, things will go better next year."

One such incident that Alyssa referred to was the Business Expo 2003. Denise Hackney agreed to set up a Spanish food booth when she was told to prepare for 500-1,000 people. However, the Expo did not entice that many citizens, the weather was unfavorable and workers for the Expo had their meals provided.

Students in the Spanish Club additionally sold pizza every month at lunchtime. This was a nice break which allowed students to stay at Shawe during the lunch break.

However, fundraising wasn't the only activity that Spanish students participated in. Field trips included Spanish plays, Mexican Restaurant outings, to Marion College to watch Spanish dancers and learn more in depth about the Spanish culture. Students came back from these field trips more interested in learning to communicate in Spanish. -Carole Williams

Rowdies Gettin'

The Rowdies once again, the rowdies were able to show their support throughout this sports season. This year started off with volleyball, which is the first girl's sport of the season. The Rowdies were there to support our team during their season.

are back again and better "One of the most memorable games we went to this year was the game against Madison. It was their senior night and we went in and gave them a tough game," said senior Nate Stormer.

"The coolest thing we did this year were the pyramids. They were very amazing. The biggest one we attempted this year, was the one at the Madison game when we tried to get five people on the bottom," said sophomore Joe Stack.

The Rowdies also attended many of the girl's basketball games. Giving the officials their opinion was not uncommon. Many of the Rowdies attended girl's basketball sectionals where they showed support by painting their chests to spell out various encouraging phrases.

Many of the Rowdies also painted their chests before the boy's basketball game at Madison. The Rowdies along with the Irish Chicks were able to keep fan's rowdiness during that game at an all time high. "The fans at the Madison game were awesome. The students there showed a lot of spirit," said senior Caleb Tandy. by Cameron Willoughby

Students Take Time Out for Sports

This sports season was full of big news. The soccer team won conference but the title was thrown into controversy because an unlicensed official was found to have refereed four of Shave's games. "I thought that it was wrong to take our title away. We were the best team in the conference and deserve to have the recognition that goes along with it," said senior midfielder Matt Goley. Shave's volleyball team had a fairly good year. Senior Julie Zubaty said, "We had difficulties adjusting to the new scoring style but, eventually we got used to it." Our cross-country team featured an all-conference runner, sophomore Patti Leiske. The basketball team was faced with the challenge of adjusting to a new head coach. During the course of the season Mr. Jerry Bomholt reached his 300th career win. "This season was fun and I enjoyed getting better everyday and becoming more disciplined on and off the court this year," said junior guard Kevin Schafer.

HARD WORK AND HIGH SPIRITS HELP TEAM GROW

Bump, Set, Spike!

The Junior High Volleyball team began their season with high hopes. New team mates and one new coach set the pace for a new year.

"We got to know the seventh graders a lot better during the season. If I hadn't played volleyball this season I probably would never have got to know them as well as I did," said eighth grader Emily Knight.

The team also enjoyed the bus rides to away games. "We always sang on the bus rides to all the songs we knew. And if we didn't know the song we would just pretend we did and sing anyways!" said eighth grader Alyssa Richards.

Although the junior high teams didn't win many games, their hard work and determination showed off by the end of the season. "At first we didn't really get along too well. We fought with each other a lot and got frustrated that we weren't winning as much as we could have. But by the end of the season we just started having fun and we all got a long much better," said seventh grader Maria Berry.

Playing volleyball in junior high will prove to be an advantage for next year. Team members will be more prepared for playing on varsity and junior varsity levels. "I am excited for the people that will play next year," said junior Heather Atkinson. -Julie Zubaty

"Practice was one of my favorite things about volleyball. We always made it fun and learned a lot too!"

Rachelie Tandy

"The bus rides were very interesting. Sometimes, odd, but interesting. We had a lot of fun though."

Kathryn Gray

"The best part of this season was when we beat Madison! That is always the biggest game of the year!"

Katie Amick

"Singing on the bus rides to away games was always a lot of fun. But sometimes I think we sang too loud for the bus driver!"

Brittany Ryan

Ultimate Goal!

Everyone was excited when both the junior varsity and varsity won the match against cross-town rival Madison early in the season. Sarah Berry said, "I really liked volleyball because my team won lots of games and it was fun when we would sing while we were playing." Anna Barber said, "I liked home games because we had fans to cheer us on.

Support from our fans always helped us play better." "I think the best time in volleyball this year was before and after the games on the bus singing 'My Girl' and tickling Chaffy until she started to cry," said Erica Lemm. In October, during sectionals in Henryville, Shawe varsity played against Graceland Christian.

The team ended the season with a record of six wins and eighteen losses. Normally the freshmen had to line judge for the varsity games and the varsity lined judged for Junior Varsity.

Freshmen sometimes split the job during a tournament. "I think everyone gets better. If we don't then what is the point in going to practice," commented Katie Sommers.

The Cross Country runners were plagued with low numbers. Because of their low numbers they couldn't com-pete as a team.

Despite these difficulties,

Patti Leiske still made the All-Conference Team. She said,

"The most fun about this year's team was being the only girl on the high school team and making All-Conference."

Greg Hodges said, "The most fun thing about being on the Cross Country Team was the feeling you get after running and you know you don't have to run for another twenty-one hours."

The most fun about this year team for Dustin Reed was, "Even though I did bad at a meet my team always supported me."

Kenny Leveille said, "Stopping off at Dairy Queen after a meet was the most fun about this years team."

Become Stronger?

Soccer has become one of the dominate sports in the Indiana High School Athletic Association. Many athletes began to work on learning the game inside and out. The soccer teams at Shawe were part of this new wave. The main goals of the junior high teams was to prepare young men and women for the varsity level of athletics. The varsity soccer program flourished as of late thanks to the great junior high program. The team was very successful with nine wins and only one loss to accompany three ties. All and all it was a great season. All of the eighth graders that choose to play will be on the varsity team. "I just like playing soccer in the first place. I have always liked playing soccer. It is challenging and fun all at the same time," said John Stack. My favorite part of playing soccer was that the whole team liked to hang out together and it was a good way for me to get to know a lot of the seventh graders better," said Jacob Schmidt. "Being the team captain was a big responsibility. I had to be a leader for all of the other players," said Todd Ungru. -Cameron Willoughby

Jacob Bump

Maureen Stack

Varsity soccer season was a huge disappointment in one respect.

Despite injuries, the team was able to win the

Conference

Championship.

However, the worst news of the season was about to come.

Accusations began to arise that Shawe had an unlicensed official at four of their Conference games.

Jim McKenna, the Shawe Athletic Director, fought non-stop for the players so the Toppers could keep what they deserved, a winning trophy for a winning team.

"They shouldn't have punished the team and school, we had no idea about the unlicensed Referee. We deserve the OVRC Conference trophy," said

Matthew Culbreth. "Even though I was injured this year, I was really happy to be a part of the team. It was cool when we were able to win the conference championship for the first time in the school's history," said

John Bennett.

"Soccer season was great because of how successful we were and how close the players were as a team.

Even though we didn't win sectionals we were still the best team in the conference and everyone knows that," said

Daniel Butler. -Cameron Willoughby

COACH CHANGE IN MID SEASON HURT TEAM MORALE

On and Off Court

Tennis players had a rough ride throughout the season, but met many of the goals that they set with themselves. Philip

Berry met one of his goals by playing varsity singles for the year. "My greatest accomplishment was when Kevin Schafer and I won back to back matches," said George Alcorn.

When asked about his season, Chris Deaton said, "Well I had a rough season this year personally and you could also say it was laughable, but I did beat Matt Swisher in my first match of the season and that was a good win and a big personal accomplishment that I had set for myself at the beginning of the year." Chris was the team captain and showed positive leadership on and off of the tennis court. Some of the team's problems can be attributed to a change in coaching staff mid season. Even though Ryan Barringer had no coaching experience, he graciously agreed to step up. "I feel like if we play to our full potential we will have a good team and a good season next year," said Ben Dicken. -John Bennett

CHEERLEADERS SHOW STRONG SPIRIT STANDS

Pump It Up!

Four cheerleaders made up the Hilltoppers varsity squad "I really enjoyed the cheerleaders and fans during the games. It really got my adrenaline flowing," said Ben Schafer. "I liked being able to support our boys even though we didn't get much appreciation. Some people didn't think we should've been there but I am glad I got to be apart of it," said Katie Schafer.

"Cheering at Homecoming was a lot like cheering like the other games except it was a little louder and there were a lot more people screaming very loudly," said Cody Harms. "The cheerleaders really helped the team get fired up and get ready for our games", said

Andrew Bear. "The cheerleaders really got me pumped up for the game, even if I wasn't really into it", quoted Sarah Yeager. "I think the most enjoyable thing about cheerleading was making a dance and performing it for everyone at the Madison vs. Shawe junior high game," said Megan Roberts.

"I enjoyed cheering this year because it was really fun getting to know the other cheerleaders better and even though there were only four of us, we worked hard and had fun", said Chelsea Sims. - Tabatha Smith

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS BASKETBALL GETS OFF TO A

Running Start

Junior high girls basketball improved from the beginning of the season to the end. Both teams had few players, but they made up for it on the court.

Many games were close. Although the girls worked hard through the season they still had time for fun. Seventh Grader Maria Berry said, "The season was fun. I had some good times." "My favorite game this year was when we almost beat Madison. We only lost by two points. It was still cool though," said Kristin Waller. "We have some very athletic young ladies, if we work hard during the season and off season we should see great improvement in our team, which should lead to success,"

Coach Gary Armbricht said when asked what he thought of his team.

With the help of three sixth graders,

Ebony Inskip, Patrisha Lustig and Kelsi Ward, the teams pulled together to win some games. The junior Golden Rowdies cheered the girls on at their games at home.

Thomas Barber said,

"I enjoyed coming to the girls games after our practice, spending time with my friends and yelling for our team." Many would call basketball this year a success. - Kathryn Gray

JUNIOR HIGH BOYS BASKETBALL WAS A TIME FOR

Sweating it Out

The junior high boys basketball season got off to a rocky start, but pulled it together in the end. When the team wasn't playing they could be found practicing. Through it all they still had time for fun. Seventh grader Luke Wise said, "One of the funniest things was the Austin team's fans, as they cheered in a way many had not seen." At home the boys had a loyal fan base. The junior high cheerleaders were at every home game and even some away games. Eighth grade cheerleader Alyssa Hall said, "I really enjoyed cheering the boys on at their games. I think that we helped them get pumped up during half-time and at the end of the quarters."

Even if their records didn't show it, the guys still had fun. Their coaches helped them all through the season to keep getting better. Eighth grader Thomas Barber said, "Our coaches really helped us out a lot. When we were running about our hundredth sprint we didn't like it then, but it helped us not to get as tired during the games when we played most of the time." So with the coaches and players calling it a success, this year's junior high boys basketball season was fun for all who played. -Kathryn Gray

DESPITE TOUGH SEASON GIRLS WORKED TO

Improve Their Game

The girls basketball team started out rocky and ended in disappointment.

With a young team and little experience, the girls had a rough ride all season. "My favorite thing about playing basketball this year was coming closer to my teammates and having to work as a group."

Basketball this year was a great experience with lots of memories that I will never forget. Even though we did not have a winning season I had a lot of fun playing on the post and trying to prevent people from scoring," said Hilary Rucker.

"My favorite game in basketball this year was the game against Oldenburg. I played really well this game and I had 19 points. Another thing that made practice interesting is when Katie Sommer and Rupa Yeager collided together and hit heads. There was blood everywhere," said Maggie King.

"I really enjoyed playing basketball this year. Some of the discussions on the bus rides were really interesting," said Rupa Yeager.

HARD WORK AND DETERMINATION LEADS TO REPEAT AS

Sectional Champs

Basketball took time, effort and a whole lot of energy out of everyone who competed. The basketball program had a coaching change this year, but that was not the only challenge that they faced. "One of the most difficult things for me this year was that I was a lot smaller than the rest of the players on the other teams. I had to work extra hard to get open, but I had fun, too. Practices were really hard, but it helped our team win another sectional," said freshman guard, Drew Kring. The team had a rough start to the year, but almost ended up winning fifty percent of their games and winning sectionals.

"It was an awesome feeling to win. It was crazy to hit that free throw at the end. I never thought it would end like that. I am just happy that I decided to play this year, said senior Matt Goley. "Practice every day, after school, was really hard, but it paid off in the end because I was able to be a part of two basketball sectional championship teams in back to back years. I know that to win you have to work hard and pay the price," said Junior guard John Bennett. -Cameron Willoughby

"My favorite part of playing this year was winning. It was really cool to be able to win sectionals two years in a row."

Kevin Schafer

"The whole season was awesome but I think my favorite part of this year was winning sectionals again this year."

Caleb Tandy

"I really enjoyed playing for Coach Bombali and I really liked when we ate as a team at someone's house."

Doug Ungru

"Well even though I didn't play I had fun cheering with the Roushies and just going to watch the games."

Girls varsity tennis welcomed four new players to their team. With only three seniors that returned to play, the team had a very young team to work with. To start out the season, the team lost their first two matches and then won their next nine matches and ended up with a winning record for the season.

Having a young team was often challenging for the players on the team.

"The most challenging part of the season was switching from playing doubles to playing singles. I never thought they were that different until I had to switch this year," said Anna Barber.

Even though the season was hard at times for the players, the girls still managed to have an enjoyable time playing tennis.

"My favorite part of the season was when Lynsi Monroe and I won our matches. I also really liked when we stopped at Freezer Fresh on our way home from our away match at New Washington," said Sarah Berry.

"The funniest part of the season was when the worms were all over our courts.

Maggie had to sweep them off with a broom," said Sarah Barringer. -Anna Barber

PATTI LEISKE MAKES IT ALL THE WAY TO

Regional Meet

Track was one of the forgotten outdoor spring sports. It was often overshadowed by the other spring sports. The athletes that competed in this forgotten sport worked just as hard as any other. "Coaching track was a great experience for me. It was rewarding to see the kids improve over the course of the season. It was especially rewarding knowing how hard they all worked to improve," said varsity and junior high Coach Chris Gardner.

Sophomore runner Patti Leiske worked hard all year and continued her training at hurdle camp. Annette Leiske said, "Track was fun. It was a great experience for me." "It was a great way for me to meet people from many other schools and make friends." said Drew Martin.

Ben Campbell said, "I learned a lot this year and I enjoyed hanging out with my teammates."

Several sixth graders opted to join the team and were welcomed by Coaches Jim Leveille and Chris Gardner. "I thought it was a good experience and really fun." said Alex Torline. "I liked it because the coaches were really nice and had good attitudes. They didn't get mad if we didn't run vary fast."

- Cameron Willoughby

"I was really proud to make it as far as regionals. The season would've been more fun if more high school students participated."

Patti Leiske

"There is no one to rely on when you run track but yourself." "Being on the track team was very challenging. This is a sport that depends on you. There is no one else to depend on but yourself. I looked forward to seeing if I could lower my personal times."

Drew Martin

"I really enjoyed having Mr. Gardner as my track coach this season. My favorite part of this season was throwing my personal best in the shotput at conference"

Annette Leiske

I really enjoyed having Mr. Gardner for a coach he always kept me going when I was ready to quit. I set a goal for myself every match and I usually met it"

SUCCESS OF TEAM DEPENDS ON PRACTICE

On the Fairway

"The competition of high school golf is much harder than that of golf in junior high," said freshman

George Alcorn.

George and Jacob Bennett both freshmen, were the top new players on the high school team. Varsity players were not consistent which made for a frustrating

season and a frustrated coach.

During the Corydon

Invitation only one player broke 50 and that was George Alcorn, a freshman who played for the first time on that course.

The team carded a 203, 33 strokes behind third place finisher, Corydon. "Overall we played quite horrible," said Coach Matt Hall.

The junior high team, on the other hand, had a successful season. With five wins and three losses, it was a positive experience for most. However, Colin Mc-

Garry said, "I didn't play very much. Every match I was supposed to play was either cancelled or rained out. Golf was pretty fun, and I became a better

golfer, too." "I thought it was fun being on the team

because we had a winning season and were able to play golf for free

everyday," said Jacob Bump. -Carole

Williams

"I didn't like playing golf as much as I thought I would. I liked the practices, but not the meet."

Israel

Pyles

"My favorite part of playing on the golf team is having Matt Hall as a coach. He is a great coach. He takes us out to eat after each match."

Jacob

Bennett

"I had fun and got to improve my skills. I enjoyed the season and it was a fun experience."

PLAYERS TRY THEIR BEST TO HIT THE BALL

Outta the Ballpark

Baseball season was disappointing to some, because of the lack of players that went out for the team.

Junior Greg Guarino said, "I felt it was a lack of heart on a lot of people's part. I know everyone is busy with activities but sometimes you just have to play because you want to, not because you have to." Another difficulty that faced the team was that freshman Drew Krings faced a blow to the mouth by a stray bunt ball, which required him to be out for many crucial games. Students and parents supported the players throughout the season. "I thought the baseball games were very exciting. I love to give school spirit to the team. I think the best thing is yelling at the umps and getting into the game."

said Matt Culbreth.

Jesse Roberts said "I liked getting to have a lot of playing time," "I enjoyed watching the boys improve from the first game to the last,"

said Kathryn Gray. The

Toppers managed to score a win in their first sectional contest. -Tabatha Smith

WORKING, PLAYING, AND WINNING TOGETHER

Forming Closer Bonds

Softball struggled this season not only with their win-lose ratio but also with their relationships. Team members had many goals but the first and foremost was getting along as a team. "At the beginning of the season there were problems between some of the team members, but they worked everything out by deciding to get together once every two weeks as a team to do some fun activity. It worked and brought the team closer together," said Katie Sommer. Once the team sorted out their differences their next goal was to win. "Softball was tough this year. We definitely had the talent to win a lot of games but we had a hard time pulling it all together as a team," said Julie Zubaty.

Although there was only one freshman this year she earned her play time. "It was really cool being the only freshman on the team. Even though I hated carrying the equipment, I didn't mind because I got a lot of playing time.

This wasn't my first year playing softball, but it was my first year playing second base. The girls on the team were really nice and the whole season was awesome," said Tabatha Smith.

"I loved softball this year especially when the team got together as a whole. We had hot wings at my house and we also had a baby shower for our coach!"

Trayce Lawson

"Practice was awesome one day because some team members didn't know how to slide so we got out the tarp and water hose. It was so much fun."

Stephanie Von Fange

"One of my most embarrassing moments on the softball field was when I ran over the first baseman and fell on her. My team was rolling with laughter."

Annette Leiske

"Softball has been a lot of fun even though we had a rough start. I've become closer to the seniors and it will be different when they are gone."

One of the most difficult aspects of journalism, for many, was selling advertisements.

The ads were an essential part of the yearbook because without them our yearbook budget would be very small.

“The most difficult part of selling ads was trying to get in touch with the appropriate person that was responsible for the advertising of the business,” said senior Anna Barber.

“It is very difficult to communicate with some people, but overall I learned a lot about how to talk to people,” said junior John Bennett.

“I liked selling ads this year because it taught me more about people and I feel that it will help me in the future,” said sophomore Stephanie Von Fange.

“The most frustrating part of ads for me was keeping up with the billing,” said senior Julie Zubaty. Each member of the journalism class was responsible for keeping track of their own billing.

If Drew Kring could become a pro in any sport, he would pick basketball. Katheryn Gray thinks the most difficult championship to win is the NCAA. Todd Ungru's favorite actor is Adam Sandler because he rocks.

BRETANI...HAVING A DAUGHTER LIKE YOU MEANS HAVING WONDERFUL MEMORIES OF ALL THE LITTLE GIRL THINGS YOU'D SAY AND DO. IT MEANS DAYS FILLED WITH CLOSENESS AND LOVE AND INFINITE PRIDE IN ALL THAT YOU'VE BECOME. IT MEANS TOMORROWS FILLED WITH NEW JOYS TO SHARE AND APPRECIATE AS A FAMILY, AND NEW CHANCES TO TELL YOU HOW VERY MUCH YOU ARE LOVED. YOU ARE EVERYTHING WE KNEW YOU'D BE. AND MORE. SO MUCH MORE. Hundreds of suspected and known terrorists are arrested worldwide. The Guantanamo Bay U.S. Naval Station in Cuba held more than 500 al-Qaeda and Taliban prisoners.

The Transportation Security Administration coordinates airport security measures including checked baggage screening, strict security checkpoints and random searches.

THE WAR ON TERRORISM

Over the course of the year, the world's attention focused on a chain of tumultuous terrorist events. In Afghanistan, the Taliban regime fell from power as U.S. troops crippled the al-Qaeda network and cleared caves in search of Osama bin Laden. World-wide, civilians and military personnel fell victim to terrorist bombs and acts of hatred. On the home front, "bioterrorism" became a common term after it was revealed that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was producing biological weapons. Hussein's defiance of United Nation's imposed sanctions prompted the United States to seek world support of military action against Iraq. Members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization wrestled over conflicting opinions on the issue, while North Korean leader Kim Jong Il threatened to deploy nuclear weapons if Iraq was attacked. As tensions rose among political leaders, the world watched and waited to see what the next chapter in "The War on Terrorism" would bring.

One million emergency and military personnel receive Smallpox vaccinations.

World-wide, terrorist linked bank accounts are frozen indefinitely.

In Afghanistan, troops overtake the Taliban regime and dismantle the al-Qaeda network. More than 156,000 U.S. troops are deployed to Kuwait in case of a war with Iraq.

World economies cringe as oil prices rise because of threats of war.

Al-Qaeda leader Osama bin Laden evades U.S. troops in Afghanistan.

Iraq's Saddam Hussein is uncooperative with U.N. weapons inspectors.

In response to a barrage of suicide bombings, Israeli troops invade Palestinian Yasser Arafat's Ramallah compound. Arafat is thought to have supported terrorist groups.

North Korea's Kim Jong Il threatens deployment of Korea's nuclear weapons.

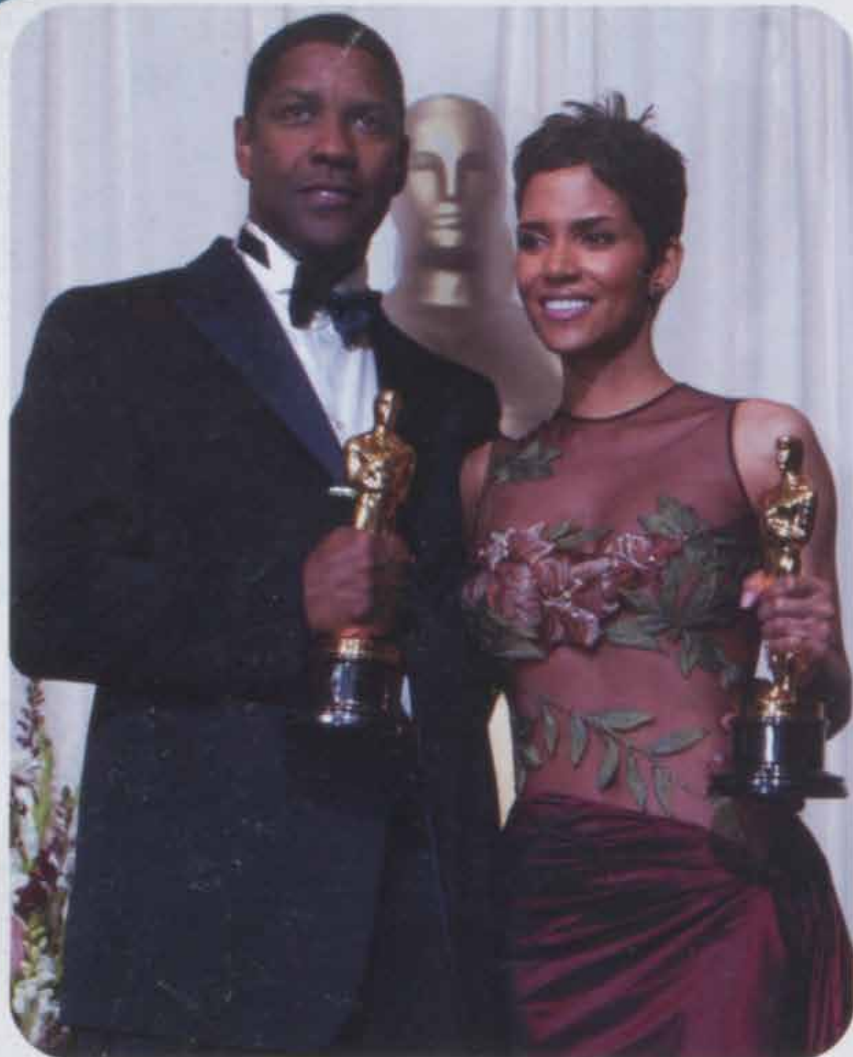

Anti-war marches across America and around the world are attended by thousands hoping for peace.

Jenna,

"May the good Lord be with you
Down Every road you roam
And may sunshine and happiness
Surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud
Dignified and true
As you'd have done to you
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay
And when you finally fly away,
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell
But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you win or lose"

The Knights of Columbus

If Nate Stormer could be anybody for a day, he would choose to be Brittany Spears. If Matt Goley could play any pro sport, he would choose soccer. Bre Thevenow's favorite TV show is American Idol.

Father McCarthy serves seniors, Matt Goley, Katie Schafer, and Clayton Tandy a meal he prepares. The meal was part of the senior religion class section on manners and was held at Lisa and John Gray's home. photo by Lisa Gray

The band warms up for the annual spring concert held in May. Ray Rice was the director filling in for Dawn Peterson after the birth of her second daughter. photo by Carole Williams

By the end of the year, students were more than ready for classes to end. Students were impacted by the war in Iraq. Jarrold Perry said, "I didn't like the protesters against the war, especially the junior high students who were against the United States position." When it was announced that Sister Jane Ann would not be returning, Sarah Yeager said, "I really like Sister and really hate to see her leave." For the first time, Honors were presented in an evening ceremony. Shawe games provided a field day of fun and a luncheon picnic. "I liked the tug of war best," said Kelli Hoffman, "because it showed the competitiveness between the girls in each class." -Alyssa Brown

As the year came to a close upperclassmen enjoyed prom. Megan Phillips said, "I love everything about the end of the school year.. well maybe not exams. Prom was a blast and junior/seniormass was awesome. Shawe games were great. I'll miss the seniors a lot." Semester exams were held the last week of school. "My hardest exam was social studies. I hate that class because I'm really bad at it," said Maria Berry. During exams students were dismissed from classes before noon all three days giving students a small dose of summer vacation. Lynsi Monroe said, "I'm happy that school is almost out because I want to sleep until noon, go on vacation and have no homework." -Alyssa Brown

Faculty members Denise Hackney, Bonnie Wentworth, and Sharon Rucker battle in tug of war on Shawe Games day. This year faculty came in sixth place for the first time in Shawe Game history breaking the faculty losing streak. photo by Carole Williams

COLOPHON

Staff members decided early on that Time of Your Life was an appropriate theme.

After taking pictures of the school clocks and student watches, a few were selected to be used on pages. For the fifth year, DPI, Incorporated, a local printer, was used to publish the yearbook. John Burress was the able graphic artist who assisted the staff and George Jackson, President of DPI, was the computer guru that was called upon in times of total desperation. Staff members included Anna Barber, John Bennett, Alyssa Brown, Kathryn Gray, Jarrold Perry, Tabatha Smith, Lesley Steinhardt, Josh Taffinger, Stephanie Von Fange, Cameron Willoughby, Sarah Yeager and Julie Zubaty. Carole Williams was the advisor. Quark XPress® was the program used as well as Adobe Photoshop® on three iMac Computers and an additional Apple Computer donated by DPI the previous year. Mug shots, team and club pictures as well as special events pictures were taken by Michael Heitz and several sports pictures were used from The Madison Courier with the help of Jack Ulrey.
